On Human Reconversion

Human reconversion is probably the most important problem of the postwar era.

Men trained in the grim skills of warfare must be re-oriented to civilian life. Moreover, they must be shown that they are welcome back home and that their sacrifices have been appreciated.

For that reason, the program of the Manzanar Red Cross chapter is more important than ever in the months ahead. Through the Red Cross, returning veterans can find the help and guidance so essential to their proper a ljustment.

Already, the local Red Cross "postwar" plans are in operation. Fighting men who return to Manzanar will be able to use Red Cross assistance in filing claims for government benefits, in obtaining financial aid during the adjustment period, and in getting friendly advice and counsel on personal problems.

Because a war doesn't end with the last shot fired, and because a community's war responsibility isn't finished until as sons have been welcomed back into its civic, social and economic life, people of Manzanar must continue to support

Now that the 1945 Red Cross War Fund campaign is underway, it is vital to "Keep Your Red Cross At His Side."

Those who evacuated voluntarily age on the outside were required to do so.

The question was worked out at that time by the army and navy intelligence. Dr. Koker worked it out in Hawaii and felt it was going to be helpful, so the army adopted the plan. WRA then decided on adopting this form so that they may have a complete record. It was voluntary. With an exception of a few, it will have little bearing on the people if the questionnaires were filled out truthfully.

Q—What is going to be done of those who, have answered "Question 28" and who have received exclusion orders?

A—Chief Wilbar and staff have never seen any of you people and do not understand the problems and it takes time. Those who have answered "yes" should continue to be reasonably patient. I hope that this is the lest hurdle, for we have a little stake in this too. I think that it can be, worked out.

Q—There are some cases where the WRA has cleared us but the army has not.

A—We are working on the relationship of the army. You must consider that they are taking all the responsibility. Back about the time when the registration was conducted, we did not know about you and your problems as I know now. We did somethings that we should have not done but we have straightened them out. Now other people are coming in and are going through the same thing. They will make some of the same mistakes. I think that this is the time for all of us to have reasonable patience and not to get too much upset. We still have the problem with solut we have had a great deal of progress on it.

Q.—We feel that the deadline on the closing of the center is a sword of Damocleus over our heads. We would like to feel that it is possible to relocate now and we will try to go out before the closing of the centers, but if by December 31. we are unable to do so, do we have to go out the gates? Solons' ace moundsman Jimmy Morita once again sparked his mates by cropping batting honors of the day with three singles at five trips to the plate. The Yogores were only able to touch Morita for seven hits Toru Shimizu bagged a two for three for the loser.

From the Block Managers Standpoint - by Yoshimto 11.

I have eccasionally been hearing such complaints as "Town Hall is feeble, cowardice and it is the lantern carrier of the W.R.A.

Are they complaining about the Town Hall? No. I do not think so. I believe they are complaining about the block managers. In that case, who has elected the same?

At the block managers election day, I have heard such saying as, "It is foolish to be a block manager," with an expression of truimph on one's face. What is foolish and what is stupid?

In the extent it differs but, is there any difference in service? Whether it is a service to such a small group as block people or to the camp people or to the whole Japanese population in this country, if the leader has confidence in leadership of the block people.

Announcement as to the closing of center has brought us new difficulty and we are facing a difficult period in our history. Residents are bevildered whether to go east or west. In such a time we med good men who would help and back up the Town Hall, Come out you, a hiding able man!

We of the Town Hall are exerting our total effort for the benefit of the residents, to serve them best we can. Announcement of center closing concerns everyone and we want to have responsible leader elected instead of just anybody to get by with.
