
CLOTHING

We petition that the following question on clothing allowances be presented to a proper authority for equitable solution:

The clothing allowances of $3.75 per person was figured more than a year ago on the basis of prevailing prices of that time. Certain items of clothing doubled and tripled their prices within the past year. We request to increase the amount of clothing allowances commensurate with the advanced prices.

LIBRARY