CANAL MOVIE

Chairs Will Be Provided

Canal residents will not have to bring their own chairs to the movies, states the Canal CAS. Chairs will be provided for the auditorium's capacity of 650 people. In accordance with fire regulations, no standing will be permitted.

Movie-goers are reminded to see the show only during the session designated previously; otherwise, some may be unable to attend. Everyone's full cooperation is absolutely necessary in order to continue showing the movies indoors.

Gila Receives Gifts By Mail

Jolly Saint Nick will not forget his stop at Gila on Christmas Eve.

Because of an overladen sleigh, many of his gifts have been sent by mail to his workshop in rec. 60.

These gifts have been possible through the efforts of various youth and church groups.

Pasadena alone, has sent 3000 gifts through the Rev. F. V. Nicholson,

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

STATE OKAYS BIG PROGRAM

The Arizona State Department of Vocational Training has approved $7,460 as an aid to the War Food Production Training Program to be conducted on the project after January 11 said W.C. "Tom" Sawyer, superintendent of education.

This will be a renewal of the program suspended in November, 1943.

The variety of classes will depend upon the enrollment.

Some of the classes which may be held are those for the operation, care and repair of tractors, trucks, and automobile

NAVY SCHOOL NEEDS WORKERS

Glenn W. Shaw, director of the Navy Language School at the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colo., writes that the Navy School of Oriental languages wishes to enlarge its teaching staff.

Shaw plans to visit the centers personally in order to discuss this type of employment with any interested persons. Gila residents who are interested in employment at the University of Colorado in language work are asked to notify the Canal or Butte relocation offices so that Shaw may be advised of their interest.

The Boulder school has been in operation for over two years. Persons employed as instructors will serve only in a civilian capacity. Several former Gila residents are now members of its staff.

ANTI UN-AMERICAN ACT

(From the Milwaukee Journal, Dec. 5, 1944)

"There is nothing very American about that American Legion post in the Hood River valley of Oregon which removed from its war memorial the names of 16 Americans of Japanese ancestry now serving in the United States army. Some of those men are overseas and at the battle fronts.

"We are sure this is not in the spirit of the legion as a whole, and we hope the national organization will do something about it, even though it does try to leave its posts as autonomous as possible."

"This matter involves the future of the legion, which wants to bring the boys of this war into its organization. Well, they are not fighting for the kind of thing the Hood River post has done. Ask any one of them who comes back. He'll tell you America's racial prejudices must be corrected. He is not likely to come into any organization which, because of such prejudice, erases the names of loyal Americans--whatever their color or their ancestry--from its rolls."

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM NATIONAL YWCA

The following Christmas message to residents of relocation centers was written by the National Young Women's Christian Association. The Committee on Resettlement of Japanese Americans in New York received the message too late to include in its Bulletin and requests that it be printed in the center papers.

THE STAR SHINES

"The Christmas star shines in the sky, beautiful and eternal. Clouds may cluster and hide the steady light, but only for a time.

"We can doubt, even in this world's deep grief of war and dreadful desolation, that some day we shall learn to walk a brighter path together--all the people of this earth.

HOPES FOR BETTER YEARS

"To all of you, our Japanese American friends in relocation centers, the Young Women's Christian Association sends very special greeting. Before we raise our eyes another year toward the Christmas sky we dare to hope with you that these valiant ones who have fought our battle on far-flung fields can be coming back--not to fences which shuts away, but to American communities across this land and to American homes warmed with sturdy faith and courage, with neighborliness and shining dreams of the future.

"Christmas joy we send to you, and high hopes for a New Year that shall be life's best."

GENERAL AUTHORIZES TRAVEL WITHOUT ESCORT

The Commanding General

of the Western Defense Command has authorized travel without an escort between the Gila River Relocation Center and eastern points by the Southern Pacific Railroad via Chandler and Tucson, Ariz.

Travel has also been authorized without an escort between Klamath Falls, Ore., and the Tule Lake Center; between Reno, Nev., and the Manzanar Relocation Center; between the Manzanar Center and the Colorado River Relocation Center; between the Colorado River Center and the Gila River Relocation Center via A.T. and S.P. Railroad.

This arrangement will be especially beneficial to those persons relocating in the West and Middle West, since it will eliminate delays en route in Phoenix and Ashfork, Ariz.

which have previously been necessary.

Persons now relocating to Eastern points may leave from Chandler, Ariz., any day of the week on the 4 a.m.

all-coach train. A saving of nearly 24 hours travel time between Rivers and Chicago will result, since no stopovers or changing trains will be necessary between Chandler and Chicago.

BASKETBALL

Teams Respond for Tournament

Interest in getting under way with the 1944 season of the fast sports basketball, has been shown by the many quintets that responded to the call for teams to take part in the Christmas Holiday Consolation Tournament.

The rules and regulations will be drawn up soon with the following teams ready to take part: Bronco Ayes, Olympic Club, Block 49-54, Gila Indians, Li'l Gus, Five Brands, Block 66, Don Junior, Bronco Boys, Cubs, Vagabond Eight Ball and Outcast.

Li'l Gus Cagers Show Vigor and Material

(Heyh it is! Your fourth of a series of sum-ups of the casaba quintets ready for action in the Aye League.)

With lots of vigor and material is the Li'l Gus aggregation, which is a team consisting of players who saw action last year on the spirited Li'l Gus quintet which fought its way to a three way tie for the Bee title and lost out in the playoff and other new additions who saw action on various teams.

Temporarily coached by Takashi Fukuda, who is also a member of the scrappy five, the Li'l Gus team

LISTEN CHILUN, YOU SHALL HEAR

With mingled expressions the students of Butto High bade farewell this week to their most indispendable friend and foe.

With annoying clamor it has summoned students to school. Often times, with mocking sound, it has warned students of exams, and also released bored students from classes. Its voice reaches its highest beauty when it releases many from the "prison" called schools.

In its place, a monotonous and modern device has been installed.

Butto High has installed in the place of a rusty gong, electric bells.

ALL SOUTHWESTERN TEAM CHOSEN: SHIMASAKI SPARKS

The All-Southwestern team has been chosen among the managers and coaches of the Southwestern teams on the all-opponent basis. The Butto High Eagles dominated the selections by placing five on the first string.

Voted as the most valuable player of the Southwestern League was Shogen Shimasaki, deceptive triple threat half-back for the Ramblers, who has become eligible for some sort of distinguished award.

Along with a first string of All-Southwestern gridsters, seven honorable mentions were listed. The cream of the all league players and others making the honorable mention list were:

Left End: Shig Kawata Eagles

Left Guard: Yosh Akiyama Nagles

Center: George Yoshihara Bobcats

Right Guard: Mits Komatsu Ramblers

Right Tackle: Masami Kawamura Yellow-jackets

Right End: Right Tacko Jim Kataoka Eagles

Backs: Taka Hamamoto Ramblers

Teruo Katayama Eagles

Charlie Yamaguchi Eagles

Shogen Shimasaki Ramblers

Teruo Kozaki Yellow-jackets

Eddie Ushiro Yellow-jackets

Most Valuable Player: Shogen Shimasaki Ramblers

HONORABLE MENTIONS:

Larry Iwasaki, Butch Inouye-Yellowjackets; Shioichi Hotta, Eddie Akizuki, Yukio Masai-Ramblers; Joe Hanashiro, Ed Nishi-Canal Hi.

MANAGERS TO MEET MONDAY

There will be an important managers meeting of all the managers and coaches of the teams entered to see competition in the Christmas Holiday Consolation Tournament this coming Monday, December 18 at 7:00 p.m. at the CAS office, located at Rec. Hall 51.

All concerned are requested to appear on the specific date, time and place.

has yet to show what it has in the Aye League. Yoshiaki Hazama, last season's all-star Bee League guard, is acting as the player-manager for this quintet which represents the pride of the NEWS-COURIER staff.

Built around the steady forward who played for the Solons last season, Takashi Fukuda; Frank Tanaka, Yoshiaki Hazama, Moon Kikuchi, and Kiyo Nagai will fill in the other posts. Standing by, ready for action and rounding off this varietal cage aggregation will be Itto Yamuchi, Nat Takashita, John Suzuki, Mrs. Minami, William Nakatani, and Tom Nakano.

Coolidge Team To Visit Canal

The Coolidge High School varsity and "B" teams are scheduled to invade Canal High Thursday, December 28 for a cage tussle with the cream of the Canal High prepsters in the new Canal gymnasium, if it is completed, according to the Canal High School's HI TIDE.
