

Aug. 4, 1944

Dearest Frank

Sachiko (Paul's sister) just came over and told me that Paul's wife Alice was there. She said you folks were fine. I am glad to hear that. Everything is alright with us. By now you must of met your attorney Wirin and also your brother Art. Weren't you surprise to see Art there? Its good for Art to see the town of Cheyenne.

Has Art told you about the note you should write for me so I could cash your check (W.R.A.) and also a clothing allowance? That's a reason why he went because she always says you are at work. Grant stands up in the play-pen hanging on the sides. Looks so cute and has a grand time. Before they go to sleep, they have a time of their life. Honest Frank the way she laugh, no one in the world could be happier. But do they keep me busy. I am as it is. Everyone has been so nice to help me out a lot.

Well thats about all now Frank. and will write again soon. I will send the sleeper as soon as I can.

Love
Amy.

I cannot go there so often.
Well Frank I was surprised that you didn't have it arranged, the time you had your sisters! I was quite disappointed to think that you forgotten me there.
Even when I saw you, you didn't mention it at all. Your father tells me to cash it through Kaoru but Frank as a wife
I should have some rights and have a note of some sort to cash my own allowances.
Don't you think. Were you shock to hear about Social Warfare.
I was really shocked.
I'll manage some how. maybe have to work.

Kids are just fine. Kathy can carry quite an conversation now. Asks many things but

P.S. I like to go to the trail to see you again but may not be able to because of finances. so please don't count on
it. I spent my own for it last time. Your folks just gave me $20 to give it to you.

Yours
Amy.