Pfc. Kuroiwa is from Berkeley, Calif., where he was a nurseryman. He is 30 years old and has a baby daughter whom he has never seen.

DELEGATES FROM CHINA TO VISIT

A delegation of Chinese officials will visit the Rohwer Relocation Center, Project Director Ray D. Johnston announced today. They will arrive the evening of March 15 and remain until the afternoon of March 16.

The delegation includes R. K. Cheng, acting director of the Department of Welfare, Chi Kuo, director of Personnel Administration, P. C. Sun, director of Labor Control, and C. C. Yang, representative of the Ministry of Economic Affairs.

These men are in this country as result of a co-operative arrangement between United Nations Refugees and Rehabilitation culminating Saturday.

Administration and the Chinese Government. Their purpose is in visiting the center is to study various aspects of administration in connection with caring for large groups of displaced people. This group among the Caucasians will be approximately 40 Chinese who are in the United States to study conditions arising from the war.

USO OPENS

All visiting servicemen are reminded that the USO at the Rohwer Red Cross will be open Saturday and Sunday evenings. Hostesses with pictures of Rohwer to are urged to come out.

The awarding of a Presidential Distinguished Unit Citation to units of the 442nd Japanese American Combat Team was revealed in a press dispatch passed by the field press censor of SHAEF (Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces), the Pacific Citizen reported on Mar. 3.

The awarding of the Distinguished Unit Citation to the Japanese American group was disclosed in a routine dispatch which reported that 1st Lt. Edward J. Nilges, Fairview Village, O., had been promoted to the rank of Captain with the 442nd.

The article declared that "it was during the Alsace campaign that Captain, then Lieutenant, Nilges acted as the plans and operations officer for the Japanese American Task Force, which received a Presidential Citation as a Distinguished Unit for smashing the German main line of resistance in that sector."

(This report is the second on the awarding of a Presidential Distinguished Unit citation to a Japanese American unit of the U.S. Army. The 100th Infantry Battalion, incorporated as part of the 442nd Japanese American Combat Team, was awarded a Presidential Citation for actions near Sassetta, Italy, in June, with March designated as Red Cross month, Rohwer will do its share toward attaining the 1945 national goal of $200,000,000 when the Center Membership Drive begins Monday to culminate Saturday.

The Drive among the evacuees will take place in each block where two bat-Team is routing out the main line of German resistance in the Vosges mountains was reported in a Washington dispatch of the United Press in January.

This U.P. report told of the action of units of the Japanese American Com-team in routing out the enemy and paving the way for the liberation of two strategic lines. The Japanese Americans killed 80 Germans by small arms fire, with 200 to 350 more dead. Jerrys who were probably killed by artillery fire. Fifty-six Germans were taken prisoner.

The U.P. report stated that the Japanese American task force suffered only three casualties, two of which were only slightly wounded.

EXPORT-IMPORT MEN START BUSINESS NOW

New York-The steady growth of the business which Kay Kagayama formerly of Manzanar and Culver City, Cal., established here four months ago has convinced him that "export-import men should start their own business in New York City now, if they want to get back into foreign trade after the war," Kagayama said during a recent interview in the kitchen plant of his New York Plastics Company.

Within seven months after his arrival in New York, with no resources, he had established his present business after 355 Third Avenue was grossing $1,000 a week and shipping his products through jobbers to shops in New York, Chicago, and Hollywood. (Continued on page 4)

MAKE REPORTS IN ALL BLOCKS

Reports on the Salt Lake City Inter-Center conference which have been brought back by the three Rohwer delegates, Chester Fujino, LFoyd Shingu and Shintaro Ito, who returned Friday, will be passed on to the Center residents through their block managers and Councilmen.

The delegates' plans to hold a general meeting in the Auditorium have been abandoned because of difficulty in acquiring the Auditorium.

HOLD SENIOR HIGH PTA MEET MON. NITE

Parents with children going to Rohwer High School will assemble for the Senior High PTA meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in Mess hall.

One of the things that will be done is to sell Earl Finch on the Senior High PTA meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in Mess hall.

His invalid mother, Justine Finch, who needs a wheelchair, came down to pass out can-school principal, and Andy Thompson, superintendent, and received the student of Rohwer schools.

Starting work in a lapidary shop, he began making small plastic novelties at night. At the end of three months, having saved $500, Kageyama rented a shop, bought a quantity of plastic scrap from war plants in the district, and, doing all the work himself, began to gross $250 a week. Now, four months later, he has three men in his employ.
