ERNST COMMENTS ON NISEI DRAFT

When I heard the broadcast Thursday night reporting that the War Department had announced the re-institution of selective service procedures for Americans of Japanese ancestry, I had a feeling that now Topaz was an active part of the United States. And when I recalled that it was just about a year ago that this chance to regain status was one of the hopes held out for the volunteers I got that feeling that comes from any successful accomplishment.

And so it will continue that the American Japanese of tomorrow will owe a debt of gratitude to the nisei of today.

WINTER CARNIVAL SET IN FEBRUARY

To raise funds for the yearbook, a winter carnival will be sponsored on February 5 and 6 in the auditorium by the high school. All campus organizations will participate.

A talent show under the direction of Mako Takahashi and Yutaka Yoshida will be presented along with the regular carnival concessions and games. A door prize will be given.

Advisors for the affair are Hash Hashiguchi, Miss Shervey Sharvy and Chojuro Numajiri.

ART WORK EXHIBITED

A water color painting and several pencil sketches by Miss Nuiko Haramaki, former Topaz resident, were shown at the Boston Adult Education center. Miss Haramaki is planning to enroll in the Vesper George Art School this month, it was stated.

RELOCATION DISCUSSIONS TO BE RESUMED TUESDAY

GRADUATION

52 STUDENTS GET DIPLOMAS

Attired in navy blue and white caps and gowns, 52 high school seniors received their diplomas last night at the first graduation ceremonies held in the new auditorium.

Yoshio Fujita, chairman of the program, introduced the two commencement speakers, Harry Kitano and Helen Fukui who spoke on the theme, "Build the Peace of All Nations Upon the Youth of Today".

A trio composed of Chizu Ishida, May Hayashida and Fumi Manabe sang two selections. The exercises closed with the singing of the class hymn, "Song of Peace", by the graduates. Kaoru Inouye was the guest soloist.

TULE PAY CHECKS DELAY EXPLAINED

Former residents of Tule Lake now residing here are requested by Director Best of Tule to refrain from writing for their clothing allowances and pay checks which are due them.

Best explained in a letter to Charles F. Ernst, project director, that a shortage of office help is causing the delay.

All clothing allowances and pay checks will be forwarded to ex-Tuleans as soon as they are prepared, Best declared.

BIRTHDAY BALL GROUP TO HOLD MEET MON.

Members of the President's Birthday Ball committee composed of appointive and resident representatives will hold a meeting in the administrative rec hall this Monday afternoon from 5 o'clock, it was announced today.

Relocation discussions with another 100 families will be resumed from next Tuesday, according to Claud Pratt, acting senior counsellor.

As in the first series of interviews conducted several weeks ago, families with members already relocated will be interviewed during next week.

It is hoped that discussions with the remaining families in camp will be conducted after next week, Pratt stated.

He also said that interviewing teams will be increased soon with expectations of completing all family discussions within 3 months.

5 FAMILIES TO LEAVE SUNDAY

Five families will depart for the Crystal City internment camp in Texas to join their interned relatives tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Residents leaving include Mrs. Yuka Abe and her daughters, Sophie and Hana; Mrs. Shinko Fukuda and her children, Michisuke, Nobusuke, Saburo, Yoshio, Makiko, Hiroshi, and Koichi; Manjiro Masuda; Mrs. Akiko Inouye and her sons, Tsuneko and Akio; and Mrs. Tane Inouye; Mrs. Chi-yoko Ishida, and her children, Hidemaro, Taeko, Noriko, Kunimaro, and Renko; Hiko Saito; and Mrs. Nobu Tanimura and her son Takayuki.

This is the second group to leave Topaz for the Texas camp. The first left last June, it was disclosed.

Y MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

With the goal set for 100 members, the Topaz YMCA will launch a membership drive, beginning Monday, according to the executive board.

BLOCK 16 FIRE

Quick action in extinguishing a blaze in the block 16 men's shower room by Goichi Nakadoi, 16-3-A, prevented a possible serious fire early yesterday morning, the fire department reported.

The blaze, caused by an overheated stove, was discovered about 3 AM. Damaged property amounted to less than five dollars.

RESIDENTS DONATE $80 TO BLOCK 29

Sixteen residents of block 29, who returned from seasonal work, donated a total of $80 to the block fund recently.

Contributors were Teruko Adachi, Mochiu Ishida, Masaru Ishida, Sodatsu Ishida, Sam Ishimoto, Jack Izuka, Virginia Kawakami, Akira Mizoguchi, Kingi Okada, Toshi Okada, Musky Saito, Min Shinoda, Ken Takahashi, Midori Takahashi and Kasaki Yamashita.

LOST: Silver identification bracelet with name Bob Ota engraved on it. If found return to Porky Kajiwara at relocation office.

HOMEROOM CLASSES

Beginning with the new semester each student will be enrolled in a 35-minute homeroom-guidance period. The homeroom teacher will be directly concerned with the welfare and progress in every aspect of school work of each pupil in her class.

Parents may consult the homeroom teachers on any matter concerning their children or school, according to Victor Goertzel, director of guidance at the high school.

NEW COURSES

New courses to be offered for the first time this semester include business English and office practice in the commercial department; sociology and psychology for seniors in the social studies department; orchestra, band and library training.

WELL BABY CLINICS TO BE SET UP IN MESS HALLS

Arrangements have been made to set up well baby clinics periodically in specified dining halls instead of at the hospital, it was announced today by Dr. J. A. Simpson, chief medical officer. The new plan went into effect this Tuesday.

The schedule for these well baby conferences is as follows: blocks 1, 3, 4, 8, 9, 10, 11, 16 at dining hall 10 on the first Tuesday of each month; 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 19, 20, at dining hall 13 on the second Tuesday; 26, 27, 28, 33, 34, 35, 40, 41, 42 at dining hall 34 on the third Tuesday; and 22, 23, 29, 30, 31, 36, 37, 38, 39, at dining hall 30 on the fourth Tuesday.

Appointments will be sent to the mothers as the clinic dates occur or will be issued to the mothers at the time of their visit.

INTER-FAITH OFFICE MOVES

The Inter-Faith office moved this week from its former location at rec 33 to rec 2. The Protestant and Buddhist church offices and the Inter-Faith library are now located there.

BRIDGE CLUB MEET

The first meeting to reorganize the Topaz Bridge Club will be held tonight in rec 23 from 7 o'clock.

Instruction classes for beginners will be taught by K. Takeuchi, it was reported.

YONE TAKEDA WEDS K. KARIYA

Miss Yoneko Takeda, second daughter of Mrs. Raku Takeda, 33-3-D, married Kazuo Kariya last Saturday in Cleveland, it was disclosed here.

The new Mrs. Kariya is a former San Franciscan. Her husband, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Taichi Kariya, 30-9-E, is a former resident of Palo Alto.

Baishakunin were Mr. and Mrs. Isaku Tanaka.

Art School Adds Two Teachers

Yerabu Mikami and Chikaji Kawakami, two distinguished artists in water color and Japanese style painting, were added to the Topaz Art School faculty this week. Mikami, director, reported today.

Mikami will start teaching from March 1. Kawakami's classes will open next week.

A class in basic English will be conducted in the art school each morning from next week. Those interested should register at rec 7.

ENGLISH CLASS BEGINS

A new basic English class began Monday at rec 23 with Mrs. Ida Ishikawa as instructor, the adult education section stated.

Classes meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

MAIDEN SWOONERS MAKE CAGE DEBUT, DEFEAT FILLMORE

The Maiden Swooners, a group of stellar Topaz basketball players, made their cage debut Thursday evening at Fillmore, edging out an all-star aggregation, 30 to 29, in proper Hollywood fashion.

Trailing at the end of the half, 19-10, the self-styled lady killers who were stumped by the rangier Fillmore-ites turned the tables on their towering opponents in the final periods.

Adapting a machine-like offense which baffled the losers, the "wolves" whittled the score. In a thrilling story-book finish, the Swooners swooshed the winning bucket in the last few seconds to down the Fillmore quintet.

Players for the Swooners were Don Takahashi 3, Moto Takahashi 4, Tad Horita 3, Echi Suzuki 4, Hideo Hashimoto 4, Grog Nagasawa 3, Ziggy Akahoshi 3, Frank Ogi 2, Konji Hosokawa 4, and Miko Yoshimine.

DR. GOODMAN LEAVES

Dr. Joseph Goodman, director of athletics at the high school, is leaving the project today for California. Harold E. Carlson, biology teacher, will take over the position left by Dr. Goodman.

Inter-Block Sked Released

Next Tuesday's inter-block cage games will be held on Wednesday night due to the Japanese movie being scheduled for Tuesday, according to Mits Saito, director.

The only changes for this week end's clashes are the #29-#38 and #3-#10 frays. The latter tussle will be played this evening while the former fracas is moved to Sunday.

Following are the tilts slated for the week end and for next week:

- SATURDAY AFTERNOON
 2:00--26 vs 34 (Eastern)
 2:45--4 vs 13 (Northern)
 3:30--51 vs 39 (National)
 4:15--1 vs 16 (Western)

BLOCK 1 HOOPSTERS TRIM RUGGED BLOCK 9 QUINTET

With Terry Watanabe and Iggy Yoshimura taking turns ringing the basket, the block 1 casabans laced the block 9 hoopsters, 24-16, in an American league fracas Thursday night.

Rangy Watanabe peppered the hoop for 12 points while Yoshimura garnered 9 tallies for the victors.

In the second half, paced by Yosh Yamada, the block 9 squad came within 3 points of knotting the count, 19-16, but the ex-Tuleans quickly pushed in 2 buckets and a foul toss to clinch the fracas.

BLOCK 1: Rui Kawamoto, Min Shimada, Randy Sasaki, Iggy Yoshimura, Terry Watanabe, Taxi Hironaka, and Ernie Kikuchi.

BLOCK 9: Mas Yamada, Yosh Yamada, Sam Yamanaka, Tad Moriwaka, Harry Nakagawa, Toru Ishiyama, Ken Nihei, George Okamoto, Isao Baba, and Al Okamoto.

In the opening inter-block basketball tilt Thursday night at the gym, the block 36 caregivers defeated block 38 (Southern loop), 15 to 12. Tad Tanaka and Pete Kitagawa of the winners copped scoring honors with 4 points.

In a Western league clash, block 10 soundly thumped the hapless block 9 melon tossers, 29 to 1, in a one-sided comedy-of-errors game which had the crowd practically rolling on the floor with laughter. Tom Iwasaki, Chet Horizono and Toby Hirabayashi led the victors with 8, 6, and 5 points respectively.

In a rugged brawl full of fouls, block 12 outrassled block 5, 19 to 6, in a Northern league tussle. Kaz Inouye and Yosh Isono paced the #12 punctuation marks with 5 and 4 tallies respectively.
