RANDOM THOUGHTS

The biggest problem of the month--draft. Yessir, somebody ought to shut the door and the window. Speaking of drafts, the only solution to this problem is to get a better apartment--(Why, the engineer who designed these apartments must've been sick).

The revealing of the "Jap atrocity" brought many varied reactions from the public. 50 evacuees from the relocation centers donated their blood to the blood bank in "indignation against the inhumane treatment given to our boys"... While John W. Vandercook harped on the fact that no matter what happens, by the American principle, no Japanese prisoners will be treated inhumanely. While others hearing of the almost "fairy tale" like story shrugged their shoulders and quipped, "Is that sooo?"

This summer should bring the "death" of the centers with expatriation, relocation, and draft exacting the toll. Sad parting will take place again....

Seems like it's "quite busy" in the Administration building now, as in one case a messenger hasn't even got time to get a haircut. It's not the long hour he's complaining and, of course the hair doesn't grow after a certain limit, but he does like to keep his car open, to hear. The note, pleez! No shame, no nothing!

Valentine is approaching and those greetings sent with flushes and bluches will be sent with tears and "sad smiles" this year.

February brings the birthday of two great and "honest" presidents, Lincoln and Washington. But it seems like they weren't so honest 'cause they used to close the banks on their birthdays', remember? ah..

Before sneers and looks start flying... this writer, as a lady would bring her clothes to a line, bring this line to a close.....

MUTES, YANKS, YELLOW GHOSTS, VICTORIOUS IN FIRST ROUND

Mutineers Win Bussei Opener

by hiro okumura

In the opening game of the Bussei tournament the Mutineers led by its port-side forward Haj Kayano swept through the Rebels 37 to 23.

The Rebels early lead was overtaken by the fast stepping Mutineers in the early part of the game which they never relinquished. Fast breaks, tight defense, and the backboard control by the youthful Mutes spelled defeat for the hard fighting Rebels. Together with their fast breaks, the precision shots by Masaroot Shibata and Tada Q. Endo kept the opponents in hot water through out the afternoon.

Leading the courageous Rebel attack were Frank Kamibayashi and Sammy Ichiba who notted 6 points each.

Yanks Slaughter Strong Cards

by tsukasa matsueda

Utilizing every knowledge of basketball, the tall and youthful Yanks mangled the hapless helpless Cards before a gapping crowd of 500 last Sunday. Well coached Fred Ito quintet taking advantage of longer practice, never relinquished its early lead.

Knocking on all its 5 cylinders, the Yanks literally poured it on in the 2nd and the 3rd quarters, while being led by colorful Mike Takeuchi, holding the ace Card forward Tak Kawagoe to a more 5 points, he himself "rubbing the cotton" for 13 points. Hosen Oshita playing his usually fine game, led the scoring parade with 14 digits but the surprise player of the afternoon was Don Hisaka whose sparkling performance was well worth watching.

The bright spot for the Cardinal quintet was "Sad" Baishiki whose scoring threat dealt a denting blow to the opponent. Supported by Sanji Fukuyama and Tak Kawagoe, the Cards briefly rallied in the 3rd quarter but they could not keep pace with the fast breaking Yanks.
