

my dear Katsu:

March 22, '43

How are you? Am fine. The fine spring weather lasts long here now. I am waiting for your weekly tidings, your poems and most recent your picture!

I met Miss Mitsue & Toshiro last Saturday and learn Roy's volunteers Army physical examination postpone to March 24. I extremely glad to hear that about four hundred of Japanese boys volunteered for Army in your Center under the such relocated circumstances.

Amateur stage show presented here as a farewell entertainment. For the past 3 nights in succession we felt lonesome this morning, we looked after them with envy, good care self love. Genji
