

Mrs. Norman Kobayashi Tells Opinion Of California Trip

Just back from a short business trip to her home town, Gardena, Cal., Mrs. Norman Kobayashi of Block 38 opined that the sentiment of the common people of Southern California was not good toward those of Japanese ancestry. On the other hand, personal friends, and those educated, were more than understanding, hospitable and kind, inviting her to luncheons, offering accommodations, and thinking of her welfare.

While Mrs. Kobayashi emphasized that these were just her own opinions gathered during her brief visit to Gardena, Los Angeles, and vicinities, which took

NEW WORKER, WELFARE SECT.

Transferree from the Oswego Refugee Shelter in New York where she had been employed since its beginning, Bruriah Szapira arrived here Wednesday to join the Social Welfare personnel as junior counselor on Mr. Francel's staff.

Miss Szapira was originally from Pennsylvania and attended the School of Social Work at Bryn Mawr, college for women, there.

her away from Rohwer from the 3rd to the 22nd of November, she imparted that the crowding transient laborers, Mexicans, Negroes, Oklahomans, and others, abetted disfavor of return of evacuees. Three chief factors contributing to the unfavorable attitude were enumerated as economic interests, "anti" propaganda and family members in the Pacific theater of war. She felt that acceptance will be favorable after the war, but not likely until then.

It was a rainy stay, as Mrs. Kobayashi went about her business of disposing some property which was found most admirably stored by WRA. Striking her as singularly changed since pre-evacuation was the extremely congested condition, housing being so scarce that in one instance a family was seen making a 'gasoline station their home. Schools were overcrowded; teachers and doctors much too few. Her friends all asserted that evacuation hampered their supply of vegetables and flowers.

Mrs. Kobayashi's husband, Capt. Norman Kobayashi, is now stationed at a Medical hospital somewhere in France.

USO OPEN TO SERVICEMEN IN VISIT IN CTR.

The USO will hold open-house for soldiers on furlough in the Center tonight and tomorrow afternoon.

All servicemen are invited to attend.

A skating party in Euclid Roller Gardens was sponsored recently by the Lil' Daniel, an organization in Cleveland, with the proceeds going to the Rohwer USO.

Some 300 attended. Sponsors were Joe Kurata, Jack Yasuchika, Hi to Kaykako, Frank Sakamoto and Lucy Neko all from Rohwer and Joe Shigezama, Alice Ikeda, and Kay Uyeda from other centers.

Funds from the skating party have been used to purchase Christmas cards for servicemen.

The USO expresses its appreciation for donations from Pats. K. Mori, Toshiyuki, and Susumu Masataka, and Mr. and Mrs. Seiji Isomoto.

A novel social was held recently when the soldiers from Camp Blanding honored fellow GIs on visit from Fort Snelling in the USO hall.

USO activities will be spurred on anew.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL MINUTES

All food taken out of the warehouse will be counted against the 45¢ per day for a person allotment. Anything accumulated in mess hall storerooms will also be included in the allotment. Since July 1 a new ruling for food supply has been in effect. In order to check the unnecessary flow of food out of the warehouse and protect the welfare of the Center, a system to approve the requisitions for food by private groups or individuals must be created.

The food committee of the Council was authorized to investigate and grant or reject such requisitions for food.

The education committee met and has elected Lloyd Shingu as chairman.

The welfare committee which is planning the second Memorial service requested wreaths for the service. An Honor Roll Board is underway.

The Council unanimously approved the move to have additional members on the (Continued on Page 4)

PORTRAIT OF A GUY AT WORK

There is a column to be written, and so I slip a sheet of paper into my typewriter and wait for an inspiration to hit me. Generally, I have a red-hot idea or two whirling in my mind. But this is not one of those days.

So I sit there and gaze at the keyboard. Long years of typewriter composing have conditioned me, so that I just cannot think unless I sit in front of a typewriter and gaze at the keys. (My friends will tell you that I just cannot think, period. But that's beside the point.)

The phone rings, and a stern feminine voice sternly demands: "Well where is the column?" It's the editor! I tell her that I will have it in her office in an hour, though I know full well I won't.

I don my coat and stroll over to the canteen to pick up my morning paper. Perhaps I can pick up an idea for the column, too.

I rapidly scan the front page of the paper, hoping to run across something that might provide me with the much-needed inspiration, without success. The comic page isn't much help either.

Then I ask everybody in the place my usual, stock question: "What's new around here?" Back comes the usual, stock answer: "Nothing, absolutely nothing." Nothin' daunted, I button-hole every acquaintance that walks in and fire the same question, to no avail.

Then, after unsuccessfully trying to buy a pack of cigarets, I come back to the office and take my seat behind my typewriter again.

This time my boss shatters the silence: "Bean, do you have those West Coast news releases ready to send out?" Before I can reply, the phone bell saves me. It's the editor again. "Well," she wails, "where is the column?" "I'll have

MAIL BOX

To Residents of Rohwer,

Went through the first Thanksgiving in Nebraska; I thought it was going to be a dull one. But to show you how the people of the Mid-West are, there were 3 Caucasian families who tried to invite me at the same time. So I had to make a choice. Now I have two invitation to Christmas dinner. So you can see that the people of the Mid-West are very hospitable.

Although the temperature is around zero it's not too unbearable yet. So, residents, it's worth a try to come out and enjoy a free life.

Sincerely,
George Fukumoto

I don my coat again and stroll into Ad building one to see what I can learn from my typewriter-pounding friends in thoro. "What

Then I walk into Ad building two and do the same thing, with the same results. I come back to the office, sit down at the typewriter, and gaze at the keys again.

My boss is out. So I light a cigaret, put my feet on the desk, and lean back to concentrate. The phone rings once more. You're right; it's the editor again. "Well," she explodes, "where is the column?"

Generally, along about this time, as in this case, I have my column written. But it's not always as easy as this. Sometimes, I really have to "bleed" it out.

P.S. Honestly, now, just between you and me, wasn't that a hellish way to fill a column.

STORY OF NISEI GIVEN RACINE GIRL RESERVES

Racine, Wis.--Stressing the loyalty of the Japanese Americans to the United States, Mrs. George Isoda of Milwaukee was the main speaker at the Racine Girl Reserve conference on November 29. Mrs. Isoda is the sister-in-law of Ruth Isoda, former Rohwerite now in Racine.

Approximately 200 persons heard Mrs. Isoda tell the story of the evacuation, re settlement, and the double battle being fought by Nisei soldiers in the U.S. Army.

"Ni sei soldiers are fighting not only against the enemy but also against racial discrimination, in order that all of us Japanese Americans may have our parts in the future of this country."

"She certainly rang the bell," was one listener's comment.

Mrs. Isoda, is formerly of Los Angeles.
