

BOYBOYBOY . . . are we glad to get back home," said Mr. Furlough Worker, as he hopped off the bus, stretched himself and drank in a lungful of good, clean Manzanar air.

"Boyoboyoboy—" he muttered, "is it swell to be able to sit down and eat without frying meat and peeling potatoes," he muttered as he sat down at the mess hall . . . "Even though it's stew," he added.

"And boy! It's sure nice to see my friends again!"

VOL. II, NO. 49

MANZANAR, CALIFORNIA

THURSDAY, NOV. 12, 1942

And BOYBOYBOY are we glad to have you home again, Mr. Furlough Worker! Even though you were out there doing your part to relieve the labor shortage, we'd still rather have you back home with us.

The town has sure been dead without your boisterous laughter and high spirits, but it's beginning to perk up already! We missed you plenty, especially those who stayed at home and twiddled their thumbs.

FIRST GROUPS RETURN FROM MONTANA

No deductions For clothing

Effectively squelching rumors of exorbitant deductions to be made for P-coats and other army surplus clothing already issued residents comes a telegram from E. R. Fryer, regional director in San Francisco, stating: "The Director has decided that no deduction in cash clothing allowances need be made for any surplus army clothing issued prior to Oct. 21." In other words, all clothing issued to residents of Manzanar prior to Oct. 21, will be free.

Family Check-Ups

Clothing allowances will be paid starting as of last July 1, as soon as the necessary records can be completed and the machinery for cash distribution can be set up. This means that residents who have worked steadily have four months of clothing allowances due them already.

Community services division is responsible for securing information to complete the records and since family and work records must be verified back to July, workers from the welfare and housing sections of the community services division will call on each family in the next few days to request this data.

Cooperation Asked

Thomas M. Temple, chief of the division, points out that the information needed is quite simple, but that it must be accurate. For that reason he asks the cooperation of all residents in assisting workers when they call to interview families. Without this information, allowances for clothing cannot be granted.

All individuals who have worked for at least 15 days in a month are eligible for that month's allowance. All members of families where there is a worker are also eligible for grants.

Workers Wanted

Two more girls are needed to work in the canteen. Those interested are asked to see George Nakatsuka, canteen manager.

Almost three hundred colleges Approved by Army for Japanese

Twenty-six colleges and universities approved by the Army brings the total of institutions open for student relocation to 284. In this group are included the Art Institute of Chicago, the Art Students' League, New York, Barnard College, Bennington College, Butler University, Temple University, the Garrett Biblical Institute, and the Traphagen School of Fashion in New York.

In the Western Defense Command area, there are now 10 approved colleges — three in Washington, including Washing-

Residents warned on Private business

Due to the recent outcropping of several small-scale private enterprises the attention of the residents is again called to WRA Administrative Instruction No. 26 which definitely states that "PRIVATE ENTERPRISES FOR THE SALE AT RETAIL OF CONSUMER GOODS AND SERVICES TO CENTER RESIDENTS SHALL NOT BE PERMITTED."

The cooperative enterprises division points out that such goods as rice, noodles, Christmas cards, and such services as barber and beauty services are included in the order. Private individuals may not supply these goods and services. All these will be supplied through the cooperative association in order that all may benefit and share equally, it was said.

Leadership class Offers opportunity

With the opening of a class on "Techniques in Recreational Leadership" conducted by Axel Nielson, additional incentive is added with the mention of several job offers for recreation leaders in the East.

Training could either be taken with relocation employment in mind or simply as good training in leadership, announced Charles Ferguson, head of adult education.

The course led by the chief of community activities division will give instruction on direction of group activities such as community singing, parties, folk dancing, games, etc. As soon as the junior college program officially launches, the course will offer junior college credit.

The place is 29-15, the time 1:15 to 3:15 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday.

LEAVE FOR HEART MT.

Mr. and Mrs. Motojiro Itatani left Manzanar Saturday, Nov. 7, for Heart Mountain, Wyoming, where their daughter is critically ill.

October checks To come soon

The October payroll list will be forwarded to Los Angeles some time this week and under favorable conditions the October checks should be here early next week, states Mr. J. W. Carney of the Fiscal Department.

To allay the turmoil and inconveniences experienced by both the staff and payees, all pay checks will be signed for by the foreman of each project or crew and they in turn will be responsible for the delivery of checks to individuals.

The pay checks for all furlough workers intending to return will be kept intact at this office and will be available immediately on arrival with proper credentials.

All persons accepting work directly from furlough employment outside the camp should contact this office and notify their new addresses accompanied by their I. D. number. This will enable this department to forward the due checks.

Residents can be of service by informing their friends and relatives about this.

Withdrawals okayed On blocked accounts

General License No. 11 authorizes any banking institution in the United States to make payments from blocked accounts (commercial, savings, or other types) provided the funds do not exceed $500 in any one month and are needed for living, traveling, and similar personal expenses in the United States.

An application on Form TFE-1 should be filed directly with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco; San Francisco, California, for any other type of transaction which involves a blocked account and requires a specific license.

Plans for giant Carnival underway

Plans for the Carnival to be held in December were discussed at the meeting held Monday night in the Community Activities section office.

The Carnival will be held on Dec. 5 and 6, both afternoons and evenings and the profit will be distributed the following way: 30 percent to the club sponsoring the booth, 20 percent to the Christmas fund and 50 percent to Community Activities.

General chairman for the carnival is Ayako Tanaka who is in charge of building and space committee, price and concession committee, entertainment, decoration, publicity, finance, gift and clean-up committees.

'No oil shortage' Assures Department

There will be no more oil shortage in the center!

That was the assurance given by the oil department of the Public Works Division yesterday. Friday's oil shortage resulted from late delivery of oil to the center. The oil truck did not arrive until early Saturday morning.

Seven oil tanks in the center went completely dry Friday night, thereby necessitating the closing of mess halls, shower and laundry room boilers within those blocks until the oil arrived.

At the present time, 6,500 gallons of fuel oil are consumed daily in the center, out of which 3,000 gallons are used in the barrack stoves.

Poll on Free Press To be conducted

First public opinion poll to be conducted under the newly formed Public Opinion Department will seek to gather reactions and suggestions on the Japanese section of the Manzanar Free Press. Results will be tabulated and will be used as the basis of future improvements on the paper.

With the cooperation of the block managers 25 representative issei or Japanese readers in each block will be interviewed to get a broad cross-section of opinion.

This department is a branch under Project Research which is supervised by Aiji Hashii, directly responsible to Ned Campbell, assistant project director.

Among the issues to be decided in this first survey will be the number of pages, standard of language, type of news desired.

CLAIM STORED EFFECTS

Warehouse No. 1 announced that unidentified articles will be held for just one week, and if not claimed by the end of said time, goods will be put in storage. Once stored, items will not be released for the duration.

Regulations on household effects And commercial property outlined

WRA policy on the disposition of household and personal effects as well as other evacuee property was further clarified this week with the release of new regulations.

The previous policy of shipping personal property now stored in Federal Reserve Warehouses will not be changed but these goods will not be shipped to the projects until acknowledgement is received from the project director that the center is able to receive and dispose of this property, it was announced.

Shipment of other effects now in private storage will eventually be made in line with the previ-

143 workers home In last two days

Dust-grimed and travel weary, 65 men and one woman returned to Manzanar Tuesday morning at 11 a.m., the first contingent of returning furlough workers from the beet fields of Montana and Idaho.

Looking tired and worn the two bus loads of workers were greeted by a welcoming throng of relatives and friends who had waited all morning by the police station. Announcement has been made previously that they were scheduled to arrive early in the morning.

Surprised at Heat

The returned workers were surprised at the relatively hot weather here at Manzanar compared to the freezing weather they had experienced up north.

All were glad to get back. Although the majority of them expressed that the treatment they received outside was favorable a few said that some anti-Japanese feeling was encountered. Working conditions, on the most part, were satisfactory, although not of the best, they declared.

Not Lucrative

The opinion of the group as a whole was unanimous in declaring that beet work was one of the most difficult manual field types of works. Altogether, the majority reflected the opinion that the furlough was fine for experience, but not very lucrative.

The first batch of returned workers were mostly from Chinook, Blaine County, Montana area with some from the Phillips and Valley Counties.

Scheduled to arrive in Manzanar yesterday were 77 more returning workers from the Idaho Falls region.

The following is the complete list of the workers returned Tuesday: C. C. Main crew, T. Yamamoto, T. Nakaji, W. Ishii, S. Kuramoto, F. Takada, T. Sato, T. Iriye; Alex Fisher crew, J. Miyazona, T. Yamasaki; Wm. Green crew, S. Hirami, K. Adachi, S. Nakahama, J. Ishima; C. V. Sands crew, K. Ishida, Kay Iwaka; Flynn & Beckstead crew, M. Kondo, T. Yamamoto, Y. Takahashi, S. Yamamoto, M. Takahashi.

Peace, not armistice—

Yesterday was Armistice Day, the day commemorating the signing of truce between the Allies and the Central Powers which officially ended World War I.

Yesterday the world marked off Armistice day on its 1942 calendar as another day, a somewhat ironic day in the series of long, bloody days that make up the chronology of World War II. No noisy and jubilant parades enlivened the day as factory workers bent more fixedly over the assembly line, and the people gritted their teeth vowing unstinting support to the American troops in Casa Blanca and Guadalcanal.

In their hearts was a stern resolution that the fiasco of November 11, 1918, would not be repeated for all serious people in America, as in all nations, remembered that in the much hailed Versailles Treaty was sown the very seeds of World War II. "We won the war, but lost the peace." This time the nation is resolved to win the war and the peace that follows.

The United Nations will win the deciding battles of the war, but we know that all humanity will lose the war. A bayoneted peace cannot be imposed upon the losing nation, but peace must be built by freedom-loving peoples of all nations.

It is the prayer of all peoples that it will not be an "armistice" that will be signed at the cessation of hostilities but a sound and workable covenant of perpetual peace.

Dear Editor:

Dear Editor:

I thought well about the Free Press all along the way, until I read the article, "A Charter for Self-Government," which ran in Saturday's, Nov. 7, Free Press. Who wrote it doesn't make any difference, for everyone is entitled to say as he pleases, but printing it in our Free Press is going too far. What is this? A campaign to form our opinions?

It is perfectly all right to educate the people of Manzanar that there is a WRA ruling allowing only citizens to be elected to offices, but leave us, the community, to decide whether we like the Charter or not! We, the people, have minds enough to do this!

The article states: "To reject the Charter will not only mean an unnecessary lengthy delay until another commission is picked to draw up another charter, but the community will suffer from an over-emphasis of a minor point." It implies that the community is voting to accept or reject the Charter on the sole issue that only citizens can hold office. It also implies that the public should vote "yes" on the Charter only because it would "mean an unnecessary lengthy delay . . . to draw up another Charter." (As if it were a matter of time!)

What is the good about the Charter, I am sure the community realizes, so let it alone to form its own opinions.

Unfortunately, I am not old enough to vote, but I am vitally interested in Manzanar's government. Therefore, I write the Free Press not to publish articles that are likely to form partial opinions regarding the civic affairs of Manzanar to appear in the paper.

Once again, I state, let the community decide for itself as to what it believes right and what it believes otherwise!

Sincerely,
H. Nakamura.

ED. NOTE: Reader H. Nakamura's intelligent discussion of an issue that has been the center of much confusion is to be highly commended. However, attention is called to two mistaken assumptions. The first is that the Free Press shouldn't take a stand on the Charter. It has and does. It is for the Charter because it believes, more than anything else, it will meet the need for a responsible, representative body working on behalf of the people of Manzanar. The second has to do with Reader Nakamura's apparent impression that immediate approval of the Charter isn't desirable. Actually, it is. The sooner we have Merit Rating Boards, the quicker will all employed persons benefit. We cannot have a Merit Rating Board without a Council; we cannot have a Council without a Charter. There are other pressing decisions affecting all of us which await the formation of the Council, elected by the people. There is the decision as to how defense-scale wages in private industries planned for Manzanar will be distributed. There is the problem of curbing lawlessness with orderly procedure. There are countless other functions awaiting a Council representing the people. For the lack of this Council, all of us are now suffering, because

Frankly SPEAKING

By TAD UYENO

The furlough workers, undoubtedly, went to help harvest the sugar beets mainly for two reasons: (1) to earn money, (2) to seek freedom from restricted center life.

In Idaho Falls and outlying districts, the furlough workers, as a whole, were disappointed in not being able to earn much money. The freedom which they expected to find there was illusive. For instance, furlough workers in Shelley were not allowed to go to Idaho Falls, nine miles away. What they found in sugar beet topping was hard work with little compensation. Naturally, the majority of them were anxious to return to the center after completing their contracts.

Many furlough workers from Manzanar and other centers, after finishing their contracts, went to the employment service office to inquire when they could return to the centers. They were told that they could not return until a group was organized for the trip back and that in the meantime they must work on another job till the time came for their going back.

One group, numbering 14 workers, from the Eden Relocation Center insisted on returning to the center right away, pointing out that the contract definitely guaranteed their returning after they satisfactorily completed their jobs. The sugar company officials would not listen to their demands to be sent back to the centers.

What greatly angered me was that the sugar company officials threatened the Japanese furlough workers to stay "or else suffer the consequences." If the workers returned to the center, one sugar company official said that he would place the blame for the loss of the remaining sugar beet crop on them. He brought his argument for their staying to a point by saying that it was "unpatriotic" for them to leave.

When the company official injected patriotism as a reason for their staying longer, the furlough workers became indignant. All wanted to know why they were unpatriotic. Weren't they patriotic enough to come out of the relocation centers to help them harvest the beets? Hadn't they finished their contracts? The sugar company evaded answering these questions.

The 14 furlough workers were willing to stay and work till the end of the harvest season. But they wanted better pay than they had been getting. The sugar company was not willing to have the farmers pay more. One official insisted that the farmers were paying a fair wage set down by the Secretary of Labor, and that they couldn't pay more. Well, that was a good excuse, to be sure, but not the truth! It all boiled down to this: If the farmers paid higher wages, then the

we have no responsible, recognized representatives.

Dear Editor:
Looks like they got a bunch of sissies and cry babies in the furlough work.

You take a bath in a wash tub. So what. The farmer doesn't get any more. A shack, what do you expect for a few weeks, a mansion? No electricity. The farmer would give it to you if he had it, too.

It looks as though these farmers are tryin' awful hard to satisfy a bunch of Aristocrats.

E. T., Benny Yoshinaga, Brother Rats, Inc., must've come for a picnic and couldn't take it. Speak for yourselves, boys!

Soldiers with Permits May Visit Centers

Johnny Doughboy on furlough from his camp may visit any War Relocation Project in both the restricted and non-restricted districts, it was reiterated in a notice from the WRA regional headquarters.

A soldier, prior to admittance to a relocation center in the evacuated areas of the Western Defense Command, (Manzanar, Tulelake, Gila River, and Colorado River projects fall in this category) must present his approval, furlough papers and a travel permit, either telegraphic or letter, issued by the Wartime Civil Control Administration or from the Office of the Commanding General, Western Defense Command.

Introducing . . .

Yoshio Sugihara, member of the Fair Practice Committee from the Farm Division, was born in Hawaii, May 4, 1905. He graduated from the Mechanical School in Kansas City, Mo., and has been in the repair and trucking business in Los Angeles. He has also owned and operated a garage.

He was a salesman and fieldman for the Southwest Berry Exchange (wholesale produce). Just prior to evacuation he served as manager and president of the Southwest Produce Company.

At present Mr. Sugihara is Field Superintendent of farms, member of the Board of Directors of the Manzanar Cooperative Enterprises, Inc.; he has served on various committees. He lives at 25-4-2.

BOTTLE TRUCK

With the end of the drive for the return of empty pop bottles lurking just three days ahead, call was again made to center residents for fullest cooperation.

Persons with empties are asked to notify any canteen employee. Wholesale collection will be made by a truck which will canvas the whole center.

ITEMS

The population statistics of six of the "Lil Tokios," figuratively speaking, of the several relocation centers in the western area have been rounded up. The total is now 69,140, with Central Utah 7694, Gila River 13,237, Manzanar 9099, Minidoka 7573, Colorado River 17,092, and Tulelake 14,445. The last of the assembly centers have been emptied as the last contingent left for Jerome on Nov. 3.

sugar company had to pay the farmers more for their beets!

Officials of the sugar company used the wrong psychology in trying to force the 14 furlough workers to stay. Normally those boys would have responded to any patriotic cause, however small. In their particular case, they were paid lower than the prevailing wages, and besides, they were deprived of their civil rights. Could they have any incentive to patriotism when they are reduced to the status of enemy aliens?

The 14 furlough workers were finally sent back to the relocation center. Frankly, the boys put up a splendid fight!

FIREMEN ON CALL

The local fire department could not move or assist when a hurry call for emergency service came from Keeler Fire Department at 4:50 a.m. Saturday, November 7.

According to Fire Chief Bob Kubota, no assistance could be rendered despite the willingness of the local men as the army headquarters would not sanction the move.

Two alert off-duty firemen reported the burning of rubbish in blocks 31, 32, 33 and 36 late Sunday morning, November 8. Complying with regulations in quenching procedure found some offenders not cooperative. The police were dispatched to the scene but the culprits were not on hand to be apprehended.

Parents, Note

Parents whose children persist in playing around the oil tankers are asked to see that these children keep away from the tankers when they are being filled. The oil crew can not take the responsibility for accidents that may result.

HERE IT IS PRESS TIME again and the mind's a blank but since we don't want to disappoint (?) the public — here goes —

DANCES ARE THE STYLE — what with the Manzanites giving theirs on Thanksgiving and the Venice Bar Bells on the 28th — the Jr. Misses on the 21st — the Inter-Collegiates on Dec. 12th — the hospital orderlies and attendants threw theirs on Sadie Hawkins day —

THE CARNIVAL FOR THE CAMP'S festival-minded will be held on Dec. 5th and 6th — Ayako Tanaka, heading the committees — everyone is expecting it to be a swell affair — and just in time for the furlough workers to celebrate — talking about the furlough workers — they looked manly — as they stepped off the bus — but something about the way they talked — and walked — and looked — gave us a funny feeling inside our stomachs — those fellas have gone through more than we can ever imagine —

FAREWELL GIFT from Project Director Harvey Coverley to the girls working in the Caucasian mess hall was a box of candy — they were thrilled and thanks Mr. Coverley via this column — you were thrilled, weren't you, girls?

STAR DUSTER'S IMITATION fan dance at the Sports Hi-Jinks was so rip-roaringly funny they won the prize — a box of candy — cute phrase "now you see it, now you don't" — where did you learn to dance, girls? — and as for those gams you displayed — you ought to let the boys see them — All Shots giving out with their pantomime on Mr. and Mrs. Kazu and their Kazunokos won the other box of candy —

DO YOU WANT TO WORK? — The Canteen wants two girls to work — see the Manager —

ARMY GOSSIP reports that Camp Roberts, Calif., has a new chef in the cooks' battery known as Pvt. Ralph Kitchen — in Indianapolis, one Tempus Fugit joined the Navy — a U. S. Army officer was arrested in Cairo for driving his jeep upstairs to his second-floor apartment every night —

Down beside the moonlit river
And you felt him all aquiver
Baby, he's a wolf.

If he says you're gorgeous lookin'
And your dark eyes set him cookin'
But your eyes ain't where he's lookin'
Baby, he's a wolf.

When he says you're an eye-ful
But his hand begins to trifle
And his heart pumps like a rifle
Baby, he's a wolf.

If by chance when you're a kissin'
If you feel his heart a missin'
And you talk, but he won't listen

CHURCH FORUM PROVES SUCCESS

The Church Hall 15-15 was filled to capacity when young people and many issei attended the first meeting of the Young Adults' Christian Forum on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 8. Mr. Ralph Smeltzer presided while Miyo Kikuchi led the singing and rendered a solo, "Ave Maria," with Mr. Frizzell as accompanist.

Speaking on the subject "The Church and Relocations" were Mr. Walter Heath of the Relocation Division and Mrs. Miya Kikuchi.

Concerning the attitude of the outside people in the midwest regarding the Japanese problem and relocation, Mrs. Kikuchi related, "The YWCA in various communities and Friends Service Committee are among the foremost organizations aiding the problem of relocation for all Japanese. The Manzanar residents need not worry about assimilation in the new midwest communities, for everywhere we find the understanding public very sympathetic and eager to assist. All of the nisei who have already secured positions and college students who have been relocated are very happy and are urging others to follow."

Mr. Heath presented the WRA policies on relocation. A period of open discussion ended the meeting. The next open forum program will be held Nov. 22.

Hospital Doings

NUTRITION AIDES IN USEFUL SERVICE

On Thursday, Nov. 5, 1942, the nutrition aides met for a staff meeting in Ward V at the hospital. This meeting was planned to meet the new administrative personnel, but unfortunately Dr. Little was ill and could not attend. Miss Wetzel and Miss Hawes of the Health and Medical staff and two members of the Education Department, Miss Elizabeth Moxley and Miss Lucile Smith were present.

The work of the nutrition aides is an interesting story and a credit to the work of Dr. Y. Togasaki. There is an army of 87 women who aid in the health and development of the children of Manzanar Center. They have special foods and special duties for different age groups. There are 36 kitchens in Manzanar all in which this group assists. Nine kitchens are designated for formula making, nine others are designated for interval feedings at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. when his or her majesty, and baby, is given pureed vegetables, cereal, orange juice and the other special foods. The Infants' formula is prescribed at the Child Health Conference at the Hospital on Tuesday or Friday afternoon.

The nutrition aides also assist at the table reserved for the children. They help the chef in choice of proper substitute foods for the younger children. They are pleased with the cooperation which is given by both the chefs and his kitchen helpers and the parents in giving the smaller children the proper foods. Here is a list of foods that are discouraged for child consumption: Undesirable foods for children under 5 years—Pork or pork sausage, ham, cabbage, chili beans, currie, pie and rich pastry, highly spiced foods, hominy, corn-biblets, sauerkraut, oko-oko.

This program should result in fine healthy school children.

MISS WOODSMALL AND MRS. MONROE TO SPEAK TO ISSEI FRIDAY NOON

The local YWA released its final plans for Thursday and Friday of the World Fellowship Week, Nov. 9 to 14, when two distinguished guests, Miss Ruth Woodsmall and Mrs. Edna Monroe, will participate.

On Thursday evening, an informal get-acquainted reception honoring the two guests will be held at 19-15 at 7 p.m. Invitations have been extended by the YWA staff to the board members, teachers, and representatives of the organizations.

On Friday morning, the YWA staff will conduct a tour of the community for the guests. At 2 p.m., a special public meeting for the issei will be held at mess hall 15. Mrs. Miya Kikuchi will introduce the speakers while Mrs. Kondo will interpret their speeches in Japanese. Mrs. Naito and Mrs. Ikeda are making the arrangements.

The big World Fellowship Night is scheduled for Friday evening at 7 p.m. at the Buddhist hall at 13-15 for all nisei, men and women. The program includes community singing of songs of other nations, readings, music and other numbers. Speeches by Miss Woodsmall and Mrs. Monroe will highlight the "Night." In charge of the program are Yoshiye Yoshimura, Alice Asaka, Mary Yawata, Fumi Shimizu, Sally Kusayanagi, and members of the Y's Girls Council and Inter-Y Council.

Mrs. Monroe and Miss Woodsmall will leave the center Saturday morning when the latter will depart for Geneva, Switzerland.

Casebeer Scheduled For Y. P. Rally

Reverend A. Casebeer of the Inglewood Church of Christ will make three evening appearances at 15-15 tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday evening at 7 p.m. at the Young People's rally.

Theme of the Rally will be "The Love of God." Dr. R. Mayberry, superintendent of Baptist Churches of Southern California, will be the second featured speaker Sunday night. The public is invited.

BACHELORS IN ORGANIZATION

The forming of a new social and athletic club for eligible young bachelors, the Buckeyes, took place last Sunday evening with the election of officers.

At the helm of the club is George Hattori, president; Harry Tashima, vice-president; Ben Adachi, secretary-treasurer; Geo. Maeda, publicity chairman; Art Hattori, athletic manager; and Sho Onodera, advisor.

Goldwater in Service

Speaking before the Sunday school and the Young People's group last Sunday was Rev. Julius Goldwater from the Los Angeles Betsuin. He touched on the subject of Buddhism in the activities of other centers and of his visits to Texas, Larksburg, N.M., and Tulalake, Poston, and Gila Centers.

Appreciation was expressed to all the men who helped with the plasterboard insulation at 13-15 and for the curtains donated by an anonymous party.

SUBSTITUTION— Little Tak Murata must be the handy man for the Leftovers and the Marlins ball club . . . when the Marlins were short a player in the past ball season—Tak went in . . . Last Saturday when T. Shimizu was injured and sent to the hospital for stitches on his forehead—it was Tak Murata stepping in again. "Little Duke Jr." is what they call him.

THE FIRST COURT— The first recreational casaba surface is now decorated with sturdy backboard made by Mosie Miyasaki and crew, 4 courts will be the number set for the firebreak playground, and the coming casaba season's potentials will soon be seen hooping the loop for scores galore.

HIGH POINTER— The recent tussle of the D. Chicks and the Crack Shots ended in a victory for the Chicks. Star forward, Chiyo Sugimoto sank 20 points for the team. Teammate Haru Hino sunk the other point—totaling 21 points for the Chicks.

BLOCK LEAGUE— Any block interested in entering the new girls' basketball league are asked to contact either Fuzzy Mizutani or Mary Tamaki for further information. Bring in your roster to the community activities office, 1-2-2.

FURLOUGH NOTES— It won't be long before your favorite sport scribes Hoshizaki, Hashimoto, Hara, Ohtaki and Myose will be filling up this page with their slants on sports. A very welcome news tidbits—and confidentially, it will be on the 20th of this month.

S. DUSTERS GRAB INITIAL VICTORY

Making their debut on the girls' National casaba surface, the Star Dusters took a decisive win over the Fighting six from the children's Village, the final margin being, 24-10.

Leading in the first half by the count of 10-4 the Dusters lead all the way with 14 more points recorded in the last half.

The Fighting six outfit were only able to scrape up but 10 points in 4 quarters, while J. Sugimoto was high point person for the losers with 3 buckets.

Y. Shimizu of the Star Dusters was high pointer for the winners with 10 points chalked on her slate, while T. Uyeno came next with 3 baskets to her credit.

HUSKIES BEAT MANZA-BOMBERS, 18-12

DUSTY CHICKS HIT CRACK SHOTS 21-19

Playing to an enthusiastic Sunday afternoon crowd, the American leaguers, Dusty Chicks and the Crack Shots tossed to a 21-19 decision.

Star forward Chiyo Sugimoto had her "eye" on the bucket to score 14 points in the first half while the Crack Shots totaled 9 points.

In the second half Sugimoto sank 2 buckets and two free shots while teammate H. Hino dropped a free shot.

Crack Shots' Jane Tsuda drew high point laurels with 6 points to her credit while P. Ito and G. Matsumoto both accounted for 2 baskets apiece.

This was the Crack Shots initial appearance on the casaba surface.

E. Norihiro Scores 2 As M. Imamoto Stars

Led by tripple threat Mas Imamoto, the Hollywood Huskies downed a fighting Bomber team by the score of 18-12 last Sunday on the Manzanar gridiron.

It was M. Imamoto who drew first blood for the Huskies squad by taking a punt on his own 10-yard line, weaving in and out of the Bomber team, he ran the ball back 70 yards into paydirt. M. Takahashi failed to drop kick for the extra point.

Early in the second quarter, the Bombers worked the ball deep into the Huskies' territory, then rang up 6 points as T. Nomura sneaked behind defensive back Takahashi to snag a perfect strike from M. Imai. The conversion failed when Imai's pass was batted down in the end zone.

Midway in the second quarter, Shibuya passed to Kikuta who in turn lateraled to Imai. Imai tucked the pigskin under his arm to gallop down the side line for 6 points. The extra point was missed.

Kicking off in the second half, the Huskies were on the tail end of a 12-6 score. The Huskies marched 45 yards down the field to tie the count at 12-all, when Imamoto sent a pass to right end Norihiro in the end zone. Starting another drive in the final quarter, the Hollywood boys fell short of a touchdown. A poor kick by Satow gave the ball to the Huskies on the Bombers' 15 yard marker. Another pass by Imamoto to Norihiro resulted in 6 points. The final score was 18-12.

T. HORI FINISHES IN FIRST

ROOF TO BE MADE

Temporary plans for a roof construction over the judo platform has been announced today by Murakai, judo instructor.

The money was received from block donations throughout the camp, it was announced, while Kunishido was responsible for the plans.

Although a construction date has not been announced, it will be published later. At the time of construction judo practice will be discontinued.

Teeing off at 9:30 last Sunday morning the Manzanar Golf Club held its second golf tourney with T. Hori again grabbing medalist honors, shooting a 71 in an 18-hole event which was played on a 7-hole course.

T. Hori drew first honors in the first Manzanar tournament recently and has been prominently known in the golf circles of Los Angeles.

Playing in foursomes, a list of 18 entrants vied for the low scoring card and a three-way tie for second place was shared by M. Hori, K. Kageyama and J. Kodama, who shot a 72 on a 57 par course.

Others to finish high among the winners were H. Oshio with a 74, Shiozaki with a 75 while Fred Fujui and Kinoshita followed with a 76 score.

BRONCOS SNAG VOLLEY TITLE

The supremacy of the Owens Volleyball league was handed to the Broncos. Although tied for first position with the Bel Aires, the bustling Oliver Broncos were acclaimed the champions as a result of their previous league victory over the Bel Aires.

The Bel Aires drew second spot honors with 6 wins and 1 loss while the Skippers from Montebello tied for the next position with the youthful Dusty Nine, both recorded 5 wins and 2 defeats. The Dusty boys were responsible for the Broncos' only defeat.

Climbing into the 429 bracket were the Manzaknights. Following directly behind them were the Gaels who credited but 2 wins in 7 starts.

The Girls' All-Stars barely rose out of the cellar spot when they were given a win by the winless Piutes, who dropped all league encounters to display a .000.

The winners of the two men's volleyball leagues will be matched this Sunday afternoon at 1:30 for the final decision of Manzanar's volleyball champions.
