BANDITS STAGE SECOND ROBBERY IN THREE WEEKS AT SALTDALE

Signs offering $2000 reward were posted throughout the valley last week by federal authorities for information leading to the arrest of four men who staged their second mail truck robbery within three weeks at Saltdale, north of Mojave and stole several more pouches of mail.

According to the Inyo Register, W. H. Howdry, driver of the truck, was held up as he stopped for a mail pickup at Saltdale on Sunday morning, March 22.

While one bandit covered Howry with a revolver, he was for-ced to drive the truck up the canyon while the other bandits followed behind in an auto.

followed behind in an auto.

The driver was then bound hand and foot, and blindfolded with adhesive tape.

The robbery took place at the same location as that staged three weeks ago and the bandits are believed to be the same persons.

The truck was enroute from Bishop to Mojave after stops at Lone Pine, Inyokern, Trona and Ridgecrest.

Dressed in sweatshirts, the bandits wore tan hats and pants with one wearing a sailor's cap, according to Howry.

Howry stated that he was locked in the back end of the mail truck but was later able to escape through a small hatch in the van used for loading and unloading long lengths of pige.

Special agents of the Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Postal Service, and law enforcement agencies are cooperating in the manhunt.

Losses suffered by Manzanar residents were not released by postal and express authorities.

Six Nisei Soldiers Visit Senators In State Capitol

SACRAMENTO, Calif.,- Six Japanese American soldiers, all of whom have been decorated and who have seen combat in Italy and in the Pacific, and one honorably discharged soldier were introduced in the Senate recently by Senator John F. Shelley, San Francisco Democrat, the Sacramento Union reports.

The Union states that the Sen-ate applauded the soldiers after Lieutenant Governor Fred Houser, presiding officer, welcomed them and said that he hoped they could visit the Legislature again.

The soldiers were S-Sgt. Ernest K. Enomoto, Sgt. Akira Kawasaki, Pfc. Kenneth Kasakawa, Pvt. Richard Hiwa, Pfc. George Taketa, Pvt. Don Shimizu, all from Hawaii, and Bill K. Ishida honorably discharged soldier of Sacramento.

Nisei Rights Upheld By Labor Unions

Several labor unions are de-fending the rights of persons of Japanese ancestry, according to the WRA Information Digest.

In California, 13 AFL papers ask editorially, "Can anyone in his right mind contend that American citizens of Japanese anneutran cutzens of aspanese ancestry who have enlisted in the army, fought in the front lines and have been wounded, blinded and crippled in the fight against our Axis enemies are not good enough to live and work anywhere in this country?"

where in this country?"

The Union Reporter, an AFL paper in Camden, New, Jersey declares, "Things have come to a pretty pass when Americans are denied a right constitutionally theirs. . Loyalty connot be judged upon any other basis than deed. The Japanese Americans hav proven their loyalty in as many ways and on as many occasions as any one of us."

442nd Takes Part In Capture Of Genoa On Italian Front

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5-Members of the 442nd Infantry Regiment composed of American doughboys of Japanese descent are in the vanguard of the Fifth Army's great offensive which has smashed the German army in Northern Italy, the War Depart-ment reported today.

Making sensational gains of 76 miles in five days, the 442nd took part in the capture of Genoa, Italy's largest scaport, on April 27, and then forged ahead to en-ter Turin, the last great city in the Po Valley on April 30.

which then swung in southern-westerly direction. The regiments are both attached to the 92nd Infantry Division made up of Negro troops.

Activated on February 1, 1943 in response to request of many loyal American-born Japanese to serve in the armed forces, the 442nd set a high standard of training at Camp Shelby, Miss.

The Japanese Americans arrived in Italy late in May, 1944. The famous Japanese American 100th Infantry Battalion, already fighting in Italy and composed of former activated Hawaiian national guardsmen became the firs battalion of the new regiment.

The 100th Battalion was one of the first ground units to re ceive the Presidential Citation for fighting in Italy.
