SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

In preparation for a special "Farewell Edition", the EVACUAZETTE has reduced the number of pages to four from the usual six pages. This move was necessary because the bulk of the staff is devoting its offorts to the "Farewell Edition".

A colorful "Farewell Edition" has been planned and contributions from those outside of the staff will be greatly appreciated. The deadline for outside contributions has been set for Friday, August 21.

FINAL WEEKIY MOVIE "TIN PAN AIIEY"

As a grand finale to the weekly Tuesday night movies, the Twentieth Century Fox musical production "Tin Pan Alley" will be featured by the Recreation Department in the Main Hall tonight.

Alice Faye, Betty Grable, Jack Oakie, and JohnPayne star in this much-talked-about cinema which centers around Tin Pan Alley, the renown street that makes America sing. Romance and color, laughter and glamour, heart break and melodies of the celebrated street are combined into one great human story to make it a memorable musical of the days of World War I.

In supporting roles are Allen Jenkins, Esther Ralston, Ben Carter and the Nicholas Brothers.

commenting on "Farewell Dance

Minor Azuma, Co-chairman:

Our original plan was to make this dance a "dress up" affair, but a plea from a great number of persons who are either unable to afford good clothes or who did not bring any with them has made it necessary to make it a "come-as-you-are" dance.

Kay Ito, Co-chairman:
The problem of corsages came up last week. For a "come as-you-are" dance, corsages are naturally out of order, and in fairness to those who cannot afford even an inexpensive corsage, and in consideration for the girls who will come stag, the sponsors are discouraging the purchases of flowers. However, if individuals still do sire to buy them, it is entirely up to them and perfect ly, all right with the Recreation Dopartment. We don't say you can't, we just say it's unnocessary. Fudge Shisgi. Decorations:

Our main problem is not to make fancy decorations for the dance but to make the hall suitable for listening to music. The acoustics in the main hall are bad. If we can drape the coiling and walls sufficiently to keep the music from "bouncing around" from one end to the other, our purpose will be accomplished.

YES SIREE

Too few realize the tre mendous amount of labor and responsibility being exerted into the "Farewell Dance." The principal pro blem still centers around the musical acoustics. Three whole days will be needed to string-up the necessary items involved in decorations. The perplexing question of corsag es once again arises. In fairness to all, we staunch ly discourage the purchas ing of corsages forthis oc oasion. No one can tell you what you can't do; but we ask your indulgence in this matter. We hereby request that you deal with this subject of corsages in a justly understanding manner and in a spirit of consideration for others.
This shindig is to be a "come-as-you-like" affair with no ruling on dates, stags, or stagettes. When the clock on the wall strikes 11:55 p.m., this 21st and the music echoes no more, two fellas, "Tex-aco" Ito and "Ajew" Azuma, will breathe a sigh of roliof.

WE'S READY There's no flies on us, we're ready to shove-off whenever the time arrives. Unless told otherwise, we're planning to suspend publication with the 21st issue; but, however, a spe-cial "Farewell Edition" will be published on the following Monday . staff is contemplating to come through with a delux 20 page "Farewell Edition" We'll be burning the midnight oil all this week ... the Rec. Department is also contemplating to be gin dismantling operation next Monday, Their's will be a gigantic undertaking and will require a number of days to complete tho task.

Dyke Takooka entered the mythical "Hall of Fame" Sunday as he pitched a no hit no run game against the Wapato nine.

Wapato was only able to get four men on base as Ta keoka's portside deliver ies broke nicely. Three men got to first base via the base on balls route while one got on as a result of a Midget error. Twenty-four Wapato batters. faced Takeoka during the seven innings and six of them fanned out.

The Midgets grabbed a one run lead in the initial in ning as Onishi and Sono singled and Wada dropped Somekawa's high linfield fly. In the third inning, Iga got a free pass then scored as Somekawa singled and Osumi erred in the out field.

Defensively, the Midgets gave Takeoka all around good support with some sparkling plays, while offensively. Carl Somokawa starred with two singles in three times at bat.

In another contest the Showns nosed out the Gresham Fujiis by a narrow 6 to 5 score. The winner tallied once in the third canto, twice in the fifth, once in the sixth, and twice more in the seventh inning. George Heyamoto pitching for the Showas, won his own game, when he hit a grounder to Aono who let it go through him thus enabling Azumano, who had reached first on an orror, to cross the plate. Gres ham garnered one run inthe second inning and four in the seventh on four safe hits.
