My Dear Katsu;-

How are you? all right I think. Thank you for the Koffee-Toffee delicious sweet which I got yesterday with rejoice, and ate at the tea time, with my friends who were envy so much upon me, say "Sweet Wife" Yes! Dear I love it, in my mouth very often as tasteful as Kissing You.

The moon is about a half to-night (Friday) I enjoyed Full moon last month. The moonlight viewed now in the chill of the night looks rather cold, though, we could however enjoy a moon always. I guess. Now I hear a phonograph record playing in a neighboring barrack. What a sweet feminine voice. It is so charming and fascinating. "It's so reminiscent" says a friend near mine "It reminds me of sixth Ave. & Main st." I look up at the moon through the window, The record is still playing. A quiet night.

How are boys? Hallowe'en has come round, I wonder what kind of Hallowe'en you had down there in your relocation center. Nothing happened here in our camp except I imagined myself to be a Ghost when I was changing my sheet at night! You do better go out covering Your whole body with it" Suggested a guy. I did cover, but didn't go out as an imitation ghost, too cold out side now, at night.

Please best care Yourself for my sake Dear. Remember me to Mrs. Misao, Ito Mr. & Mrs. Seiji, Chikamura, Rev. Kodaira

This Saturday morning very busy Mayor's office. LOVE
