Prior to the formal transfer of Community Enterprises to the Minidoka Consumers' Cooperative, the newly-elected Board of Directors will hold its first meeting on March 30.

Jukichi Yoshida, chairman of the Nominating and Election committee, conducted the meeting which adjourned at 1:00 a. m.

Civil Service Jobs Re-Open

WRA Plan for Use Of Nisei in Gov't. Jobs Meets Approval

A WRA plan to put Americans of Japanese ancestry into government civil service jobs has met with the agreement of the Civil Service Commission, the Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance reported Monday.

It was reported that tentative arrangements provide both civil service and FBI examinations, employment only in areas approved by military authorities and assignment to work of a non-confidential nature.

WRA officials expect several thousand citizens of Japanese ancestry in the relocation camps to qualify, among whom there will be many from Hunt.

The WRA meanwhile announced Tuesday that evacuees may take government civil service examinations in the centers.

NISEI VOLUNTEERS NUMBER 1,000 War Department Lauds Sakura Brothers

Hunt's now famous four Sakura brothers—Chet, Howard, Kenny and Ted—and their mother, Mrs. Misa Sakura, received special mention from Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson in an announcement Thursday that more than 1,000 men of Japanese ancestry have volunteered for the army combat team to be made up wholly of American citizens of Japanese descent.

Secretary Stimson, in a letter to Mrs. Sakura at the Minidoka center, declared of her four sons that "their action in volunteering for service within the combat team consisting of loyal Americans of Japanese descent is a splendid example of true Americanism."

The full text of the letter received by Mrs. Misa Sakura from the War Department reads as follows:

Dear Mrs. Sakura:

The Secretary of War has directed that I extend to you the congratulations of the War Department upon the enlistment of your four sons in the Army of the United States. Their action in volunteering for service in the combat team consisting of loyal Americans of Japanese descent is a splendid example of true Americanism.

President Roosevelt has stated: "No loyal citizen of the United States should be denied the democratic right to exercise the responsibilities of his citizenship, regardless of his ancestry. The principle on which this country was founded and by which it has always been governed is that Americanism is not a matter of race or ancestry. A good American is one who is loyal to this country and to our creed of liberty and democracy. Every loyal American citizen should be given the opportunity to serve this country wherever his skills will make the greatest contribution—whether it be in the ranks of our armed forces, war production, agriculture, government service, or other work essential to the war effort."

I am sure that you are proud of your sons who have willingly taken their places in the defense of their country.

WILLIAM P. SCOBEE,
Col. General Staff Executive.

Naturalization Assured Alien Volunteers in War Powers Act

Elaborating on the telegram received from Washington on citizenship for aliens who enlist in the army, Ralph J. Moore, Project Attorney, released the following terms of the 2nd War Powers Act, Title 8.

Any person who serves honorably in the military or naval forces of the United States during the present war may be naturalized upon compliance with all the requirements of the naturalization laws. This provision enables alien evacuees who are willing to serve in the United States Army to be naturalized.

No declaration or intentions and no period of residence within the United States, which are usually required, are necessary.

The petition for naturalization may be filed in any court having naturalization jurisdiction. The petitioner does not have to speak English, or sign the petition with his own handwriting, and he does not have to meet any educational test. No fees are charged in the proceedings.

Affidavits of at least two credible witnesses, citizens of the United States, stating that the soldier seeking citizenship is of good moral character and upholds the Constitution of the United States, are necessary.

Any person entitled to naturalization under this statute, whether he is outside the United States or otherwise outside the jurisdiction of naturalization courts, may be naturalized without appearing before the naturalization courts. Such naturalization may be acquired before a representative of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Aliens may file their papers at a state court, as well as a federal court, according to Moore.

CAMPS TO HOUSE 1,800 MIGRATORY FARM WORKERS

Plans for the housing of 1,800 migratory farm workers in 10 districts over south central Idaho were revealed in Twin Falls by R. T. Magleby, Portland, Oreg., farm labor supervisor of the northwest region for the Farm Security Administration, according to the Twin Falls Times-News.

Up for most immediate consideration was the project of establishing the Burley camp and the organization of management for the camps at Buhl and Castleford. FSA will provide the buildings, equipment and management to make these camps ready for beet thinning time, which is about April 15.

The camps when operating will offer facilities to house approximately 1,800 migratory workers in 10 districts. The locations of the camps and the number to be handled in each are: Twin Falls, 600; Filer, 200; Buhl, 150; Castleford, 50; Paul, 200; Burley, 150; Gooding, 100; Jerome, 150; Hazelton, 50, and Wendell, 50.

Minidoka Paces WRA Field in Enlistments

Induction Delayed at Least 10 Days, Report in Washington, D. C., Discloses

According to presently available information, Hunt, with more than 300 or close to 20% of all eligible males volunteering, led all ten WRA centers in the number of A-J's seeking duty with the special combat unit. The Poston, Arizona, and Granada, Colorado, centers are credited with following the Minidoka center in that order in number of volunteers, while 9,507 A-J's in the Territory of Hawaii answered the call for volunteers during February.

It was reported in Washington this week that induction of the A-J

Hunt Shows Way In Red Cross Drive

Students, Personnel, Residents Donate A Total of $2,593.85

Close to 78 per cent of Hunt's entire population contributed an unofficial grand total of $2,593.85 to the Red Cross war fund during the two-week drive concluded last Saturday, and placed this center ahead of all other relocation projects participating in the nationwide mercy drive, it was announced at a special meeting of the Red Cross committee yesterday.

Donations to the fund, the greater part of which will be sent to the national Red Cross organization, came from elementary and high school pupils, appointed personnel and residents of the center's thirty-five blocks.

Mrs. Yone Arai, temporary general chairman of the Red Cross committee, declared that the drive "bespeaks again the highly commendable public-spiritedness of the residents here, and adds to the leading position our community occupies among WRA centers."

A break-down of the total contribution revealed the following:

|---------------------|------------|
| Blocks              | $2,116.16 |
| Appointed personnel | $19.10    |
| High school         | 113.41     |
| Elementary schools  | 45.16      |

Organizer and chairman of the war fund drive committee was Hiroshi Sumida, who was assisted by the Block Managers and teams of solicitors in each block. Dyke Miyagawa handled publicity.

Other active leaders of the drive were Kiyo Yamamoto, chairman of the Junior Red Cross tag sales, the Hi-Y Club, Boy and Girl Scouts, Mrs. Jerome T. Light, who took charge of the drive among the appointed personnel, and Seichi Hara, chairman of the block drive teams.

New Military Police Company, Headed By Lt. Ruff, Here

A new company of military police, headed by Lieutenant Harry T. Ruff, arrived here Thursday morning from Ogden, it was announced yesterday.

At the same time, the company headed by Capt. W. E. Dorland, which had been on duty at Hunt since August 9, was transferred to Ogden where it will undergo five weeks' intensive training.

volunteers has been delayed at least ten days, and will not begin until an undisclosed date after March 25.

Army physical examinations will take place in the Poston, Gila River, Manzanar, Tule Lake, Minidoka and Topaz centers, while enlistees at the Heart Mountain, Granada, Jerome and Rohwer projects will undergo examinations at their local selective service boards, it was stated.

Volunteers in the continental United States outside the relocation centers will be reclassified as 1-A as soon as the War Department "screens" their applications. They will be inducted in the first quota through regular channels after their papers have been returned to their local boards.

American-Japanese reserve officers have been restored to the active list and to their ranks, and are now being called for service with the new combat team, it was also stated.

124 Granada Nisei Enlist

Colo. Center Ranks Second to Minidoka With 11% Volunteering

GRANADA, Colo.—Project Director James G. Lindley announced this week that 124 Japanese-Americans from Granada relocation center have volunteered for service in the special U. S. army combat unit.

Together with the 10 who enlisted last December for training at Camp Savage, Minn., the total enlistment is about 11 per cent of the male population of the center between the ages of 17 and 38.

Among the volunteers are 15 married men, 8 of whom have children. Forty-one of the enlistees have attended college, including 12 graduates. The average age is 23 years.

The Granada center ranked second to the Minidoka center in the number of volunteers in proportion to the population. Minidoka led with 19 per cent.

104 Volunteer At Topaz Center

TOPAZ, Utah — Approximately 10 per cent of more than 1,000 volunteers for the special combat team drawn from the 10 relocation centers for active duty with the United States Army are listed from the central Utah project at Topaz, Charles F. Ernst, project

Boost Hawaii Army Quota

The new quota for the Territory of Hawaii calls for 2,600 volunteers of Japanese ancestry to be inducted into the United States Army for service in the special Japanese-American combat team for active service in the European war theatre, the headquarters of the army's Hawaiian department announced last week, according to the Pacific Citizen.

The original call was for 1,500 volunteers. Additional inductees for this combat regiment will be drawn from a pool of 9,507 Americans of Japanese ancestry who volunteered during February.

Ernst pointed out that approximately seven per cent of those eligible volunteers of the Topaz center offered their services for the combat team. There are 104 volunteers from this center.

233 Volunteer At Ariz. Center

233 Japanese-Americans have volunteered from the Colorado river war relocation center for combat duty with the United States army, the center administration announced Tuesday, according to the A. P.

The disclosure came as a result of the registration of all persons, 16 years or over, in the Poston camp of 18,000 Japanese—largest of the war relocation centers.

Awaiting induction into the army, the inductees have been the guests of honor at a succession of banquets, parties and dances given by their families and friends.

Ralph Gelvin, associate project director, said that an "overwhelming majority" of the American-born and alien Japanese in this center registered their loyalty to the United States.

To interview prospective sugar beet workers, M. R. Dallin and L. P. Burrowman, representatives of the U. and I. Sugar Company from Idaho Falls, will be at the Outside Placement Office on Monday and Tuesday, it was announced today.

GREEN ISSUES CALL FOR 150 MEN TO WORK ON IMPROVING CANAL

"Whether the people want to live in a dust bowl or a clean, pleasant place is up to themselves," commented Glen R. Green, Associate Construction Engineer, as he sent out a call for 150 men to work on improving the irrigation canal which runs from the Twin Falls North Side Canal directly to camp. The canal was built to irrigate the future farms and gardens, and to sprinkle the project itself to keep the dust down.

Work on the canal has already started under Harvey Floyd, Road and Irrigation Engineer. The canal is about six miles in overall length, ending outside of Block 13. This is to take care of Blocks 12 to 44, while the rest of the camp on higher ground will be irrigated by pumps.

Those who wish to start work on the canal are asked to contact Green in the Public Works Division in Wing 4 of the Administration Bldg.

Meanwhile the employment office issued a similar plea for 125 irrigation laborers this week, and those interested are to see K.

Kanno at the office in 22-11. The hours of work are from 9:30 to 3:30, with transportation and lunch furnished the workers.

Kanno said today, "I want to stress the importance of the fact that if workers are not obtained, Hunt cannot have its farming. Vegetables are needed if the center is to be at least partly self-sufficient."

Health Hints

Stressing the fact that common colds are contracted in the Spring due to carelessness in the wearing of warm apparel, the Medical Division, this week issued four precautionary measures for the prevention of colds.

The first and most important is the avoidance of contact with persons who have colds, the use of another's handkerchief, being in the same room with a person who coughs and sneezes carelessly and kissing a person who has a cold.

Another very important feature in preventing colds is the avoidance of over-exposure to drafts, very cold weather, and wet feet the Medical Division said.

Since the maintenance of the general well-being and bodily resistance is very important, adequate rest is also a good safeguard against contracting the common cold. The average adult requires a minimum of eight hours sleep out of every twenty-four, and the average infant, from fourteen to eighteen hours of sleep.

Prompt care of the first symptoms will prevent the development of a full-blown infection. Such care should include hot gargles, drinking large quantities of fluids, a hot shower with a vigorous rub-down and, if necessary, spending a day or two in bed.

These points, if observed carefully, would greatly decrease the incidence of the common cold which is the most prevalent of all diseases and accounts for more man days lost from work than any other disease.

Road barriers have been placed on certain roads around the three schools in Blk. 10, 23 and 32. Drivers are requested not to park within these closed roads or go around these barriers where the students are at play. Violators will be reported to the Internal Security Division.

Urge Study Of Japanese

Representative Anderson, Republican, California, last week in Washington urged the House to speed action on a resolution by Representative Jackson, Democrat, Washington, for creation of a special committee to study the Japanese problem in this country.

This, the latest congressional development concerning Americans of Japanese ancestry, was preceded by investigations and tours of relocation camps by Senator A. B. "Happy" Chandler, Democrat, Kentucky, and Senator Mon C. Wallgren, Democrat, Washington.

Wallgren, according to an AP dispatch, recommended segregation of the loyal and disloyal elements he claimed exist in the centers. He made a personal inspection of the Tule Lake center.

Caution Truck Drivers

Truck drivers have been cautioned not to drive their vehicles across the lots in the vicinity of the Stafford and Huntville elementary schools and Hunt high school, which are being leveled off to construct playgrounds.

Form Crew To Combat Range Fires

A volunteer crew is being organized at the Minidoka Relocation Center to help fight forest, brush and grass fires in this region under the direction of the U. S. Forest Service Grazing Service.

The general manpower shortage, especially the absence of CCC crews, prompted the organization of a volunteer crew of 50 young men in the relocation center who will be ready to travel to the scene of a fire on short notice.

Plans for the fire fighting crew of young men of Japanese ancestry were made at a conference at the relocation center attended by Maurice W. March, U. S. Grazing Service, Burley; John T. Mathews, superintendent, Minidoka national forest, Burley; Elmer C. Ross, forest ranger, Twin Falls; Leon R. Nadeau, district grazer, Shoshone; Harry L. Stafford, director of the Minidoka center, and William L. Yeager, fire protection officer of the center.

An education program to train the crew members will begin March 29 at the center under the direction of forest service and grazing service officials. This crew will not only be useful in combating outside fires but also protecting the 68,000 acres in the project area, mostly covered by sagebrush and cheat grass. Because of the large amount of moisture this winter it is anticipated that the growth of brush and grass on the plains and underbrush in the forest will be unusually heavy.

The crew from the Minidoka center will respond to fire calls only from the forest service or the grazing service and not from individuals.

Blk. 2 Partitioning Work Starts Soon

With some finished apartments assigned to occupants, partitioning work in Blks. 41 and 42 are expected to be completed by today, the Housing Division announced. Work will be started on Blk. 2 sometime next week, followed by Blk. 13 or 15.

Upon completion of the partitioning work, approximately 150 two and three person families who formerly occupied five or seven person rooms will be properly housed in small individual living quarters.

Some partitioned rooms have three windows and all have ample space, according to a Housing spokesman.

Co-op Stores To Be Closed Mar. 31

Rare, Imported "Tai" Presented To WRA Staff by Block Managers

On behalf of the block managers Tura Nakamura presented a "tai" to H. L. Stafford, Project Director, and Philip Schafer, Assistant Project Director, for the entire administrative staff Monday noon at the staff dining hall.

The "tai" is a symbol of a joyous occasion in Japan. The presentation of the ceremonial fish to the administrative staff was a token of appreciation, Nakamura said, for the part the staff played in making the Army volunteer program such a success here. He pointed out that the Minidoka center was far ahead of all the other centers in having 300 men volunteer for induction and he attributed much of the enthusiastic response to the fatherly and brotherly attitude of the administrative staff which gave the Minidoka men and boys courage to answer the call to colors.

The "tai" is now rare in this country. The one presented to the WRA staff was imported from Japan before the outbreak of the war and had been kept frozen since.

The sugar company representative's headquarters here are in the Outside Employment office.

Forming of Volunteers' Organizations Suggested

As a first step in bringing all American citizens of Japanese descent serving in the army together to work for civil rights now and after the war, a suggestion has been offered by the Topaz, Utah, relocation center that organizations of volunteers be set up in each of the 10 WRA relocation centers.

The Topaz volunteers have already organized a "Volunteer for Victory" group and adopted a credo which has been submitted to the volunteers from each of the other nine centers.

Credo Volunteers of Topaz

We believe in Democracy and dedicate ourselves to the furtherance of its principles.

To uphold these principles, we must destroy every form of tyranny, oppression, and violation of human rights.

We place our faith in America and base our hope in the future on that faith.

Therefore, we believe that our volunteering in the armed forces of this country is a step towards the realization of these ends, and a positive manifestation of our loyalty to the United States.

ROBERT S. IKI,
Acting Chairman.

In a letter addressed to Project Director Harry L. Stafford, Charles P. Ernst, director of the Topaz center, wrote:

"The main thing now is to set up an organization in each project with a temporary organization to serve as a point of contact so that the volunteers in each center may communicate with each other their plans for developing a long-range program in behalf of all Japanese-Americans and their relatives, and always having in mind the welfare of the United States."

Projects which are interested in this proposal of joining with the volunteers of the other centers in developing a plan for unity, even before they meet after their induction, have been asked to notify the Topaz "Volunteer for Victory" group.

If other centers would like to develop their own credo or suggest a revision in the one offered by the Topaz volunteers, which is offered in the adjoining column, they should not hesitate, the Topaz center stated.

DIRECTOR HARRY L. STAFFORD

The Irrigator's staff artist, Eddie Sato, paternal pal of "Dokie" and talented 1/300th of Hunt's volunteers, did some extra bearing down in his corner one night this week and caught the humor, patience and both-feet-always-squarely-on-the-ground solidity of Project Director Harry L. Stafford in lithograph crayon. The caricature is reproduced here that Irrigator readers beyond Hunt's boundaries, in WRA offices and in other centers, may have a good look at one big reason why Hunt comes out unfailingly ahead and on time.—The Editors.

"the faces parade..in proud review" Bill Hosokawa Writes of Hunt's Volunteers

Editor's Note: The following is reprinted from Bill Hosokawa's column "On the Inside," in The Heart Mountain Sentinel which he edits. Himself an ex-Seattleite, Editor Hosokawa made his journalistic mark in the Far East between graduation from the U. of Wash. and Pearl Harbor, and counts many of Hunt's 300 volunteers among his personal friends.

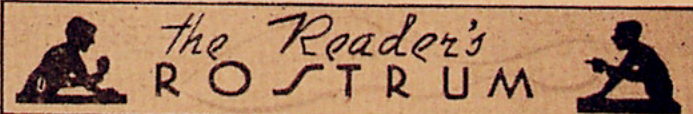

Minidoka, Idaho, whose residents are from Seattle and the Puyallup Valley in Washington, and Portland in Oregon, this week passed the 300 figure in volunteers for the all-nisei combat unit, and we can't suppress a feeling of pride inasmuch we come from that section of the country.

The names of many who volunteered are familiar from long years of friendship and acquaintance, and as we write this, the faces parade before our eyes in proud review.

There are faces like those of the three football-playing Yanagimachis, Harry, Sushi and Fat; the Takayoshi boys, Tome, Yoshi and Taiji, all three of them with one or more children; burly Michio Shinoda, who has three children and a younger brother and sister dependent on him; the four Sakura boys and the three Onoderas; Sadao Baba, built like a barrel and weighing 215 pounds; a couple of kids who were just poolhall bums until they woke up to what this was all about; amiable Hiromu Nishitani, over 40 and the father of two grown boys, knowing he will have a chance to get his American citizenship if he can fight in this war; Dyke and Tom, victims of infantile paralysis; Jimmie who has been blind for years and just crying for his eyesight so that he might serve; Milton Maeda who could apply for a commission on his training and experience as an electrical engineer, but signing up as a buck private and leaving his bride of a few months, Dr. Suzuki an experienced physician, volunteering as a private because he happened to be born in Japan; and so the parade continues.

We wish we were in a position to go with them. A soldier couldn't have better buddies.

To the Editor:

I wish to congratulate you and your staff upon the newly presented Minidoka IRRIGATOR. It is really informative, interesting, and informal. The style is excellent.

We who are away from the Pacific Northwest now, surely appreciate reading items of news interestingly presented by The IRRIGATOR.

Sincerely,

To the Editor:

For the past several weeks I have been receiving your mimeographed newspaper. I have read these sheets with much interest.

Vindication Of WRA Policy

SOME of the press statements attributed to members of the Senate military affairs sub-committee investigating WRA centers have given us the impression that a lot of feinting and shadow-boxing is going on with no basically telling blows falling upon the administrators of the relocation program. While politicians are usually expected to fan the air with more unnecessary vigor than ordinary mortals, they still somehow manage to keep us guessing at times, and Senator "Happy" Chandler's sub-committee has given us no reasons for considering it an exception.

Though it has never been suggested that the sub-committee is solely interested in making political capital of the Japanese evacuee problem, certain of the committee members have not always approached the question with fairness and objectivity. It is also true that some of the members were total strangers to the subject, and may have been influenced by the chorus of irrational bombast which is forever emanating from the Pacific Coast. There are Senators on the sub-committee who may have been totally ignorant as to the why and where of Japanese relocation centers.

It now appears, however, that the sub-committee is finding little to throw at the WRA in the way of criticism. Senator Chandler's most recent statements are in effect mere echoes of what the WRA has repeatedly advanced as its official policy. The WRA has always had as its objectives the segregation of the disloyal from the loyal and the quickest possible dissolution of the relocation centers through resettlement of the loyal. In recommending a course which the WRA, the War Department and other federal agencies have advocated from the very beginning of the evacuation from the Pacific Coast, the Senate sub-committee is vindicating the only policy that is rational and feasible in a democracy.

There is still some talk, of course, about the "inadequacy" of the guard system at the centers visited by the sub-committee members, but that is what we have in mind when we make references to shadow-boxing. The tenor of the present investigation is such that it appears the administration and disposition of the evacuee problem will remain in the hands of WRA.

A Proposal For Nisei Volunteers

OUT of Topaz this week came a suggestion that A-J army volunteers in all ten relocation centers organize themselves into "Volunteer for Victory" groups which will develop "a long range program in behalf of all Japanese Americans."

It is a little difficult to say what the volunteers will be able to accomplish specifically as a political group—especially when it is realized that they will soon be completely engrossed in training for overseas combat duty with little time for participation in the settlement of current home front issues. The nisei soldier in this war, like other men now in the ranks, is probably more awake to the political issues of the struggle than was the doughboy of World War I, and certainly has definite ideas about the kind of post-war America he wants to come back to. But for all that, the soldier's part in domestic politics is restricted, regrettable as it may be.

Still, it is no strain on the imagination to recognize the unanswerable authority with which nisei men in uniform will be able to speak as a politically alert organized group ready to fight encroachments upon the rights of Japanese Americans. And the creation of a special A-J combat team, after all, is in itself the most potent single weapon available to a minority which has been kicked around too long and too much by the entrenched reactionaries in American economy and politics.

Front line participation by the best of our young men in the war to exterminate the roots and weeds of all that Hitler and Tojo represent is our most eloquent answer to those who persist in attempting to implant similar roots within our own borders at our expense. But ignorance, hatred, reaction and tendencies toward exploitation at home must be met with the same "all-out" effort we expend abroad against the Axis, and the volunteers at Topaz were undoubtedly motivated by this recognition of necessity for double-barreled action all the way around.

Minidoka's 300 soldiers-to-be can lose nothing by establishing communications with their comrades-to-be at Topaz and the other centers.

WHEN THE MASS CHOIR

bundled up in blankets, rode back home in the cold night, it was not of their successfully completed concert presented that afternoon in Rupert to a capacity audience of 1,400, nor of the real home style dinners and suppers that most of them were thinking of. . . . the thought foremost in their minds was expressed by the parting, "G'bye Mae."

For with the recent Rupert concert came the last opportunity to sing under the expert leadership of Mrs. Iwao Hara. Choir leader, music supervisor, church leader, better known to the group as "Mae," Mrs. Hara will be remembered by all the sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses for her inimitable style and her ability to "bring it out of you."

Good luck, Mae, on your new venture!

NOW WE OF THE TYPICAL

nisei limbs can take malicious delight in feeling sorry for those fortunate girls blessed with slim, straight, shapely gams. "Hosiery Supply To Fall Short" runs the head in the newspaper. Delightfully sheer rayon, nylon, not to even speak of silk, that so flatteringly display the legs to the best advantage will be painfully scarce.

According to a certain Mr. Taylor Durham, executive secretary of the Southern Hosiery Manufacturers, it takes 43,000,000 dozen pairs of hose to cover the legs of the ladies of America in a normal year. In this past year, the WPB released enough rayon yarn to make only 25,000,000 dozen pairs. And there's no silk or rayon yarn left.

What's all the furore about? We should be concerned—we have our anklets and we love 'em.

THREE HUNDRED MALES

are a lot of males in camp—especially when they're going to turn up missing. What with the army and green fields of employment beckoning, the lass who's left behind has a lot of reorganizing to do to keep herself from being mighty lonely and bored. Dancing may soon come to the stage where girl stag lines vie for the favors of a few boys. The only solution is hen parties. Don't groan—they're really fun. Just ask some girls who've really enjoyed themselves at all-girl mixers.

Girls' clubs fostering feminine companionships and organized girls' sports leagues should be making their appearances. Let's see a lot more of them.

Hospital Patients Seldom Idle Now

Through Mrs. J. T. Light's voluntary service, the handicraft and entertainment departments have been able to organize a program in the hospital to keep the patients occupied, Mrs. Ishi Morishita, handicrafts supervisor of community activities said today.

Daily handicraft classes are held in the morning, while the entertainment program is offered twice weekly from 8 to 9 p. m. Mrs. Kawago has charge of the crocheting and knitting interests, and several women patients have completed wearing apparel, dollies, and novelty dolls under her instruction.

The entertainment program consists of a Monday night record concert and a Tuesday night talent show. Records used for entertainment at the hospital are donations of residents. The patients have enjoyed entertainment given them by Mr. and Mrs. Kameo Nakamura, Miss Suzie Takimoto, and Mrs. Dorrie Abe. The League of Mary members alternately take care of playing the records on Mondays.

The Boy Scouts have volunteered their services to bring Japanese reading material to the hospital from the project library and exchange them once a week.

Any donations from the residents in the way of left-over yarn thread, etc., will greatly help the continuance of this humanitarian work," Mrs. Morishita concluded.

Blk. 34 Captures Prize in Sec. VI Skit Competition

Hunt's initial sectional talent revue, a two-night benefit for the volunteers, was brought to a successful close Wednesday in Rec. 34, by Sec. VI. All blocks in the section vied for the prize for the best Skit. Blk. 34 with a hilarious skit titled "This Is The Army, Mr. Shirankotowanai" or the "K. P. Kid," won the prize. Those in this skit were: Frank Morishita, narrator, and K. P. kids Harry Nakata, Frank Muramatsu, Mas Kinoshita, and Yoshitahara. Nakata wowed the audience in the lead part, throwing in "Mortimer snerd" and "Donald Duck" for good measure.

Other blocks vying for the prize were: Blk. 35 with a take-off on "Take It Off," which showed seven glamorous, hairy-legged chorus gals, such as JoJo Sakakibara, Harry Tambara, Tosh Okazaki, George Heyamoto, Frank Nakata, Harry Nakata, and Hank Irinaga; Blk. 37 with a skit called "The Turnip Patch" which presented Jane Nishino, Ray Fukutomi, Ivor Nii, Mable Shimizu, and Ebo Oyiyama; and Blk. 38 with "Washing The Sleep Out of the Eyes" which included Eddie Sato, Mary Tsuchikawa, Toshio Ikeda, Kaz Ishimitau, Fumi Sato, and Tomiko Fujino.

Other performers introduced by emcee Tom Onishi were Sachi Uyegaki, Katherine Kido, Isao Toshihara, Betty Ikeda, Lucy Torii, "Chickie" Ishihara, Alice Matsumoto, and Ted Shimano, all of whom "gave out" with vocal, dance, or instrumental solos.

Yamasaki Rites Held

QUESTION—What's the chief difference between the Co-operatives and ordinary business?

ANSWER—The chief aim of the ordinary, privately owned business is to make a profit for its owners. The more profit it makes, the better the owners are satisfied, naturally. This profit comes out of the pockets of the consumers, yet he has no control over such business, which charges him as much as the traffic will bear and cuts corners on quality wherever it will "get by."

In the cooperative, control is in the hands of the people who do the buying—the consumers. A group of people voluntarily band together as consumers to pool their purchasing power and other resources in order to supply themselves with the best possible goods and services at the lowest possible cost. While ordinary business is primarily seeking its own gain, the consumers' gain is the aim of the cooperative.

QUESTION—Who are eligible to elective offices of the Co-op?

ANSWER—Only fully paid members are qualified to hold elective offices or become delegates of the Co-op.

QUESTION—What are the rights of those who have paid only a part of the membership fee?

ANSWER—Anyone whose membership is not fully paid, but who has paid at least a dollar is a subscriber-member and is entitled to vote at meetings. He is not eligible to hold office or become a delegate. The right to vote is revoked if the membership fee is not paid in full within 18 months from the date of subscription.

QUESTION—I am leaving the center. Can I transfer my stamp book to my parents?

ANSWER—Yes, if either are Co-op members. The Co-op office has transfer forms that you can sign transferring the books to any member you may designate. Bring your stamp book with you so that the number can be recorded.

QUESTION—Can non-members buy Co-op bonds?

ANSWER—No. Only members may buy Co-op bonds. The present issue of bonds is limited to $20.00 per member.

Evacuees Must Show Property Disposal Plans

WRA Field Supervisors To Aid in Fulfilling Requests of Owners

In order for a resident of the Minidoka center to take advantage of the free services provided by the Evacuee Property Office, it will be necessary for him to fill out and sign a request form. This form, supplied by WRA, will contain the information necessary for the field supervisors to carry out the desires of the owner. In the statement will be a general description of the property, its location, present custodian, if any, and other facts affecting it. Where the property is affected by leases, contracts, agreements, inventories or other lists of goods, copies should be furnished to the Evacuee Property Office.

On this form will also be a statement of the results which the owner wants to achieve. For instance, if the goods are to be sold, the expected price will be stated. If the property is for rent or lease, the general terms of the lease and the desired rental will be included.

It should be understood that if the owner of property authorizes the Evacuee Property Office to undertake negotiations in his behalf, he should employ no other agents for the same purpose.

If it develops that officials of the Evacuee Property Office can not fully carry out the expressed desires of the owner, but counter offers are received, they will be fully reported and may be accepted or rejected by the evacuee.

New Utah Office Created to Aid Employers Seeking Evacuee Labor

Dentists Rest On March 31

All dental appointments for March 31st will be cancelled because inventory will be taken on that date.

Patients who were to be treated on the 31st are requested to make new appointments.

Nine Branch Offices Also Planned, States Rex Lee, Agency Head

Western farmers and other employers who wish to avail themselves of workers of Japanese ancestry will be served by a new office of the War Relocation Authority in Salt Lake City, the agency announced Thursday.

The purpose of the new office will be to facilitate employment negotiations in an area embracing all of Utah, Nevada, and Idaho, the western tier of counties in Wyoming, all of Montana except the southeastern corner, and all of Arizona and the coastal states not included in the zones barred to wartime evacuees by the Western Defense Command.

Heading the new office in the Atlas Building is H. Rex Lee, formerly assistant chief of the WRA employment office in San Francisco, which has had its functions transferred to the Utah capital. He stated that arrangements are under way to open, as soon as possible, nine branch offices in connection with the area office in Salt Lake City, to handle requests for labor in the Great Salt Lake Valley, and will be under the direction of Henry Harris, Jr., who has headed a similar office since December 1.

Four other principal area relocation offices have recently been established, according to Lee, in Denver, Kansas City, Chicago, and Cleveland each having jurisdiction over the relocation program in several states. They will all have a two-fold purpose: first, to cooperate with employers in relieving manpower shortages in agriculture and other critical industries over a wide range of the country, and secondly, to help residents of the relocation centers in finding the types of employment that they are best fitted by training and experience, to fill.

"We will make every effort," Lee says, "to assist qualified employers to obtain needed evacuees. However, since many residents in relocation centers are being recruited for the U. S. army and for employment on the production front in states farther east, the number which will be available for employment in any area will be limited. Evacuees eligible for leave from a relocation center are at liberty to accept any approved work offers."

Indefinite leaves for year-round employment are granted only to relocation center residents whose backgrounds and loyalties have been investigated by the War Relocation Authority, and after a record check by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. All evacuee families eligible for leaves, who have not accepted offers of year-round employment, are being encouraged to accept temporary seasonal work.

This program has been approved by President Roosevelt, the War Department, the Department of Justice, and the War Manpower Commission.

CO-OP Theaters

"Back Street," with Charles Boyer, Margaret Sullavan and Richard Carlson, will be shown next week at the Co-op theaters.

Screen history is made in this picture of Fannie Hurst's great novel. Sensational situations and a wealth of emotional drama characterize this film of a girl content to live in the back street of a man's life, sacrificing herself to help him in his world-famous career.

SPOR75 Scratches by yuji + ichi

Results of a survey conducted by the Spokane Athletic Round Table, in which civilians and service men were invited to write their opinions about wartime baseball gave indications that a representative part of the 60,000,000 ball fans had done a little pitchin' on their own for the cause of baseball.

Of the 130,000 men in the armed forces casting their votes, 91 per cent or 123,500 of them favored the continuation of baseball during wartime as a morale booster.

Although willing to accept curtailment in many things and make countless sacrifices, nine out of 10 civilians on the home front demand the game to go on.

The vehement pleas of Commissioner Landis are not going unanswered nor unsupported.

Jimmy Collins, "king of the third basemen" is dead. Unfortunately, the 73-year-old diamond great did not live to see his name in the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y. But, his passing will undoubtedly speed up the campaign for the selection of Collins to a place in the Hall of Fame launched two months ago by Bob Stedler, sports editor of the Buffalo Evening News and President of the Pony League.

Not unlike other communities with a population of almost 10,000, this project has a countless number of versatile athletes whose playing careers have been terminated by evacuation, marriage, old age, and the such.

Many of them starred for their respective high schools and received a lion's share of letters, sweaters, medals, and trophies. In college, some participated in varsity competition, while others made quite a name for themselves in minor sports.

On top of this, many of the athletes competed in sports within their own communities and repeatedly placed on northwest all-star teams. Others haven't received much recognition nor won acclaim but, when we come right down to it, they are all true sportsmen and whether on the field of competition

Work on Athletic Fields Progress

Organized Basketball, Softball Contemplated

With construction work on Sec. I and VI athletic fields proceeding at a rapid pace, plans are now being drawn up for organized softball and basketball leagues among the sections. Two huge road graders from the Public Works division have been leveling the fields during the past two weeks.

According to Chick Uno, supervisor of athletics, softball and basketball leagues within and among the seven sections will be organized on a competitive basis. Other minor outdoor sports will be organized on a competitive basis as soon as construction work is completed.

Permanent outdoor regulation size basketball courts will be constructed to supplement the temporary outdoor courts.

Hunt Team Averages 13 Baskets Per Man

Handicapped by a strong westerly wind, the ten-man Hunt high school free throw team turned in a low score of 131 baskets in the second round of play in the Heart Mountain-sponsored inter-relocation free throw league.

Fumio Kasai led the Wolverine swishers with a total of 18 ringers followed by George Nakagawa and Dante Tahara with 15 buckets apiece.

The Rohwer tossers continued to set pace in the free throw loop with their five-man outfit turning in an average of better than 22 baskets apiece. The Heart Mountain quintet of swishers registered a score of 10 counters.

Sec. III and IV Register Second Wins in Tourney

Sec. III and IV paddle swingers were one step closer to their coveted A and B divisional titles as they posted victories in the second round of the inter-section ping pong tournament this week.

In their return match, the Sec. IV swatters managed to eke out an 18 to 15 point victory over a strong Sec. V outfit, winning six of the ten games. In the girls division, Sec. V's trio, Nori Oda, Mitsuye Ideta and Martha Sugimoto, made a clean three game sweep. However in the boys A and B bracket, Sec. IV came back strong or on the street, they've always lived up to the code of fair play.

These athletically toughened volunteers will not be detractors but assets to any regiment, company, platoon, or squad and when 'he Heels come face to face with these boys, they'll find that these athletes are a pretty tough bunch of nuts to crack.

winning all four contests. In the all-important A titles, Sec. V's Roy Morihiro evened the score four all, throwing the two sections into a deadlock. The Hashiguchi brothers, Nasuo and Hachiro, put the match on ice for Sec. IV by winning their respective matches.

Winning seven out of the ten matches, Sec. III's ping pongers posted their second successive section victory by belting the paddle swingers of Sec. II. In the men's division, Sec. III managed to win four of the seven contests, while the women's team fared better, winning all three matches with ease.

Twin Falls Residents Donate Bulbs, Shrubs, Flower Seeds to Hunt

A small quantity of bulbs, shrubs and flower seeds has been donated to residents of the Minidoka Relocation Center by Twin Falls residents. Greater quantities of landscaping materials are expected following the agreement of the Twin Falls Park Department to permit such donations to be left at the bandstand in the city park for pick-up by WRA trucks.

Due to limited government funds to be used for beautifying the community of Japanese-Americans, the residents are making the fullest use of cuttings, roots, bulbs, and seed which are given to them. Hunt is located in an area cleared of sagebrush less than a year ago and the town-site is bare of vegetation.

Numerous small victory gardens are springing up in the center and some sort of landscaping program with donated materials is planned to tie down the loose soil before the dust season arrives. High school students are taking vocational training in agriculture and will operate small plots of ground and possibly a poultry project.

In order to use all donated plants and seeds in the most effective way, it was requested that donors attach a small tag to their contributions, stating the plant variety and name of donor.
