

USE ONLY ENGLISH ON PACKAGES

Because of the confusion which arises when Japanese writing is present on parcel post packages, despite the fact that the writing may merely indicate the name of the addressee, residents are requested by the Post Office to refrain from the practice.

Residents are asked to limit writing on packages to the names and residences of the addressor and addressee in legible English.

It was further explained that Japanese writing on packages may be confused and considered as first class mail.

COUNCIL HEARS TALK ON CO-OP

E. W. Rector, auditor of the Northwest Co-operative Auditor and Services association, and Sulo Laakso, WRA Community Enterprises superintendent, appeared at the Council meeting last Monday afternoon and delivered a comprehensive talk on co-operative enterprises.

Rector's discourse included a brief history of the co-operatives and an analysis of its working principles. Laakso, citing several examples of successful enterprises now in existence, revealed that the present conditions in Topaz justify the unanimous support of the Co-op.

"The Ordinance of the Community of Topaz," submitted by James Nishimura, was approved at the meeting.

Ray Kaneko was introduced as the new councilman from Block 4.

SCOUT COUNCIL TO BE INDUCTED

Inauguration of the Topaz Scout Council will be held on Monday from 8 PM at Rec 42. Chief executive A.A. Anderson of the National Parks Council will officiate at the ceremony.

Besides the ceremony itself, the evening's program will include exhibit of scout handicraft and demonstration.

After the inauguration, a short operation committee meeting will be held.

instead of Rec 20, it was announced today.

All Buddhists who have spare time during the afternoons and evenings are also asked to come to Rec 28 to help make artificial flowers for the coming festival.

REBATES GIVEN ON MONTGOMERY WARD PURCHASES

Residents who purchased goods from the Montgomery Ward Company through the Topaz Consumer Enterprises will receive a patronage rebate of 5% for their November and December purchases, it was announced today.

Those who wish to secure rebates should bring their Co-operative membership certificates and, if possible, bills from the Montgomery Ward Company, today. Paying of such rebates started Thursday. There are no rebates on Sears Roebuck purchases, it was added.

According to George S. Matsumoto, who is in charge of rebates, there are still a large number of residents who have not secured their canteen rebates for the last quarter. They are asked to come to the Co-op office and receive their cash rebates before the end of March.
