

SC 180022

Japanese-American Chaplain. This newly-commissioned U. S. Army Chaplain is Lieut. Hiro Higuchi, a native of Hawaii, of Japanese parentage. He is now in training at Harvard, and is the second chaplain of Japanese ancestry to receive a commission in the U. S. Army Chaplains Corps. Higuchi is 36, married, and has a seven year old son. He has attended Oberlin College and the Universities of Hawaii and California. He represents the Congregational Christian communion. 1941

SC 180022

RECEIVED
MAY 1941

Approved by
The Hon. Sec.

U. S. Army
Department of Public Affairs
20510