Peace and harmony Main topic of talk

DIRECTOR ASKS COOPERATION BEFORE REPRESENTATIVE GROUP

To establish peace and harmony within the center as the goal for the coming year was the essence of the talk given by Project Director Ralph P. Merritt at a meeting of a representative group of 108 people at Town Hall, Wednesday morning.

Through the cooperation of the people, the department, the Peace Committee and the Negotiating Committee, peace and quiet has been restored in Manzanar, Merritt said. It is his fervent hope that it continue so.

Merritt was especially lavish in his praise of the work accomplished by the Negotiating Committee composed of Koichi Masunaka, Harry Ikkanada, Thomas Ozamoto and George Murakami. "The people could not have been better represented," he said. "They have accomplished more than even I expected. They have really worked hard with the thoughts of the residents foremost in their hearts. They have met along continuously, day after day, with me or with my staff."

ALL POSSIBLE GRANTED
"Everything that they asked for could not be granted," Merritt said, "but everything that was possible was granted. Certain matters have gone out of my hands, and the jurisdiction of those matters are in the hands of the Federal Government. We have done our best for the people and the people in turn should forget what is past and look forward. We should all work together for the future."

Commenting slightly on the incident that created the disturbance in the center in December, Merritt said:

"It was regrettable because it could have been prevented with a little care. It must never happen again. I know there are many factions with different ideas. Many people, magazine writers, newspapermen, and the like have asked me about it. I do not go around questioning people's minds, how this man thinks and what he believes in. I do not have the right to ask him how he feels. A man may feel one way or another. If he feels the way I do, I am glad. But however he feels, there must be peace in Manzanar. That is what I am pledged to create and maintain. Assurance of a fair trial for those removed from the center after the disturbance and still under custody, was given by Merritt. All will be given a hearing by a Board of Review of selected men from Washington, who are fair and impartial in their judgments, he said. He disclosed that there were 16 men removed to Moab, Utah, CCC camp, still under that category. He added that the removal of these men from the Lone Pine and Independence jails was made because the hearings may take up quite a little time and the quarters in the jails were too cramped for a long stay. He could not commit himself as to the outcome of the hearings. Whether they would be returned here, or sent elsewhere, he did not know.

DISPOSITION CLEARED
Disposition of the persons taken out of the center since the disturbance was cleared by Merritt. "Some were taken out for their own protection," Merritt said. "Some because they were habitual trouble makers. There were many taken out who had no connection with the incident. All of the cases have been thoroughly reviewed and those who were immediately shown to be innocent were returned to the center or sent to other relocation areas," he said. Dispositions of others are now under consideration, he disclosed.

COMMITTEE RESIGNS
After giving resume of its work from its formation until the present time, the Negotiating Committee, through its spokesman, Koichi Masunaka, handed its resignation to the representative body. Assertion was given that all possible negotiations have been pressed to the limit and that no further work in the matter could be accomplished by the present group.

A heated discussion which followed tabled the resignation until the next meeting of the body scheduled for Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the Buddhist church hall at 13-15. A clarification of the formation and the purposes of the Negotiating Committee, under the leadership of Seigo Murakami, was to be discussed also at the meeting.

System of fire Control inadequate

Recent check-up of the local fire department and its facilities throughout the camp by Al Brotherton from the Pacific Division of Engineers of Fort Douglas, Utah, confirmed a former statement made by Fire Chief Frank E. Hon that the present system of fire control in Manzanar is inadequate.

Pointed out as a sore spot was the location of the fire house, as formerly expressed by Hon. Brotherton admitted that the present location is only 50 percent efficient because it is not a central spot. With the coming addition of the 500 gallon pump which the dormitory facilities will have to be reduced to half, thereby reducing efficiency. Most of Brotherton's stay was spent in inspecting the water supply and fire apparatus.

The matter of fire alarms was discussed and it was stated that the cross arms are detaining delivery of alarm systems to Manzanar.

The Art of Standing in Line

We stand in line thrice daily at the mess halls. We stand in line to collect our pay checks—pardon me, subsistence checks. Then we stand in line to cash them. We stand in line to record our rebates at block offices. What we have developed is a pair of sturdy legs, inexhaustible patience and boundless tolerance. That is, most of us have developed them.

It is a form of inescapable but democratic regimentation. The necessary methods for conducting certain phases of camp life require this. The idea of willingness to await our turn to secure something that we want to possess is a trait worth cultivating, especially in these days.

It must be apparent to most of us that in wartime America, people leading normal lives also have been forced to accept this practice of waiting in line for many of the things that they want. This follows because most of the available goods and services today are being rationed.

Most important of all, are not all of us waiting for that most desired condition, the return of peace? The people of America on the home front, of course, do their utmost toward the war effort. Having done that, they patiently must wait, wait for the coming of peace. To do this, we must have patience. Yes, we must figuratively wait in line for the successive developments in the war's progress before we can have peace.

Letter Tells of Sight-Seeing Trip

Dear Mr. Miller,

Eleven days after leaving dear old Manzanar, I finally find time to write to you. I should have written to you sooner, but please forgive me, I have been very busy.

Probably you have heard from other girls that 17 of us arrived safely at Reno around 1:30 a.m., Saturday... We hardly slept and were too excited to sleep. Mr. Miller, will you please, thank our escort when you see her again? All that time we waited for the train, she kept on watching us so that nothing would happen...

Our train trip was very enjoyable, although the coach was quite uncomfortable. Tamiko and I went to the dining car for our three meals, promptly. We must have been hungry. There were mostly soldiers in our car, and quite friendly, too. One drunk sailor wanted to talk to us, but the M.P. promptly took him away.

When we arrived at Chicago, there were six of us left. The rest got off at Omaha, Cheyenne, and Salt Lake. That was Monday at 4:30 p.m. when we arrived. My fiancé was waiting for me at the station, and we went to Hotel Sherman, stayed there until Saturday.

We were married Tuesday afternoon. We have been shopping, and we ran into the city hall barely before closing hour. During our stay in Chicago, we went sight-seeing at Shed aquarium and Field Museum, and of course, to theaters and to the best restaurants. It snowed and was very cold, so we didn't go around much, but had a grand time.

On Saturday afternoon we came to Rockford. I went to see Miss Fuller of the YWCA at the USO club, and she has arranged for me to work in a family, by tomorrow. She is very conscientious about us Japanese-Americans in this city. She said most people here are of Scandinavian descent, and are simple and kind.

Yesterday I went to see Captain Hill of the Intelligence Office at Camp Grant. He said he has complete responsibility for me, and that I have nothing to worry about, although I am to be prepared when the time comes for my husband to go overseas. In that case, it's better for me to go back to my folks. However, everything is much better than I have expected, so I am more than glad, and very happy.

Mr. Miller, thank you for all the things you have done to let me leave the camp, especially cashing the check and money order for me.

Captain Hill looked through my permit, and he said he will return it to Manzanar as soon as I am settled. Right now I am staying at Hotel Lafayette in Rockford. I am to begin work tomorrow.

Together with my husband, I thank you again, and Merry Christmas.

Sincerely yours,
Satsuki Kubota.

Donation Acknowledged

Miss Ikuko Hamamoto of 20-10-5 who formerly assisted Mrs. F. Nakauchi as sewing instructor acknowledged the receipt of $15 from the students enrolled. Miss Hamamoto transferred to Heart Mt. Relocation center yesterday afternoon.

Perhaps the bird is campaigning to replace the eagle as the national bird... Why do we have to use a big word like "infinitesimal" to describe something very, very, small, and a small word like "vat" to describe something very, very big?... How would you like to live in a town called Muleshoe (Tex.)? The folks down here sometimes try to dodge the issue by calling it Jenny Slippers... Overheard a fellow introduce his girl friend to the bartender: "She's an old stool chum of mine"... Who was it said: Gas rationing should soon put the nation back on its feet?... Read where experts voted hockey the most competitive sport. It's obvious that the board never saw me and a pal split an order of French fries... 464 Bodies Bring Christmas Cheer

That 464 church organizations and persons contributed in making the Manzanar children's first Christmas a memorable one was the announcement made by the Community Service division. Out of this total, 61 associations have their headquarters in Pennsylvania, 50 in Illinois and 19 in California. Special mention was given to a Chinese church group in Pennsylvania which contributed gifts. A group organized by Mrs. D'ille and headed by Mr. U. Niwa classified the gifts according to ages and delivered them to each block and hospital. Others who gave a helping hand were the sewing school students under Mrs. Naito who made 2,750 bags to pack the fruit and candy, the Jr. Red Cross and the P-TA as well as the YWMA.

In spite of the short notice, the committees were able to make the Christmas holiday a special one for the 2,500 children in the center.

Buddhists to Gather

In honor of the aged people in the center, the First Buddhist church at 13-15 will sponsor a gathering, tentatively set for Jan. 24, from 2 p.m.

The church group is also making a survey of all the pioneers who are now residing here.

Art Exhibit

Stated approximately once in three months, the third art exhibit will be held from Jan. 23 for a one week run at 14-15. The show will feature artistic water color works of Itokawa; and oil paintings by G. H. Kumano, H. Inouye and C. Yamaguchi. This installment at 14-15 is now taking registration for classes in both fine and commercial arts, with instructions in lettering, posters and designing planned. Itokawa will be the instructor.

Museum Exhibit

The Visual Education Museum in 8-15 will be open again next week to accommodate everyone. "Approximately 4,000 have come to see the exhibit since Monday. We are very happy to see that the people are curious," said Kiyotsugu Tsuchiya, director of the Visual Education Museum. "In the next exhibit we will gradually try to eliminate the ordinary articles and gather only the finest of all the different subjects. I hope to introduce the skill of one group to another so as to exchange ideas," Tsuchiya added.

Adult Classes In Economics Open

Classes in Economics, History of Thought, and Current Events will be sponsored by the Adult Education Department with Choyei Kondo as instructor.

Economics and History of Thought will be held from 7 p.m. at 10-15 on Tuesdays and at 32-15 on Thursdays. On Wednesday, Current Events and History of Thought will be held at Mess Hall 9 from 7 p.m.

New Class Open

To emphasize the various techniques in use, lecture and laboratory courses in graphic art, with particular reference to the life sciences will be offered in the new subject, Introduction to Scientific Illustrating. The instructor is Kazuyuki Takahashi.

This course is primarily for students preparing in biology, medicine, scientific illustrating, as if vocation or a hobby.

Dear Editor:

Dear Editor,
To those friends I have come to know since our inception here in March of 1942, almost a year ago, I would like to take this means to bid you goodbye. Thru my associations with you in the organization of the Manzanar Cooperative Enterprises, a 4-Manzanar Work Corps, I have found many good friends and I wish that I could see you personally but I have had only three days to make preparation to leave Heart Mt. Relocation Center.

As I leave I would like to leave one thought behind... We should all work together, act together, and think together for the good of all concerned. Those of us who are able should help those who are old and infirm. They need our help more than ever before and when the war is over, as it must, we who are able should help pave the way for eventual resettlement.

With this thought in mind we have worked together. With this thought in mind I regretfully leave this center.

Sincerely,
George Matsumura.

INTERESTED IN CO-OP CLASS

Under the supervision of the Cooperative Enterprises staff, a class on Co-op Theory and possibly Co-op Management is being considered. Under the present plan, classes will be held twice weekly to study the origin and fundamentals of consumer cooperation. Students will be encouraged to participate in discussions, so states Mr. Poole, Associate Superintendent of the Co-op. Everyone who is interested in joining the Co-op class is requested to submit their name and address to Hiroshi Neeno at 1-6-4. As soon as response is great enough to hold a class, the time and place will be announced.

AT LAST COMPLETED

The collection of the sales receipts for the months of August to December, inclusive, has been completed. The response from the community was commended by Mr. Shinno, head of the rebate. All sales receipts are being tabulated and recorded by the rebate clerk. Shortly after the forms for memberships will be made and distributed to the Block Managers. All those who are eligible will receive such an application, including those who did not have any sales receipts turned in.

It is advised that individuals retain their sales receipts so that they may receive full benefit of the rebates. In accordance with California statutory provisions cash rebates to fully paid up members, or a credit toward a membership, can be given only to those patrons of a cooperative who retain their sales receipts as a record of their patronage within the cooperative.

ANY SUGGESTIONS?
 Suggestion boxes have been placed at the Canteen and the Dry Goods Department by the Grievance Committee of the Co-op. Any suggestions on Management, Personnel, or Merchandising regarding any of the Co-op enterprises will be appreciated. The community is asked to take this opportunity to express themselves.

Lectures to raise scholarship fund

ESSAY CONTEST TO DETERMINE RECIPIENT; THREE TO JUDGE

Definite plans to create a scholarship fund through a series of Sunday evening lectures have been made by the Adult Education Department. The lectures will begin Jan. 24 and continue for eight Sundays.

There will be no charge for admission but an opportunity for voluntary donations will be given at the end of each lecture. An attempt will be made to get some individual organization to match the amount of money raised. The total amount from the lecture series and from the matching sum will be used solely to create the scholarship fund.

This fund will enable one or more worthy young persons in Manzanar to continue his schooling beyond the high school level. An essay contest will be the means of selecting the recipient of the award. Judges for the contest will be Dr. Tom Watanabe, Mr. Choyei Kondo, and Mr. Chas. Ferguson.

The Scholarship Fund Committee consists of the above persons, Henry Ishizuka and Dr. Genevieve Carter.

The schedule for the lectures is as follows:

Jan. 24—Dr. William Bruce, "The Growing Cooperative Movement."

Jan. 31—Dr. Morse Little, "Recent Trends and Developments in Modern Medicine."

Feb. 7—Mr. Hooper, "The Scope and Problems of Wartime Government Procurement."

Feb. 14—Dr. Kenzie Nozaki, "Contributions of Chemistry to Peace and War."

Feb. 21—Mr. Louis Frizzell, "The Value of Music During Wartime."

Feb. 28—Miss Anita Nicolaus, Miss Lily Yamada, Miss Martha Groth, Miss Lucile Smith, Mrs. White, "Round Table Discussion on Art and the Home."

Mar. 7—Dr. James Goto, "Health Considerations in Mass Living."

Mar. 14—To be announced later.

Prevent colds, Says Dr. Goto

With the coming of the cold days, many of the Manzanar residents will fall prey to cold germs. In order to prevent a cold epidemic, Dr. James Goto, medical director, issued several suggestions.

He stated that humidity is important, and suggested that a pan or bucket be placed over the stove in order to keep the right moisture to prevent drying out of the membranes in the nose and throat.

Residents are also urged to wear warm clothing when going outside while children should stay indoors on cold, windy days. At the first sign of a cold, Dr. Goto suggested that patients go to bed, drink lots of fluid, eat well, and obtain a food permit, if one is necessary, at the hospital.

Four to Speak on 'Nisei Problems'

A continuation of last Sunday night's fellowship discussion on "Nisei Problems" will be held. The fellowship will be held as usual at 15-15 from 6:30 p.m. The panel discussion, chaired by Henry Ishizuka, will be composed of the following speakers: Tatsuo Miyake, Takuo Hohri, Kazuko Nakahama, and Virginia Asaka.

Said Carlyle: The Age of Romance has not ceased; it never ceases; it does not, if we think of it, so much as very sensibly decline.

And five reasons why it won't are because Blossom Girl Cosmetics of Hollywood has concocted five different mixtures of Bouquet Powder for as many different skins. Shade No. 1 will hit the spot with the fair ivory-complexioned lassie; while No. 2 tho' a little darker will be on the beam for the cream and peaches women.

Japanese girls, classed as the exotic type of feminine beauty, will go for the very flattering No. 3 which is beige; and No. 4, a sun tan tone. Play up your attractive South Sea tan via Manzanar and help keep the men folks' morale up. At least, keep 'em sighing.

The last of the elegant shades is No. 5 for the darker skins. One of these numbers is bound to make him utter the popular, "I love you for what you are, but I love you more for what you are going to be."

Pedro Gopher Fast Break Ruins Golden Aces, 36=31

In a nip 'n tuck preview contest before the official opening of the basketball league, the uncanny San Pedro Gophers poured on their usual last quarter fireworks to offset the Golden Aces' slim lead and victor in the last few minutes of the game, 36-31. The fast break which the victors had work-

DAR-U-GARS

Upon learning that the "Dar-U-Gar Oilers" outfit comes from block 16, my curiosity questioned one John Takayanagi, manager. His reply was that they had taken the name from the Compton J.C. year book, just what it means, they themselves didn't know. As for the Oilers, that name has built a reputation for many a good casaba team, so was attached to their somewhat "romantic" first name. Mary Kitano, Termites' star and former Compton student, has explained that "Dar-U-Gar" means Onward. So, Onward Oilers of Block Sixteen.

MORE NAMES

Where the dickens do all the teams come from, you may ask. Well there's the Rangers from Block 30, the Dinglehoofers from 27, Cracker Jacks and Manila Tech from 20, Toppers of 15, Vikings from 9, the Vols from 12, Irregulars from 6, the Redbirds from 5, and then some guys are gonna get mad if we don't mention the Spartans of block 3.

MATSUMOTO GIRLS'

SCORING HEAD

Here's two reasons why Justameres are giving the Dusty Chicks a battle in the American League. It so happens that Hana Matsumoto is leading the heap with her 44 points. Her mate, Mary Tagashira, who may out-score Matsumoto at the rate she is now going, is in a three-way third place tie, garnering some 35 points. All-Star Chiyo Sugirino, Dusty Hens' mainstay, has potted 42 points in her Manzanar hoop career to remain a close second. Crack Shots' Ella Nakao and Kappas' Rits Masuda are the other two tied for third.

Nationals scoring head finds Windbreakers' Harumi Ogawa in the title role with a 74 point total. Jr. Misses' Gracie Odahara is sitting pretty in the second slot with her 67 point figure (Aw shucks fellas). Comes Hisako Nagai in third place, also of the Misses, booming a total of 54 points.

SPORT BRIEFS

There are now a total of 44 Manzanar hoop teams entered in the five leagues... One Golden Aces lad, who hasn't been over-publicized, is Pete Takeuchi. He was really in there against the Gophers... Every block in the Heart Mt. center is reported to have an ice-skating pond...

Oliver A's will have to pull the iron man stunt, having but 6 men on their roster so far...

SURPRISED!—In a recent practice tussle between the Irregulars and the Spartans—the latter's quiet forward Torchy Chihara scored a bucket on the dead run—much to the surprise of this silent gent as well as his teammates...

ing in a superior manner in the final quarter together with some fine passing and speed netted the Gophers their well earned triumph. The Golden Aces on the other hand led by Johnny Endow, had Taka Goto and his crew constantly on the alert with their speedy ways.

The Gophers started off with a bang taking a 6-1 lead in the initial quarter but the Aces suddenly opened up in the second to pile up 16 digits with Pete Takeuchi and Hiram Hino sinking in pretty field goals to lead at half-time by a 17-12 mark. Taka Goto who was anything but cold in the long range shots and Danny Fukushima, always dependable for points under the basket put the Gophers right back in the tussle in the third as the score read 21-20 with the Aces ahead.

Then came the final action-packed quarter which had the lead change hands a half dozen times before the Gophers pulled away in the last few minutes of play to end one of the speediest this players' thus far.

Rats, Gophers, Aces, Padres on AA Bill

On tap for the opener of the big AA basketball program, will be the Pedro Gophers tangling with the Brother Rat outfit. The first of the double-header at block 9 this afternoon.

In the Gophers, we find a host of speed merchants who are anything but inexperienced. So far, this club has ravaged through tough exhibitioners, downing all. This includes the tourney champ, the Zeros, and most recently added the Golden Aces by score of 36-31.

By using swift, flippy passes and fast breaks, the Gopher bunch is able to go all out. They are laden two deep in all positions.

predicted to corner a second or third berth, checking over their studded rosters and performances.
