PEOPLE HAVE RELOCATED FROM MANZANAR

Conferences Held

Mrs. May Ichida, Misses Ruth Budd and Alice Muraoka returned last week from Camp Sierra where they attended the Methodist Youth Leadership Conference, August 3 to 9, Assistant Relocation Program Officer Walter A. Heath reported.

He said that Dr. Oechsli, dist rict superintendent of the Pasadena area was in charge, and that Methodist ministers and two leader's from Nashville, Tenn. contributed to the panels which dealt with the young people's church activities.

On Sunday evening, Manzanar members conducted a panel on the Japanese question, and showed an exhibit of pictures which created much interest.

TOOTHACRE

The panel "Brotherhood Build-ers" led by the Rev. Frank Tooth-acre covered in detail the question of racial prejudice, and was one of the most outstanding meet-ings, according to Mrs. Ichida.

The Manzanar delegates re-turned with a feeling of assur-ance that the youth present at Camp Sierra were 100 per cent for Japanese Americans, and will do all they can to foster that feeling, the program officer stated.

Attendance Lacking

Attendance at the present series of panel discussions being held Wednesday evenings under joint sponsorship of the Administration and the Town Hall is very poor considering the effort put into preparing a weekly program.

Last week's panel discussed opportunities for post war farming in the United States; advantages and disadvantages of various types of farming. Those who did not attend missed, in the first place, the handsome exhibit of Manzanar grown food products on display. Those who did attend were rewarded with an interesting and frank discussion on post-war lightly and the product of the contribution and possibilities and trends in agriculture.

This week's attendance at the discussion on the "Small Businessman and his Future in the United States" was also very small. One would believe that among those residents here, there would be more than just a few who would be interested in what the small business man faces now and after the war. There were hundreds engaged in some small business, some big, who might have taken the interest and filled the hall to capacity. The administration does not make up these panels to sit down each week and talk among themselves on certain problems. The preparation of these informal gatherings are so that evacuees and appointed personnel may take part to bring out both sides of the question. Why attendance is small, we do not know; we do believe, however, that more cooperation should be given to future discussions.

Town Hall Topics

· by Frank Yasuda

Mosquitoes and black widow spiders are getting to be a great nuisance. Dr. Morse Little in answer to a memo from Town Hall states that he is unable to locate the breeding places of the mosquitoes. Residents are asked to cooperate in seeing that there is no stagnant water near their residence.

As to black widow spiders these are poisonous and they can cause death to small children. The only method of control for these spiders, is, (1) to kill all spiders that are seen and destroy webs that are seen and destroy webs together with nests. (2) To clean up all areas where black widow spiders might exist. The usual habitat of these spiders are in cool dark places and they are especially active after dark.

LEAVE CLEARANCE

Several thousand volumes of books donated from various libraries and schools have been distributed to the block offices. The residents, especially children, are welcome to borrow these-books. Favorable Report Given From Omaha

(Housing division chairman of the Omaha Citizens Relocation Committee, Mrs. Henry Monsky has written a favorable report about the evacuees now residing in Omaha and has submitted it to the relocation office here through Adah L. Fier, acting relocation officer of Omaha.-Ed.)

Her report reads:

"All agree that the first problem that confronted us in the early days, the one of employment, has since ceased to be a problem. The large majority of evacuess who first came out were ambitious, energetic, diligent peo-ple. They soon established a rep-utation in the community for in-dustry and earnestness, and so dustry and earnestness, and so they, as a vanguard, solved the employment problem.

"As to the social difficulties that some evacuees feared, the most careful questioning convinces me that in this area, at least, the community attitude has been the community attitude has been all that we hoped for and mer-its no criticism. Although it is true that the Citizens Committee and the local WRA have had to do a bit of educational spade work to obtain college admission, hospital placements, it has been neither difficult nor serious but just a necessary operation to just a necessary operation to educate the community and make a complete adjustment successful.

Dear Dad:

Writing a few words on the back of the Memorial Service program for our battalion held this morning. This being our first Memorial Service overseas for the boys who died in our Baptism of Fire, many of whom are my friends from back home and from Hawaii, it hit me hard, and as I write this, I hope, with God willing, that when I return home may tell their loved ones the action of bravery in which they fell and the beautiful Memorial Service held in their honor.

SERVICE BEAUTIFUL

The service was simple in decoration, having on the platform the cross of Jesus and across the the cross of Jesus and across the back a camouflage net drapped under the clear blue sky with a few small white clouds scattered to the east; yes, it was simple. Yet it had all the qualities of a service held in the most beautiful Cathedral on earth.

HOMESICK

HOMESICK

I am well and have nothing to complain about under our circumstances. Yes, I have quite a streak of homesickness, but that is only natural. I can recall while being shelled by 88's and 'screaming Mimis' after darkness, the moon was rising and I could do nothing but lay in my foxhole and silently gaze and reminisce of the good times I had back home. It must have been about 12:30 or 1:00 a.m. It was peaceful even though the shells were bursting just a few feet away. I remember repeating Psalm 23 and the Lord's prayer as I went to sleep. I guess that kept my head cool, and as the saying goes, "I am glad that I can talk about it."

Two nights ago Lily Pons and Andre Kostelanetz sang for us here in Italy. It was quite a sur-prise and I enjoyed it tremend-prise and I enjoyed it tremenu-ously. Well Dad, guess this is just about jall for now. Hope you are in tip top shape. Will write again real soon; in the meantime, take care and don't worry. May God be with you always

DISCUSS ELECTION

On the 17th of this month the congress of the Manzanar Co-operative met at 16-16 for its final session prior to the election of new members. The members pre-sent discussed the various phases of the coming election and the future of the local cooperative. As you are aware, the residents of this and other relocation centof this and other relocation centers are continually guided by the War Relocation Authority's policy stressing relocation. The people as a whole are constantly subjected to rumors of another "evacuation" or other half-truths and everyone is on edge and doubtful of the future. Is it any wonder then that the management as well as the directors of the business enterprises should want you to make a sound selection of delegates.

DECLINE POST

In the past many fine leaders have declined to acept positions in the congress saying that they are getting too old for the responsibility, or that the young people should have a chance. But have you realized that young blood alone cannot make up for the richness that can be found only in the experiences, knowledge, and character of those who have seen the passing of many years.

SATEDAY, AUGUST 19, 1944.

Looking more closely at the

Looking more closely at the sun-baked epidermis lined up before Julia, I found ah, ah, Tosh, PeeWee, Michiko, Fumi, and Visie. . . don't get discouraged to soon, you pre-pros' . . . you'll get it wat

The lucky guy who has a very close view of these beauties clad in their moth-eaten suits it that priviledged Mas Isago . . . you sure spend your Sunday after-noons worthily and happily, don't you Mas? . . . sure wish I were in your trunks . . .

There's a guy they call jimmy who might be appropriately tabbed as the fish ... Noting the conglomeration of the 'drips' and 'drops' I make a move that a swimming meet be more than fun ...
