PFC. HIGA Relates War Experiences

American soldiers in the U.S. Army are fighting, not to kill or to win glory, but to insure a place in this country for all persons of Nisei Japanese ancestry. soldiers are valiant fighters because they have that purpose in mind. The greatest support that civilians can give to these fighting men is to keep writing letters to them in English or in Japanese.

This, in brief, was the message brought from Italy to Rivers' residents Sunday as Pfc. Thomas Higa, wounded veteran of tho Italian battles, delivered his two and one half hour · speech at the Butte amphitheater Sunday afternoon and again at the Canal auditorium that evening.

Higa, who arrived here loft for Poston Saturday, vesterday.

The Hawaii born, Japan educated, United States soldier Riga, speaking in forcoful Japanese, gave an account of his experiences as a member of the 100th Battalion, which left Hawaii on June 5, 1942, laft Now York harbor on August 20, 1943, and saw first action on September 29 at Salerno.

Pfc. Higa. discounted rumors that boys who enter Army loarn to gamble and dissipate in general, and that the Nisei batta spearhead most lion had to

SANTA BARBARIANS'SIGN ANTI-JAPANESE PLEDGIE

Pledges which sale or lease of lands to Japanese after the war in the northern part of the Santa Barbara County have been signed by 1200 farmers in the Santa Maria and Lompcc valleys, according to the L.A. Times.

Robert E Easton, chairman of the California Citizens' Committee, urged tolerance in the problem but asserted it would be better for all concerned if Japanese did not reenter agriculture in this county. His committee is asking that farm land be held for use of Americans, including returning servicemen.

Before the Japanese exclusion, it was estimated that 2500 Japanese were engaged in agriculture in Santa Barbara County, and Easton said they controlled about 12,000 acres of Color Brown. Blk. 46 office. CONSTRUCTION WORKERS-Neb-

FOOTBALL Butte Hi Edges

Yellowjackets at the half in the evenly matched pigskin thriller last Sunday afternoon gave the edge to the Butte High Eagles, who maintained the lead to pull out a close 6-0 win over the disheartened Yellowjackets.

It was the second quarter before the Eagles could yardage to gain enough make 3 consecutive first downs. Charlie Yamaguchi faded well back on the next play, dodged a few would · be tacklers and heaved a 30 yd. pass into the Yellowjacket's end zone as half whistle blow. · the Yellowjacket's Teruo Kozaki relaxing a bit as he . heard the half whistle . blow failed to stop Shig Kawata from nestling the ball into his arms for the only tally of the game.

Determined to come out victorious, the Yellowjackets rolled up a number of first downs but finally ran out of downs. In the fourth quarter the tired Yellowjackets slowly gave way to the steady pound-ings of the Eagles, but was saved by a few penalties and fumbles on the part of the Eagles as the Butte. Hi prepaters reached the 5 yd. mark to leave the score unmolosted at the end, 6-0.

> NW LEAGUE Cubs Roll Over Mustangs 25-0

With one of the soundest offenses seen in the Northwestern League this year, the Cubs rolled up an impressive score of 25against the Mustangs last Sunday morning.

The winners scored in almost every quarter with Frank Tanaka, Kenshi Zenimura, Tets Hasegawa, and George Okada sharing scoring honors.

In the first quarter Frank Tanaka scored on an off tackle play and Kenshi Zenimura followed with the same play in the same quarter. Both of the conversion kicks were blocked. The Cubs scored again in the third quarter when quarterback Tets Hasegawa passed to left end George Okada who caught the ball over the goal for the third touchdown. Frank Tanaka added another touch-down in the final quarter and also added an extra point on a quarterback sneak. From thore, the Mustangs desperately tried to score a touchdown on aerial plays, but was unsuccessful and the game ended highly in favor of the Cubs by a score of 25-0.
