Paul Ito Wins Hearts of Lorian

The sentiment was universal after a recent pep rally in Paul Ito's brief but lively collegiate oration on "American Sportsmanship." With a soft voice and earnest feeling, he told fellow Lorians of the joys expressed in playing varsity basketball with other American boys in the true American fashion. . . And all went away convinced that this same thing will happen all over the nation once the bells of peace have rung—Lorian, Dubuque, Iowa.

WFA Policies Clarified By Representative

To acquaint the residents on the recruiting methods of the War Food Administration and also the various types of seasonal farm employment offers, B. O. McCulloch, a representative of the WFA, arrived here Monday. He will be located at the Outside Employment office for some time.

"All recruiting for seasonal farm work and other authorized seasonal work will be done by WFA and not by the individuals," McCulloch said.
