

12-F, 6-F
Amache, Colorado
Jan. 16, 1945

Dear Mrs. Perry,

I just received a letter from Mr. Perry yesterday and am very sorry to hear that you are ill and not feeling well. My Grandfolks were very much worried too, and were thinking perhaps you might be ill because you generally write otherwise and we hadn't heard from you for so long. Here's hoping that by the time you get this letter, you will be feeling much better and well on the road to recovery.

I'm very glad to hear that everythings running smoothly at the ranch and that the tractor will be able to pull through again this coming season.

There is no rush about the statement and please don't worry about it until you are well again.

Since the lifting of the West Coast Exclusion Order, I thought there would be some excitement going on but here at Amache, its very quiet. I guess there will eventually be quite a few leaving for the West Coast but on the other hand, there will be a lot with no place to return to; especially those who have sold all they own and elderly single folks who no longer are able to work. I guess the W.R.A. has all of this figured out and time will tell.

The weather for the past week has been very warm and favorable but awfully cold in the mornings with lots of frost. Are you still having lots of fog and rain?

-2-

I will be closing here and hope that you are feeling much better.

Our kindest regards to Mr. Perry, I remain.

Very sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "L. J. Doyle", followed by a horizontal line.