PROGRAM ACQUISITION & FINISHING FUND
AGREEMENT

Date of Agreement: July 30, 1988

The National Asian American Telecommunications Association, 346 Ninth Street, 2nd Floor, San Francisco, 94103 (DISTRIBUTOR) and Loni Ding, Vox Productions, 2335 Jones Street, San Francisco, CA 94133 (PROGRAM SUPPLIER) hereby agree as follows:

The PROGRAM SUPPLIER hereby grants to DISTRIBUTOR this exclusive license to duplicate and distribute the program listed below for all forms of over the air non-commercial public broadcast purposes in the United States, its territories and possessions. Distribution may be made by all means now known or hereafter employed, for a three year period from the date of initial distribution of each program by DISTRIBUTOR with all rights expiring no later than expiration date of March, 30, 1992.

During that period, DISTRIBUTOR shall be authorized to permit each outlet to utilize the program for a maximum of (4) four releases within the (3) three year distribution period, with a single release being defined to mean the unlimited over the air dissemination of a program during any conservative seven day period. For these rights, DISTRIBUTOR agrees to pay the PROGRAM SUPPLIER a total license fee of $ 20,000. This fee shall be provided for acquisition and promotion for national public broadcast of the "Color of Honor."

In consideration of the above license fee for the right to use the program, DISTRIBUTOR will have editorial input and consultation with the PROGRAM SUPPLIER in preparing and distributing the finalized program for public broadcast. Purpose of editing is to use the program or portions thereof or excerpts therefrom, to conform to public broadcast format.
