Dear Sir:

Your telegram of March 17, 1942, addressed to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, relative to the rights of American born Japanese, has been referred to this office for consideration.

You may be sure that all regulations promulgated for the control of citizens of the United States as well as aliens of every nationality have been and will be given careful consideration with a view to minimizing the hardships incurred by such restricted measures as are necessary to protect the peace and safety of the United States at times such as these.

Very truly yours,

File
