NEW ORLEANS HAS ABUNDANT OPPORTUNITIES FOR ISSEI, NISEI RELOCATORS; ARNE SAYS

"The New Orleans district is full of opportunities for both issei and nisei and public acceptance is good," R.E. Arne, New Orleans district relocation officer, said today.

"We have had numbers of evseeue visitors and so far none have encountered unfavorable prejudice," Arne said in an interview. "Louisiana has groups of persons of Japanese ancestry who have lived there many years and without exception they have been successful," he added.

"There is a great dearth of laundries in our district and there is room for cleaning, pressing, tailoring and dress making establishments, art shops, rooming houses and truck farms. There is hardly a town of any size that could not support a good restaurant and one or more fruit markets.

"Flower growing is wide open. Louisiana florists import nearly all their cut flowers from Chicago, California and other points, and use a great quantity. Practically all flowers thrive in our climate and our camellias are unexcelled."

The education section has developed plans to close the elementary and the high school on June 1, announced Dr. LeGrande Noble, superintendent of education.

Approximately 1336 students now enrolled in the primary and secondary school will gradually relocate to outside high schools and colleges. Already 25 students have transferred to outside schools since January 1. No summer school is contemplated.

Since Topaz high school is under the education board of Utah which is a member of the Northwest secondary and higher institute association, there will be no doubt that the student's credits will be accepted by all high schools and colleges in United States as it has been done during the past.

A memorandum regarding draft classification cards more than six months old has been directed to block managers by Paul McConnel, head of the local selective service board.

Hillman Davis, chairman of the Millard County draft board, is quoted as stating it is the duty of draft boards to issue new cards each six months and that the date, on a selective service registrant's classification card should not cause him any concern as long as he is not attempting to evade his local board.

If a registrant carrying an outdated card is detained the worst that can happen to him would be detention until his local board is contacted by telegram to determine his status.

HARDEST FIGHT STILL AHEAD

Neting a new "major offensive in Italy by General Clark's "polyglot" armies which include Japanese Americans, an editorial in the April 11 issue of the New York Times states:

"No soldiers we have sent abroad have a more distinguished record than these Nisei. On the record none surpasses them in loyalty, devotion or courage....."

"Most of the Nisei want to fight in the Pacific... They have won every fight they have been in. But their hardest fight is still ahead and may outlast the war. It is the fight against prejudice roused by color of skin and slant of eye. It is easy to admire them while they are still in uniform. It would be kinder to remember and reward them when the battle is over."

Fires have been recently started by small children playing with matches, according to C.R. Roraback, fire protection officer.

To safeguard against a serious fire, parents are asked to make sure that small children do not obtain matches for playthings.

Time magazine, April 16, issue finds Seattle's Promoter Arthur J. Ritchie with a new idea: "why not band the nation's Japanese-haters together and put the whole business on a paying basis?" Ritchie and his friend, A.E. McCroskey, helping along the Oregon Property Owners' Protective league, are charging $10 initiation fees, $1 a month dues and have hundreds of paying members.

Time quotes Ritchie: "Dues go into a fund to wage a continuous education campaign. We'll hire lobbyists, lawyers... get a constitutional amendment to take the Japs' citizenship away and move them out."

Ministers were "appalled", but to "west coast hotheads," the news that henceforth there will be a slight fee (for hating US Japanese) just seemed to make it official.
