BRONZE STAR

OKUMURA GIVEN OAK LEAF AWARD

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, ITALY -- S/Sgt. Masahar u Okumura, formerly of Santa Barbara, Calif., recently was awarded the Bronzo Sthr with Oak loaf cluster for valorous conduct in action with the 442nd Japanese American Combat Team

Okumura received his Bronze Star with Oak leaf cluster from the 92 n d "Buffalo" Division's commanding general, Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond, at a special Fifth Army parade and awards coremony at Novi, Italy.

The citation with the award reads, in part:

"Whon two riflemen on a combat patrol were severely wounded 2 5 yards from an enemy strongpoint in the outskirts of Le Petit Paris, France. Serdisregard for his personal safety, crawled to the aid of the two wounded soldiers. He administere d first aid and dragged them to cover, then crawled back under fire to his place in the attack. Later, during the withdrawal, h o came across his officer who was seriously wounded in the head. Sergeant Okumura sent his men ahead to a safer position while he remained to administer first aid.

He remained with his wounded officer for six hours until counterattacks permitted safe withdrawal. His courage and initiative were examplary and a credit to the Armed Forces of the United States.

CALL FOR WORKERS

The following letter was sent to the project from the mayor of Springfield, Ill.

A LETTER

"About four months a o Charles G. McCallister of the War Relocation Agency in Hartford, Connecticut came of Springfield to seek the assistance of the community in relocating loyal Japanese Americans in the Springfield area. A competent committee was chosen and despite some initial, uncontrolled unfavorable publicity, the committee has met with censiderable success in proparing the community for recoption for some of the dislocated titizens.

"Approximately twenty - eight offers of jobs have been received to date, including positions as farmers, houseman and housewife, shoe cobblers, and even offers of small neighborhood businessos. The local Morris flan bank has offered to furnish financial assistance in taking over small neighborhood businesses.

RESETTLER MAKES LAND PURCHASE

The first purchase of rural property in Wisconsin by resettlers was made by the Utaro Shimasaki family of Auburn, Wash., and Heart Mountain, which recently acquired a 20-acre farm on the outskirts of Madison.

The purchase was made by William Shimasaki, Nisei employee of the Department of Interior's local Geological Survey office, but it could have been made as well if his father, as Wisconsin has no alien land laws.

"I believe we could have purchased more a d-vantageously, from a financial standpoint, farther out in the country," the older Shimasaki said, "but we felt it was more important to be near the University of Wisconsin and the Madison schools."

Evacuee Wins Fashion Honor

In a recent fashion contest in Chicago, Miss Akiko Saito, formerly of Modford, Gregon, and Tule Lake, won the Kay Ratto prize for a watermelon wool tress of afchitectural simplicity. Miss Saito is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kanai Saito of Minidoka.

"Original and unusual in design, the dress featured top stitched panels covering the underpart of the sleeves and the sides of the dress," according to the Chicago Tribune of June 15. "A semi-yoke of one piece formed a tailored neckline, slit in front to allow the swagger of an ascot."

Miss Saito is a student at the Art Institute where the Institute's annual fashion show was held with students acting in a three-in-one role of designer, dressmaker and mannequin.
