

July 8, 1948

My dear Bill Kochlyan:

I have frequently referred to the magnificent record of the 442nd Central Postal Directory and will be glad to do anything I can to help them secure the public recognition they deserve.

Sincerely yours,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Bill Kochlyan', is written over a faint, rectangular portrait of a man in a military-style uniform. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

My de of th
I ex
dear

Mr. and Mrs. [Name] with the [Name]
and the [Name] of [Name]
[Name] [Name] [Name] [Name]

