

Substitute For charter Is discussed

Possibility of a "negotiating or liaison group" to sit with and advise the administration and postponing consideration of the recently drafted charter loomed today as the result of the meeting held last Thursday morning at the Town Hall when 44 elected block delegates met for the first time to argue the pros and cons of the already much discussed charter.

"Even the nomad tribes in Africa have a chief and some kind of agreement on how to live together," stated Project Director Ralph P. Merritt in stressing the need for some responsible body. Expressing sympathy and understanding for the reaction of many residents and pointing out that many of the provocative provisions embodied in the original charter were mandatory according to limitation laid down by Washington, Merritt said, "If the evacuees choose to have edicts handed down to them, that is one way—but it is not the best way."

Merritt pointed out three possible recommendations the group could make.

1. Charter as it stands is acceptable and should be submitted to an early vote.

2. Charter would be acceptable with minor revisions within the limitation of the WRA rulings.

3. Charter would be acceptable with revisions and additions and should not be put up to popular vote.

"If the third view should prevail, it is up to me as the project director to state the terms on how we should live together," said Merritt. "Above all I want to see the people protected."

Frankly evaluating the situation, he asked for an open and unreserved exchange of opinion. The assembled group, mostly older issei with a sprinkling of English speaking nisei, reported the sentiments of their respective blocks. The majority believed that the charter would be rejected if put up to an immediate vote. K. Masunaka, block leader of 19 was elected chairman of the meeting and Tom Yamazaki interpreted.

Because many were unfamiliar with the charter and the administrative institutions governing the government in WRA centers, the group decided to adjourn to conduct a further study on the document. They will meet again next Thursday, it was announced.

KOBE TEACHER SPEAKS ON JAPAN

Strict rationing of food, clothing and other materials contributing to the difficult living conditions in war-time Japan was the main impression brought back by Roy Smith, for over 30 years a teacher at the Kobe University of Commerce, who was a two-day visitor here, Thursday and Friday.

Contradicting many of the reports given by returned Americans, Smith said that he had experienced no difficulties of any kind with Japanese officials after the declaration of war. He said that he was not molested in any way and continued to live in the same way as before the war until his return to the United States on the exchange ship Gripsholm.

When questioned as to the truth of the atrocity stories currently given widespread publicity, he said that some of it may be true, although he was in no position to ascertain the truth or falsity of the stories. But he emphasized that he knew of no cases concerning his attention and that personally he and his friends were treated well.

He presumed that those cases depended on the individuals and the officials involved.

In his locality, the Kobe district, he said, only some persons were imprisoned. Groups in certain classifications, mainly, U. S. government employees, newspapermen and a few business men were interned. The rest, the big majority, he stated, were allowed to go about unmolested.

He felt no antagonism from the people after the war was declared. In fact, he said, they seemed even more sympathetic and friendly to him.

The people in Japan are taking the war as something unpleasant but inevitable was his opinion. Going to Japan first in 1903, Smith has practically spent his life there, working as a professor of English and business in the Kobe University. He was also connected with various missions and student activities.

He was accompanied on his trip here by Rev. H. V. Nicholson of West Los Angeles.

Church collects Toys for center

Stressing the great needs of this center, the Church of the Brethren members are making an effort to collect toys in good condition for Manzanar evacuee children. Such materials as colored paper, tools, small pieces of wood and tinner glue and paint may be taken to the home of Dean Lorell Weiss, 2025 Fourth St., it was reported by the Pomona Progress Bulletin.

In 749 Michigan war plants 434,600 workers ride to work in private autos.

Intelligence school Hails fourteen Nisei and Kibei

Voluntarily enlisting for the army's military intelligence school at Savage, Minn., where they will undergo six months' arduous training before being sent out to combat areas, 14 nisei and kibei left early Wednesday morning for Los Angeles. They will entrain for Minnesota from that point.

Cream of the young men in the center, they responded to the call to colors enlisting as buck privates. These recruits trained for the language school probably constitute the first nisei to be inducted since the evacuation. Late last Saturday they were solemnly sworn into Uncle Sam's armed forces by the recruiting officer for the school, who helped examine, and fingerprint the men and with the same emped hand upraised, conducted the induction ceremony.

SHORT 'n BRIEF

ABOUT TRAVELERS CHECKS

In a letter addressed to the Legal Aid department, the American Express Company assured that there is no foundation for the rumor that the company will not honor its Travelers' Cheques issued after Dec. 15, 1942.

WORKERS GET NEW WORK SLIPS

Over 5000 workers in the center were given new work orders last Tuesday, Dec. 1, following the new cost accounting system set up by Muir. All work orders have been rewritten with the new department symbols being used.

Chief reason for the rewriting of the work orders is to enable the welfare department to retain a duplicate copy. A record of the work order is necessary to compute clothing allowances, it was announced. One copy is sent to the employer, one to the fiscal division, one to the placement and one is retained by the worker.

The files and records section of the employment division was praised for its work by employment chief, Arthur Miller.

CAL-TROY DANCE NEXT SATURDAY

"I've got my money on S.C." "Well, I'm counting on UCLA." Now, wait a minute, fellas. Don't bet your money on the game. Save it for the Bruin-Troy dance being sponsored by the Cal-Troy organization on December 12, the night after the football classic is over, at kitchen 33.

All members of the organization are selling bids at 50 cents per couple and admittance will be by tickets only.

Fun pom chrysanthemums with chenille letters of the two colleges will be given to the girls at the sports formal.

Report stove cleaning To warehouse

Residents are asked not to attempt any individual cleaning or repair work on the oil stoves in the apartments, was the request released by the stove maintenance department. # Cupid snags James-Jones

Even teachers are vulnerable. Latest victim of Dan Cupid's darts was Hazel James, local instructor at the high school here. Love and Bill Jones pursued her into the comparative isolation of Manzanar and the young couple were quietly married in Bellflower, Calif., last Thanksgiving day.

Legal group Sentences Violators

With a scathing denunciation of all law violators and a commendation to the police for their efficient work in quickly capturing the culprits who attacked the members of the department, Assistant Project Director Ned Campbell, presiding chairman of the Judicial Committee, handed down the recommendation of the Court of six month jail terms to three youthful miscreants.

Sakai Kazunaga, 18, Eddie Nade, 17, and Kenneth Uchida, 16, were each sentenced to serve six months in the Manzanar jail after they were found guilty by the court of willfully breaking the windows in Policewoman Yoshiko Tabuchi's apartment on the night of Nov. 14.

In meeting out the punishment, Campbell emphasized the fact that the Court will not tolerate any malicious mischief. "We are going to back the police with all our power," he said. "They are to be commended for their efficient work. However, that doesn't mean that the police can abuse their power or authority," he added.

Aside from the jail sentences the trio will have to pay for the damages to the building.

Also sentenced to a jail term was Frank Fukuda, who was given 75 days, 60 of which were suspended. He was charged with assault and battery of Hideo Suenaka following an argument.

Found guilty of traffic violations, David Hayashi had his driver's license revoked during his stay in Manzanar. Masao Terashita also was forbidden to operate any vehicles within the center. He was involved in a traffic accident where one passenger was injured.

LEAVE WIRES ON HAY BALES

Shutaro Matsumura of the Housing department has reported that wire tied around the hay has been taken, resulting in the blowing away of the hay. Since the supply of hay used for mattresses is limited, all residents are asked to refrain from removing the wires.

The matter has been reported to the police and anyone caught tampering with the materials, will be arrested, according to Matsumura. If wire is used by any person, he is asked to go to the Housing department and they will take care of the matter.

EDUCATION

The Department of Education expresses appreciation to Community Enterprises for supplying the nursery schools with orange and apple crates which are being used as individual lockers for the children.

FAMILY SURVEY

Roy Ito, in charge of the family survey for clothing distribution reported that the files are nearly complete and that he hopes to have everything filed by next week so that clothing allowance for each family can be determined.

Excerpts from

Wendell L. Willkie's Speech, Nov. 25—

"So this meeting symbolizes what essential nature of the war we are fighting today. For this war is either a "grand coalition" of peoples fighting a common war for liberation, or it is nothing. It must be either a great pooling of all our energies inspired by a united strategy, planning and fought on a global scale, or it will be lost. Finally, as we are doing here tonight, we must talk about this war as united peoples; we must discuss its issues; we must declare the common purpose which drives us all; or we run the risk of having worked and sacrificed and suffered to win a war for no purpose.

AWAKENED WORLD SEEKS PURPOSE

"I found encouragement and hope on all the fighting fronts, and I found the resolution to win in the minds and hearts of the people behind those fronts. But I also found—and this troubled me greatly—I also found worry and doubt in the hearts and minds of the people behind those fronts. They were searching for a common purpose. This was plain in the questions they asked about America after the war, about Great Britain, about Russia. The whole world seemed to me in an eager, demanding, hungry, ambitious mood ready for incredible sacrifices, if only to justify the sacrifices already made.

"Europe in 1917 was probably in much the same mood. It is an inevitable corollary of blood and war-weariness. Then, in 1917 Lenin gave the world one set of answers. A little later Wilson gave it another. Neither set of answers ever became blood and bone part of the war, but were superimposed on it, in the peace. So neither set of answers redeemed the war or made it anything more than a costly fight for power. It ended with an armistice, not a real peace."

"I do not believe this war need be the same. There are now, during the war, common purposes in the minds of men living as far apart as the citizens of Great Britain and the free commonwealth of nations, the Americans, the Russians and the Chinese. But we shall have to make articulate and real our common purposes.

"I am saying to you in Canada—as I have said all over the world—that the people must define their purposes during the war. I am quite deliberately trying to provoke discussion of those purposes between the peoples of the various countries of the world. For I live in a constant dread that this war may end before the people of the world have come to a common understanding of what they fight for and what they hope for after the war is over. I was a soldier in the last war and after that war was over, I saw our bright dreams disappear, our stirring slogans became the jests of the cynical, and all because the fighting peoples did not arrive at any common post-war purpose while they fought. It must be our resolve to see that that does not happen again.

"Millions have already died in this war and thousands more will go before it is over. Unless Britons and Canadians and Russians and Chinese and Americans and all our fighting allies in the common cooperation of war, find the instrumentalities and the methods of cooperative efforts after the war, we, the people, have failed our time and our generations.

FIGHT WITH FAITH

We may ask: Does Stalin mean what he says? Some will point out that only two years ago Russia was in alliance of expediency with Germany, I make no defense of expediency, military, political, temporary or otherwise. For I believe the moral losses of expediency far outweigh the temporary gains. And I believe that every drop of blood saved through expediency will be paid for by 20 drawn with the sword. But a Russian, feeling that by the German alliance his country was buying time, might well remind the democracies of Munich and of the 70,000,000 tons of the best grade of scrap iron my country shipped to Japan between 1937 and 1940.

"Perhaps we can better measure the good faith of Stalin's statement in the light of the millions of Russians who have already died defending their fatherland and of the 70,000,000 who have become slaves of the Nazis; in those other millions

DOTS AND DASHES

Looks as if "We'll be calling of Russian men and women who are working feverishly 56 hours a week in factories and mines to forge and produce the instruments of war for the fighting at the front in the effort that went into the almost miraculous movement of great factories, hundreds of miles, that they might operate uninterrupted, beyond Nazi reach. For it is in the attitude of the people that we may find the best interpretation of Stalin's purpose.

ECONOMIC CHANGE

"And while we are questioning Russia's good faith, we might well ask ourselves—are we prepared to carry out our avowed programs? Are we willing to give our declared purposes reality? To do so will mean undoubtedly different methods for each of us. You in Canada know your own problems. We in the United States have ours. We must guard against the recurrence of dollar and pragmatic diplomacy. We must guard against the use of the great moral force of our country not for the liberation of mankind but for the maintenance of the old international order—the spawning ground of the present struggle. We must educate ourselves to accept the economic changes which must take place in the world. But most important, it remains for us to convince those people to whom we are promising freedom and opportunity, that we really believe what we declared to be self-evident truth in our own Declaration of Independence: That all men are created equal. If we are to convince others of our good faith, we must see to it that racial and cultural and economic exclusiveness belong to the past, within as well as without, our borders. . . .

"Our leaders have tried to state our purposes. Those purposes will not be accomplished merely by statements from leaders. It is the people who must bring them about—not after the war, but while we fight.

Lucy Adams

BACKGROUND QUALIFIES HER

Pinch-hitting for hard-working Dr. Genevieve Carter now on a much deserved vacation, Lucy Adams, Regional Director of Education and Recreation, has been getting a big dose of Manzanar's educational problems. Smiling, friendly, and speaking with a pleasant English accent, she meets countless people daily in her office.

Well known in educational circles where she is highly respected, Mrs. Adams is well qualified for her pioneering task of maintaining the education of evacuee children. With imagination and vision she is battling teacher shortages as well as material shortages.

After graduating from Stanford Mrs. Adams hit the newspaper trail, working for "The Economist" in London. Then she continued her writing career by working with Francis Hirst on his "Life of Thomas Jefferson" which was published both here and in England. She then trekked back to New Haven where her husband was a professor at Yale University.

Her next position was that of director of the California Association of Adult Education. From that she went on to head the division making social and economic surveys on the Indian reservations. She became Superintendent of Indian Education for the Navajo Reservation from which post she was transferred to Washington to take over the Community Services division in the Office of Indian Affairs.

TEACHER SOUGHT

Applications are being taken by the Adult Education Department for a nisei English teacher with good enunciation free of accent. Interviews will be held on Friday and Saturday mornings, Dec. 4 and 5, between the hours of 10 and 12 in the Adult Education Department, 1-4-4.

HIROSHI NEENO

C. Who is cashing the pay checks?

A. The pay checks are being cashed by the Cooperative. It is a free service to the community. The revolving fund of $10,000 which has been used in cashing pay checks has proven to be quite inadequate, consequently bringing embarrassment and hardships to the office and the community. To remedy this situation the Cooperative is borrowing a sum of $30,000 for three consecutive days from the Bank of America, paying interest of $15.00.

It is the hope of the Cooperative that hereafter the pay check cashing will function smoothly to the satisfaction of all. The community's cooperation is requested to observe the pay check cashing hours and days.

C. Has any action been taken to remove the Canteen and the Dry Goods store to a new locality?

A. Yes, action has been taken to move the Canteen and the Dry Goods. The Project Director has contacted the house movers; therefore, it will be only a matter of days until a suitable place has been decided upon. According to the statement of the Project Director, it will be impossible to remove any of the enterprises which are in the ironing rooms due to the scarcity and impossibility of purchasing fixtures for lighting and plumbing. In the event that such enterprises are requested to be removed from the blocks, it is with the understanding that the ironing rooms remain there. The Administration states that no other ironing room or warehouse will be granted to the Cooperative because of the shortage of warehouses in storing the incoming food and lumber.

The Cooperative pleads for the better judgment of the community before any thought is given for the removal of any of the enterprises to a new location.

C. Is it true that the patrons of the mail-order service are entitled to a 10 percent rebate?

A. No, it is not true that they will receive 10 percent rebate. At the end of each accounting month where a record is kept of the individual's purchases for the month, the patrons are given 4 percent advance cash allowance on the rebate of their total purchases. The remaining 6 percent is to be placed in the general earnings so that the necessary expense for the up-keep of the mail-order service may be taken care of. After the expense has been deducted the remainder which is the overage will be shared by the entire membership.

C. What was the total sales of the different enterprises during the month of November?

CHILDREN USE PAINT

Under the supervision of Joy Soeda, the finger painting demonstration was held on Wednesday, Dec. 2, in 20-15 with the pre-school and elementary school teachers participating.

The formula for paint used was a concoction of laundry linit, calcimine paint, glycerine, and oil of cloves. Glossy paper was submerged in a pan of water and then spread smoothly on a table. The formula was spread on this with the forearm, hand, or elbow.

The children experiment in any simple creative medium which reflects self-expression.

Second Front

By YUKI ODAHARA

As the gals' American casaba first round drops its curtain the second half coming around the bend, it looks as if the Phi Sigma Kappas are still undefeated with the Dusty Chicks filling in the second spot with 2 wins and one set-back. Sitting mid-way down the ladder are the twice win and twice loss Justameres—the hard luck Crack Shots lassies from the 30 district finally drew a winning ticket to rise out of the cellar spot which is still occupied by the Island Termites.

AMERICAN OUTLOOK

The battle of the century will take place this weekend when the Dusty Chicks will attempt to flag down the Phi's victory bound dream boat. After the battle smokes clear — either the Phi's dream boat is still going full steam ahead or there'll be a knot at the 1st digit. Also climaxing the first round we find the inspired Crack Shots hungry for the No. 2 win and they have their high hopes pinned on the Termites' expense, but on the other hand the Termites are also anxious for their initial win and are practicing to hand the S'ots a loser's ticket.

Inauguration of the second round we find the Chicks facing the Justameres to complete the other half of Chicks' heavy weekend schedule.

In their first tangle the stone wall zone defense displayed by the under-rated Justameres kept the Dusty forward line hapless—so the Chicks were forced to long range shooting—which proved to no avail when Yamamoto, C. Sugimoto, Hino and M. Sugimoto barely were able to pile up 8 points between themselves. Tagashiro, Matsumoto and Tabuchi netted a neat 22 points to make it a decisive win and the first of a series of American league upsets.

ON THE NATIONAL SLANT

Em glamour studded Star Dusters and the little mites called the Windbreakers share the top flight position at the termination of the first round — both credited with 4 wins and 1 loss. Respective outfits are cushioned this weekend with an easy schedule — the Dusters will find the lowly winless Fightin' 6 easy sailing while the Windbreakers should topple the mediocre Jr. Misses, who seem to lack a decent defensive trio. Sandwiched between the first notch and the cellar are the up and coming Cher Amies and the ever changeable Jr. Misses pulling to a draw with a .600 record. Cher Amies' M. Myose is the added spark that will spell trouble for any sextet in the national circuit. Children's Villagers, Fightin' 6 have been unable to hit the win column since their initial appearance when they drowned the much weaker Underpups. So that leaves the Fightin' 6 with 1 to the good and 4 in the hole—the lowly Underpups are truly the underdogs with no victories to date in 5 starts.

LIMELITE HOLDERS

Breakers' H. Ogawa nabs all bucket honors—Termites' Kitano shows the most fight and facial determination — Tabuchi of the Justameres' roster and C. Sugimoto handle the pelota with the greatest of ease and accuracy — Tagashiro and Matsumoto the smoothest sister act yet seen on the femmes' casaba surface — Y. Hara and T. Uyeno the most consistent — Azaka, Miyamoto and Shimizu are the avocet in opponents' progress with their staunch zone defense — Yuri Uyeno is most spirit for a sideline — E. Nakao and J. Tsuda displaying the shapeliest legs.

National Features Misses-Breakers Tilt Tomorrow

The diehards, named the Crack Shots will try to make it No. 2 win, tomorrow, at the Island Termites' expense to highlight the femmes' casaba schedule.

Playing to a winless percentage, the lowly Termites face a highly improved gals' sextet from block 30. Looking back in previous records—the Mites have been sent to the "butcher" by both the Dusty Chicks and the Justameres. But this outfit almost turned the tables on the much confident Phi Sigma Kappas, which left the Phi's looking weather beaten but still on the top with a narrow margin.

To date, the Crack Shots have given the Dusty Chicks and Phi Sigmas the most competition, but

LEFTOVERS DOMINATE BIG THREE, LOCOMOTIVES' OKAMOTO PLACES 4TH

There's three big reasons why the Leftovers were able to top the 'Little Six' grid title. Yoro Shishido, the 130 pound right wing flash led the league's individual scorers, piling up a total of 51 points on 8 touchdowns and 3 conversions. The lad, who holds the record in number of touchdowns scored per game, tallied 6 of his total in the Bomber engagement. Duke Murata, the pint sized speed demon, chalked up 38 points for the season, scoring 6 touchdowns and 2 conversions. The Leftovers can give credit for 31 of their total points to Toru Shimizu, the triple threat who kicks, passes and runs to make up the famous Murata-Shimizu combination.

Gary Okamoto, Venice's sensation, was the next leading scorer, placing 4th with 19 total points. Bombers' Min Imai came next on the list. The speedy mid-digit collected 18 points for the season.

LEFTOVERS BAG HONORS

Not satisfied with having three of its players monopolize in the individual scoring, the champion Leftovers completed the season with a boastful 155 points to their credit with only a trifling 21 counts chalked up against them.

Placing second in the high scoring column were the Manza-Bombers who rang up a total 50 for the five-game schedule. They were, however, guilty of having their goal dented for 102 points to be the top team in the against column. The Huskies from North Hollywood were pressed constantly by the Venice Locomotives with a 37-31 mark while the latter rang up a 37-37 score.

The fifth place Yahooodies finished with 30 for and 54 against, while the unfortunate Manza-Knights landed in the cellar berth being able to score just a low 19 and giving up 83 for the season.

Sport Core

ALL-STAR SOON—Now that the "Little Six" loop competition has come to a grand finale... the All-Star choice is on tap... And if you figure that the season is over... you're sadly misinformed, cuz... the final gigantic climax for little sixers will be the cream of the "Little Six" crop thrown up against the mighty midjet machinery of the Leftovers... Watch for this 1942 pigskin classic...

THEY MISS HIM—AND HOW!—The newly organized Golden Bears club is contemplating a casaba quintet — only this time they will have to do without the valuable services of all-time JAU star, Jimmie Kaneda... as a pre-season gander... they look hapless, but with the services of Iso Hara, also a prominent JAU star, they may come thru with a mediocre season...

SKINNED BUT LOVE TO TOUCH — If you think tough football features only pantywaists and twinkle toes (and not M.K. this time) — then come again... We didn't expect the Knights and Venice to touch each other gently and say "pardon me"...

... but we did expect to see a touch football game... You could have mistaken last Sunday's fracas for a catch-as-catch-match...

SMART BOYS—the old saying of... "necessity is the mother of all inventions"... certainly holds true here... finding themselves financially embarrassed the San Pedro Seven Elevens sent out a "dear sponsor" letter to Sears, Roebuck and Co. — the results... well in the return mail there was a large package labeled for them... red-brilliant red basketball outfits to dazzle their opponents no end...

IT'S SO LONG NOB MYOSE—the famed scribe belonging to "Scanning Around" will be leaving us for green pastures... so it's so long for awhile, Nob... it's been swell having you... you're a regular guy and we'll miss you... signed the Sports Staff...
