Approximately 30 tons of mature cantaloupes and 600 lugs of tomatoes were lost when the season's first killing frost struck the center farms early Wednesday morning.

FIRE CAUSES $50 damages to room

A fire started by a miscellaneous lot of combustible material piled between a hot stove and wall caused 50 dollars in damages to the apartment of Hideo Ura, 1-1-A, Tuesday, at 2:15 PM, the fire department reported.

Preparing for the cold weather, the fire department inspectors will visit each apartment soon to instruct residents on the use and care of the stoves, Samuel Owen, section head, stated.

Persons with faul ty stoves should report them to their block managers so that repairs may be made by the maintenance workmen.

Damages, however, were limited as some 200 lugs of tomatoes and 17 tons of cantaloupes were bicked by 200 11th and 12th grade high school students during Tuesday afternoon.

In addition, the regular farm section crews harvested 25 tons of cantaloupes and all of the mature eggolants, peppers, cucumbers and green beans before the frost.

CREW WORKS HARD

Vernon Ichisaka, Senichiro Ohye, Wendell Palmer, Alden S. Adams, George McColm worked until after midnight Tuesday to heul in all of the harvested produce to the center.

Hardy crops including celery, onion, daikon, cabbage and broccoli were not affected.

HARVEST CONTINUES

Harvest work has been continuing since yesterday by both high school students and regular workers to save all salvageable fruits and vegetables, Mc-Colm stated.
