confessin' that it's the best place

Back home again at their house at 1511 East Fir St., Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. K. Taniguchi can certainly look upon their war careers as one filled with many travels to various parts of this country. However, now back in their real "home-town," they confess that it is the best place in the world.

oh-h-h!!! fran-n-kie

The recent visit to the Fellowship House at Philadelphia of Frank Sinatra to speak on the subject, "Racial Tolerance," was especially exciting for the Kaneda family, formerly of the Rohrer center, who have been making their home in a top-floor apartment at the Fellowship House since coming to Philadelphia a year ago.

U. of California Receptive To Returning Collegians

Berkeley Y.M.C.A. Offers Varied Assistance to Student Returnees

In a letter addressed to Miss Helen E. Amerman, student relocation counselor, the president of the student cabinet of the Y.M.C.A. organization on the campus of the University of California wrote that the university's Young Men's Christian Association is still and always will be interested in the welfare of the Nisei students.

West Coast Colleges

In discussing the advantages of a western school, Schwabacher stated that the west coast colleges offer excellent opportunities in education at lower cost than most eastern or middle western institutions. This is due to the fact that most of the residents of the centers are still considered legal residents of California, and, therefore, may not have to pay out-of-state tuition fees, he declared.

Disadvantages Present

In reference to the disadvantages present in relocating to colleges on the coast and more specifically, the University of California, he stated that there were some part-time jobs for unskilled or inexperienced students, but that they were restricted to garden work, dishwashing, etc. He concluded that generally speaking, it would not be desirable for Nisei students to be typed as domestics and gardeners.
