BAN ON JAPANESE LITERATURE PLACED AT SANTA ANITA

According to bulletin issued at San Francisco, Japanese literature has been de-

The bulletin reprinted over the signature of acting center manager, G. W. Wilber, is as follows.

"All Japanese literature of any kind, such as Japanese newspaper, books, pamphlets, etc., excepting Japanese religious books (Bible and hymals) and English-Japanese dictionaries, are declared to be contraband in Santa Anita. Therefore, such items as considered by the center authority to be contraband will henceforth be seized.

"When center evacuees are relieved of books or other literature in volume form, receipts for same, identifying the expers, will be given to the evacuees by the center manager. These articles will be held by the center manager, and copies of the receipts will be placed with the articles scized. Then the evacuation of an assembly center is accomplished, such articles will be boxed and shipped directly to the director of the relocation project. Santa Anita visitors are forbidden to bring in Japanese literature considered to be contraband. If a visitor should possess suchitems, they will be held and returned to him on his way back."

ACTIVITY SCHOOL

Concerned over the future of those students in Manzanar whose school careers were temporarily interrupted due to the evacuation, graduates and undergraduates of various universities are voluntarily contributing their activities to meet the emergency educational program.
