

April 1, 1944

At about _____, March 30th, 1944, at chicken yard

I was approached by Mrs. Saijo and requested to sign a paper she brought with her if I intended to stay on my present job under Mr. Saijo's foremanship.

I had no alternative but to sign the paper because I thought if I showed any opposition and refused to sign, I would be certain to get a notice of termination soon. So I signed the paper.

S. Kitahara

An employee at the poultry farm

April 1, 1944

At about 10:00 A.M., March 31, 1944, at Poultry Farm

I was approached by Mrs. Saijo and requested to sign a paper she brought with her if I intended to stay on my present job under Mr. Saijo's foremanship.

I had no alternative but to sign the paper because I thought if I showed any opposition and refused to sign, I would be certain to get a notice of termination soon. So I signed the paper.

Sameton Wakouchi
An employee at the poultry farm

April 1, 1944

At about 10:00 AM, March 30, 1944, at chicken yard

I was approached by Mrs. Saijo and requested to sign a paper she brought with her on the pretext that in doing so my present job would be secure, so I signed the paper.

The paper I signed was blank and I noticed nothing whatever written or printed on it.

Tango Iriye

An employee at the poultry farm

1-21-D

April 1, 1944

At about 10:00 AM, March 30, 1944, at chicken yard
I was approached by Mrs. Saijo and requested to sign a paper she brought with her on the pretext that in doing so my present job would be secure, so I signed the paper.

The paper I signed was blank and I noticed nothing whatever written or printed on it.

H. S. Matsumaga
An employee at the poultry farm
29-6-B

April 1, 1944

At about 10:00 AM March 30, 1944, at chicken yard

I was approached by Mrs. Saijo and requested to sign a paper she brought with her if I intended to stay on my present job under Mr. Saijo's foremanship.

I had no alternative but to sign the paper because I thought if I showed any opposition and refused to sign, I would be certain to get a notice of termination soon. So I signed the paper.

U. Fujikawa

An employee at the poultry farm

29-19-C