

NOV 11 1962 SUPPLEMENT
THE DAY the FIGHTING STOPPED
YOU ARE THERE WITH THE VETERANS OF THREE WARS

WORLD WAR II Tenth Army soldiers approach shell-scarred Catholic mission during battle for Okinawa. Navy landing ships landed marines and soldiers at the beginning of the long battle.

By HAL DRAKE
Stars and Stripes Staff Writer

MAR 29. 1970 PACIFIC P4-5
The Battle Of Easter Sunday 1945

496

27 OCT

22-1504-8 / AFPE-55

1 AUG. 55

10.00

Battle Of Okinawa

Stillwell
Tenth Army soldiers cautiously approach the shell-scarred ruin of a Catholic Mission in Naha, Okinawa, during the invasion, 1945.

US ARMY PHOTO
NOT FOR PUBLICATION UNLESS RELEASED BY A UNITED STATES ARMY PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER