Dear Friends:

I am enclosing a small memento of the ceremony where we presented the first Japanese American redress payments. This souvenir edition of the program has been expanded to include messages from the President and the Attorney General.

I am pleased that so many of you were able to join us. The cordial presence of our friends and supporters made the event all the more special for me and my staff. While we missed the others of you who could not be there, we also recognize that we gave you very short notice, which was unavoidable.

I hope you will enjoy having this token, and look back on the occasion as fondly as I do.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bob", is written above the typed name.

Robert K. Bratt
Administrator of Redress
