Meanwhile on the Project, trustees Firman Brown, Mats Ando and Dr. Earl Yusa disclosed that the mechanics of computing the share for each worker were nearly complete. The share for each worker will be based on the hours of work recorded on WRA payroll established by him during the period that the factory was operative, said Brown. Residents who have resettled will also be given their share, he said.

The trustees said that they are doing their utmost to hasten payment following the War Department order which closed the net factory for good. The factory which represented Rivers' folks greatest single direct war effort ended production Tuesday.

editorial: WHEN INDIGNATION
BECLOUDS JUDGMENT

Indignation at the Japanese execution of some of the flyers who flew with General Doolittle has inspired A Senator Steward to propose that all Americans of Japanese descent to stripped of citizenship and confined in concentration camps. By demonstrating the extreme of intelerance to which blind fury can drive a presumably responsible man, this proposal should give many people a sepering creakization of the danger and indignation to overwhelm the firm, disciplined reasoning which the war emergency demends.

On second thought, Senator Stewart himself must realize this. What he urges would violate one of the basic principles of American citizenship. It would represent acceptance of the Axis technique of visiting vengeance upon the innocent for the deeds of others. It would be nothing less than an example of the Axis brand of racial bigotry and hatred.

riyers' spirit commended

To the Editor of the Sun:

I want to express warm appreciation of the good words spoken for American Japanese in your editorial this morning, "When Indignation Beclouds Judgment."

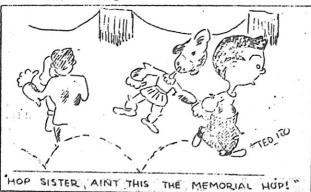

Through a friend who is in an evacuation center I keep in weekly touch with events in Rivers, Ariz., and know that no finer spirit exists among any group of Americans. I am increasingly amezed by their understanding and lack of bitterness over the mass evacuation and the resettlement difficulties.

I hope Maryland will welcome a quota of these citizens and that we may count on your continued, editorial support along with that of fourteen Christian denominations now working on resettlements.

Dorothy Elderdice Westminstor, Maryland

EDITOR'S NOTE: Miss Elderdice is a dramatic instructor at the Western Maryland Theological Seminary, Westminster, Maryland. She is one of the most militant of the many individuals who are helping to fight the evacuee's fight. The friend she refers to is Mrs. Charolotto Susu-Mago.

Before I Die

Before I die, oh let me see 5
the spring-dressed boughs of cherry bloom

That line in fragrant soldiers ranks before great Lincoln's marble tomb

And lot me gaze but for an hour the rearing snow of Niagara's falls;

Or let me stand on wind-carved rim of Grand Canyon's majestic wells.

Before I die, oh, God, I pray,
Lot me feel the salt wind's sting
Or let me life my face and feel the tender kisses spring's rain-

And may I see the century's turn the calm of guns, and peaceful

And let me sail once more the seas:
This I ask before I die.
