-JOS COMING MA WHERE

There is to be an influx of new residents for this Assembly Center. Yes, we know that 900 or more are expected to arrive this Thursday and Friday, but Thursday even the W.C.C.A officials do not know who or from whence they are coming. It is indeed a great mystery which will be solved only by the passage of ol' Fath er Time. At present one's guess is as good as the other's.

movie tonight starting at 8 p.m. in the main hall.
"Sun Valley Serenade," a Twentieth Century Fox Musical starring Sonja Henie, John Payne, and Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, will be shown as the main feature.

Kay Ito of the Recreation Staff asserted that a new screen and a new projector has been secured.

He also stated that there will be two showings -- one at 8 and another at 9:30 -- and that those under sixteen and those getting up early should attend the initial show.

In regards to the movie, here's what the magazine "Films Incorporated" has to say:

"Many new skate and ski surprises in America's glorious vacationland combined with gay romance, music and fun."

ARRIVED

In compliance with latest evacuation orders, 17 more evacuees arrived at this Center during the weekend.

Four of the new arrivals rejoined their families, while the other 13 composed three families.

Yuriko and Tomiye Konno came here from Three Sisters, Oregon, Saturday, and Edward Uyesugi and Hide To mita came to this Center on Sunday from Willamette University.

Escorted by 2 army trucks a convoy composed of two pick-ups and two sedans reached here Monday morning from Ridgefield, Washington. In these groups were Kazuo Kawamoto and family, Ichiro Kawamoto and family and Buzuchi Yoshinaga and family.

STUDENTS VISIT FIRST AID CAR

Probably many of you are wondering why the George L Baker First-Aid Car came to this Assembly Center last night. No, there was no accident -- only a demonstration by the men in charge of this emergency car. Through the courtesy of the city of Portland and Mayor Earl Riley, Captain K.W. Post and RedCross man L.F. Sefton brought an apparatus which canbe used as resuscitator, inhalator and aspirator. To the first aid class, Mr. Sefton plained in detail and demonstrated the operation of this remarkable machine.

Mr. Trowbridge, instructor of this class of fifty students, made the arrange ments for this educational demonstration.

JT-13-12-WIN OVER BACHS

After spotting their opponents an eight-run lead in the first half of the sixth inning, a fighting Chain Gang came back with a nine-run barrage to edge out the Bachelor Ten, 13 to 12, in a forward class "AA" softball game last Saturday evening. Until the madeap 6th the game was a tight pitchors! battle with Doc Uyesugi having a slight edge over newcomer Art Yoshizawa of the Bachelors. At the end of the fifth inning the Chains lead 4 to 3.

The Pachelor half of the sixth was a wild merry-goround of bunting and buse stealing. Four safe bunts coupled with a walk and a pair of long triples were enough to score nine runs to establish what was a seemingly safe eight-run Howover, the Chains soon blasted this rosy Bachelor vision with their aforementioned rally. Two costly Bachelor misplays greatly aided the Chain Gang during the inning.

In the final inning, single mon were unable to solve Newt's offerings and went down in order.

This we believe is our first opportunity to say a few words to you by other means than through the editorials, so without fur-ther ado, let's get our conversation under way. PRESS BABES

Firstly, it is our aim and pledge to have the EVACUA-"The Best In The ZETTE, West." In maintaining our pledge we have but handicap, you won't believe it; but the average age of our editorial staff is but 20 years old. In the field of journalism, twenty is quite young when it comes to actual experience in the press business. Compare to other publications in the centers, we can say without fear that we have the youngest editorial staff. We will make mistakes now and then; but these same mistakes aid us in making ours a better paper. With only prep school journalism under our belt, we will continue to live up to our motto: "The Best In The West."

EXCHANGE In ye ol' Monday morning mail bag, we received cop ies of newsprint from Pine dale, Tule Lake, Manzanar, and Santa Anita. We see that many of our Yesler way friends are in there pitching on the Pinedale Logger. That in Manzamar, there are more males than females and that in Santa Anita some 2000 jivers cut the rug at a swingfest. At Tule Lake, John Ito is head of the canteen and James Uyeno the chief kitchen flunkey. The soldier boys way down in Camp Crowder, Missouri think highly of our tissue. POT SHOTS

BACHELORS NOSE OUT LIL, GIANTS

Paced by the steady pitch ing of George Sono and the timely mitting of Jack Yoshitomi, the fascinating Bachelors eked out a close 7-6 decision over the weak Little Giant "10" Monday nite.

The Bachelors were the first to dent the plate when they "sabotaged" 6 markers over the dish on the same amount of hits while the Little Giants were unable to score more than a couple markers at a time.

Jack Yoshitomi was the heavy sticker for the winner by banging out 2 hits with Inuzuka and S. Okazaki slamming out 2 bingles for the losers.

Pushing in a lone rally in the second inning the S.P. Ten edged out the Gresham Gophers by a 1 to 0 count in one of the best played games of the season.

Pitcher Ikey Tsugawa, pit ching his second victory of the season, limited the Gophers to five scattered hits. The Gophers' star hurler Kaz Yamaguchi also pitched a beautiful game, allowing only 3 hits, but successive singles by Sam Sasaki and Ikey Tsugawa followed by a long fly to left field by Roy Andow was enough to score what later proved to be the win ning run.

Both teams played almost air tight ball with very few marks scored in the error department.

Takenaga of the Gophers with two singles to his credit was the only batter to collect more than one hit.

This column is so hard to write because one has to have an inspiration and this certain one is very hard to get inspired. Inspiration only comes whena person has a full stomach and beautiful, thoughts in his mind.

With an orange on my desk to tempt me.

I try to write this column I wish I were wise and brainy.

Then, boy, oh, boy, I'll show 'em.

I'll write the funniest stories on earth

That'll have you laughing for weeks.

But the kind I write now, all they're worth

Is as someone told me,"It st----."

If I were young and happy, I would try and write beau tiful songs, too, but as I am getting old in my teens you will have to be satisfied with one pome. (?)

Show me some men who can write songs, and I will shoot them, as I do not want any competition. That is all for this time, but I'll be back next Friday.

43 - LEAVE FOR BEETS

Forty-three more volunteer sugar beet workers left for Eastern Oregon, Monday night, June 1.

Two Grayline buses transported the contingent to the Union Depot where they were transferred to an east-bound train.

A noticeable thing about this group was that many families were among those departing.

In order to keep up their fund, the recreational department isasking everyone to bring all oldnewspapers and magazines to the store room across the corridor from the Athletic Recreation room. The Boy Scouts will assist if any help is needed.

SPITEN

A terrific ll-run barrage by the Country Cousins in the first inning proved to be a too big a handicap for the fighting S.P. Ten to overcome as they went down to defeat, 13 to 11, last Friday evening.

Although the S. P.'s were held scoreless in their half of the initial canto, they managed to push across runs in each of the remaining innings. The Cou sins, meanwhile, were un-able to tag the ball after their wild first inning rally and scored only two more hits, once in the 3rd and once in the 4th inning Kay Takeoka and Fred Kondo opened on the mound for the Cousins and the S. P.'s respectively. Kay was relieved by his brother Dyke in the 3rd inning while Ikey Tsugawa shouldored the hurling task for the S. P.'s in the fifth inning.

Hitting stars of the game were Joe Kato of the Cousins with three hits in four trips to the plate, and Tish Ohka of the S.P.s who reached first base every time in five trips to the plate, three times on walks and twice on solid hits.
