Dear Mr. + Mrs. Perry,

I received the dictionaries which are the right ones, yesterday. It must have caused you a lot of trouble and time to look for them as I know you must be pretty busy now. Thanks very much. Enclosed are some stamps for the postage you used.

I'm sorry to hear that you are having such bad weather. I hope the crops aren't damaged too much.

We're having bad weather out here too. The dust has been blowing every afternoon for the last 4 or 5 days.

Thanks again for finding + sending the dictionaries + please take care of yourselves.

Sincerely,
Frank J. Ito + family
