Intermountain District Meet

Topping discussions to be held at the forthcoming JACL Intermountain District Council meeting set for Pocatello on Sunday, Jan. 21, is the expected in-flux of Japanese evacuoes in this area and possible advorse offects.

Sentiment is strong in JACL that sacrifices of Nisei soldiers will avail little unless friendlier receptibility at home is cultivated. Benefits for war voterans and their return to normal living will bo considered.

Making use of state college, experimental stations, and department agriculture facilities are the subject of proposals for sectional conferences for Issei and Nisei farmers.

Of major importance will be JACL President Saburo Kido's report of the San Francisco conferonce called by the Committee on Amorican Principles and Fair Play for Jan. 10.

Other paramount issues and information on WRA policies are stated for discussion, according to Tom Hatakeda, Pocatello chapter president who is host for the Internountain District Council delegates following are excerpts from S/Sgt. Herbert Sasaki's letter to Frank C. Sasaki of Canal:

"We took up a collect tion of extra candy among the boys to fix up little Christmas presents for these unfortunate French children around here. don't imagine Christ mas would be much for them without candy. France and Italy seem to be alike regarding the food situation --- no sugar, candy, butter, cocoa, etc. Italy is in much worse condition than France but that can be understood. People in the U.S. have never seen the misery and suffering that war has caused over here. In fact, very few of thom are even concerned.

FAIR PLAY URGED

Pleas for fair treatment of and tolerance toward Japanese-Americans returning to California are heard from all parts of the West Coast, despite the islands protest from places like Marysville, Calif.; Hood River, Ore.; and the state Grange.

District Attorney Walter C. Haight of Visalia cautioned members of the Tulare County Peace Officers Assoc. to exercise common sense, tolerance, and an understanding of the rights of American citizens in dealing with returning Japanese Americans. EQUAL PROTECTION

A state advisory committee on law enforcement in Sacramento reaffirmed a previously adopted resolution "to co-operate with Army authorities in dealing with the return of the Japanese residents of this state. All persons, regardless of race, are entitled to the full protection of the law."

Last week, an address before the City Commons Club of Borkeley, Dr. Monroe E. Deutsch, vice president the University of California, stated that West Coast residents must differentiate between Japanese in Japan and Americans of Japanese ancestry here.
MONROE DEUTSCH SPEAKS

"Cortain Americans charge that we cannot read a Japanese mind. I ask them, 'Can you read any mind?' We judge people by words and deeds and so we must judge the Japanese. It is not so long ago that the West Coast was demanding that the Chinese must go."

He said that 100,000 persons of Japanese ancestry, evacuated from the west Coast, are entitled to rights. under the U.S. Constitution as upheld by the Supreme Court. He said that the losses of Japanese from evacuation is estimated at millions of dollars.

"Besides these evecues were put in concentration camps surrounded by barbed wire and soldiers. They were granted only the poorest food and the smallest compensation for their services. Previously, they had lived here for years. They had become Americans in spirit. They had gone to our schools and colleges and tho second and succeeding generations had become adjusted to our American standard of living. They associated on friendly terms with others."

Dr. Deutsch also cited the excellent war record of Nisei in the armed forces.
