FIGHT FOR INDEPENDENCE

One hundred sixty-eight years ago 56 courageous Americans signed the Declaration of Independence to free their country from the shackles of tyranny and to win back for their people the unalienable rights endowed to all people by the Creator, the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Ever since, we have been fighting wars to protect those rights, and today we are engaged in the biggest of them all, the second World War.

The Rivers Honor Roll monument with its more than 500 names is standing evidence that nisei Americans from Gila are doing their part. And that they are doing that well is written in the reports that come in from the Italian and South Pacific battlefronts telling of Japanese American courage and sacrifices. Rivers is fully in the fight with the lives of its boys as stakes. No matter what the price, they must win, for the future of all of us depends on them.

On this Fourth of July, as the nation reaffirms its declaration to free the country from the oppressions of tyranny, nisei Americans will no doubt see the importance of their part in the struggle. For theirs is a fight that is two-fold--one for the freedom of their country, and the other for the freedom of their people.

LABOR SHORT, HOUSING FAIR IN BUFFALO AREA

Buffalo is a critical labor shortage area, and day after day newspapers are full of advertisements for employees in a wide diversity of occupations, announced Harry Weiss, acting relocation officer in Buffalo.

JOBS

A few casual contacts have already turned up jobs for mechanics and mechanic helpers, bench hands, machinists, mechanical engineers, draftsman, tire rescapers, tool and die makers, and welders, said Weiss.

The starting rates for the less experienced persons in Buffalo is 75 cents an hour.

HOUSING

Generally speaking the housing situation is better than that existing in Detroit and Cleveland. Two nisei families are living in Federal housing projects in Buffalo.

There is no easily dis-cernible prejudice against persons of Japanese ancestry and it would appear that there must be a number of evacuees who will venture out to Buffalo and test its slogan, "The City of Good Neighbors," said Weiss.

Ice, Milk Tickets Void After July 1

All old ice and milk tickets will be cancelled effective July 1, announced Harold E. Koadlo, project steward.

It is not necessary for babies of ten - months to children of twelve years of age to have milk tickets.

16 Nisei Play Top Hawaii Ball

Hawaii's leading baseball circuit, the Hawaii League in Honolulu today boasts of more top major leaguers than any city on the mainland. And, according to the Pacific Citizen "Vagaries" column, some 16 nisei regulars play in the five-team loop, among them Jimmy Hori of the Hawaii's, Dick Kashiwada and Harry Kitamura of the Athletics, and Eddie Kitamura of the Wanderers.

LOSES FIRST. WINS 2ND TILT

Rallying in the first of a ninth, the Poston Unit III Arizona Yankees defeated Lompoc-Guadalupe, 10-6 last Sunday and stood 1-all in their series with local Butte nines prior to their scheduled third game yesterday. A day previously, the visiting Yankees had been subjected to a close 4-3 defeat at the hands of Block 65.

Three hits, including Roy Nakamura's game-deciding double, and the same number of errors provided the 65 outfit with a decisive four-run splurge in the seventh Saturday. Both yielding five hits, Herky Shinmoto bested Gordy Miyamoto.

Although trailing into the ninth, the Poston lads evened the count Sunday with a four-hit, five-run outburst, which was aided no little by three Lompoc-Guadalupe miscues, timely or untimely, whichever way you care to look at it.

Maya Miyamoto two-baser, his second bingle of the game, drove across the tying and winning run. Firstbaseman Miyamoto also relieved starting chucker Harry Sakamoto in the fourth and held the locals scoreless thereon, whiffing nine in six frames.

George Matsuda twirled creditably for the losers until replaced by Dick Kamon in the ninth.

Although depending on how last night's game came out, Gordy Miyamoto was named yesterday afternoon to toe the slab when the Yankees open the first of a two-game Canal series against Cards tonight. The opening pitch is slated for 6:15 at Field 16.

At the same time tonight in Butte, Block 65 and 28 will stage an admission-free exhibition game at Zonimura Field.
