E.B. MOULTON: MARRIAGE LAWS ARE REVISED

Due to the change in the marriage laws made at the recent session of the Arkansas General Assembly, effective immediately it will be necessary that applications for marriage licenses be made at least one week in advance of the ceremony, stated Mr. E. B. Moulton Community Management Chief today.

OBTAIN BIRTH CERTIFICATES FROM STATE OFFICIAL ONLY

It has been reported here that the Veterans Administration and other Government Agencies that require certified copies of birth certificates will no longer accept copies made by any person except the state official who has charge of the records. It is a waste of time to have the Notary Public in the Project Attorney's office make copies and certify birth certificates.

All those desiring copies of birth certificates from now on can procure them only from the following address:

Department of Public Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, 631 J St., Sacramento 14, Calif.

ROHWER SETS PACE FOR RELOCATION

Rohwer led all other centers with the largest number of people relocating during the week ending April 21. Terminal leaves issued here for that period totaled 136.

The next highest was Minidoka with 108, Heart Mountain with 91, and Granada with 77. From December 31 to April 21, 1945, there have been 6,451 terminal leaves from all centers: 1,489 of these returned to California, 310 to Washington, 256 to Oregon, 14 to Arizona and 4,352 to other states.

442ND IN OFFENSIVE

Washington D. C. - Members of the 442nd Infantry Regiment, composed of American doughboys of Japanese descent, are in the vanguard of the Fifth Army's great offensive which has smashed the German Army in northern Italy, the War Department reported today. Soldiers of this crack outfit came, for the most part, from Government re-

FOURTEEN TO REPORT FOR PRE INDUCTION

Fourteen local boys will report for their pre-induction physicals Monday.

Those leaving should be in front of their mess halls at 5 a.m., and will report to McGehee at 6:15.

Dedication To Be Held Tomorrow

The Honor Roll Board dedication, postponed from last Saturday because of the rain, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 regardless of the weather.

In case of rain, the program will be held in the Auditorium, otherwise it will be held by the Ad Building 1 garden as scheduled.

The program will remain unchanged.

The Eudora High School band is expected to arrive to play for the program.

DISCUSS PROBLEMS

First of a series of meetings dealing with resettlement information was held Thursday night at Block 26 for residents of blocks 23, 24, 25 and 26, with Mrs. Lou A. Stearns, E. B. Moulton (in the absence of Miss Miller), and Howard Kather leading the discussion.

Location camps in this country and from Hawaii.

Making sensational gains of 76 miles in five days, the 442nd took part in the capture of Genoa, Italy's largest seaport, on April 27, and then forged ahead to enter Turin, the last great city in the Po River Valley, on April 30. The 442nd entered Genoa along with the 473rd Infantry Regiment, which then swung around in a southwesterly direction. Both regiments are attached to the 92nd Infantry Division.

Activated on February 1, 1943, in response to request of many loyal American-born Japanese to serve in the Armed forces, the 442nd set a high standard of training at Camp Shelby, Mississippi. The Japanese Americans arrived in Italy late in May, 1944.

The famous Japanese American 100th Infantry Battalion, already fighting in Italy, and composed of former activated Hawaiian National Guardsmen, became the first Battalion of the new regiment. The 100th Battalion was one of the first Ground Units to receive the presidential Unit citation for fighting in Italy.

SIGN UP FOR FOURTH CAR TO CALIFORNIA

The next special car to California has been tentatively set for May 24. This car will leave only if enough residents sign up to fill the car to a reasonable capacity.

To date, about eleven persons have signed up for passage on a special coach.

The routing of this car will be St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Ogden, Sacramento.

The car will arrive in California on May 28. Residents must sign up with E. B. Brewster, Relocation adviser at the leaves office not later than May 17.

ONCE OVERS

by Bean Takeda

Wash. has been written on correct table manners and etiquette. But nobody, to my knowledge, has written anything on the correct things to say at the mess hall table.

I'm not referring to such procrustean words as "please pass the takuan" or "shoot the bread to me, Ed."

I'm talking about what kind of conversation to carry on while eating. This will promptly raise the question of whether or not it's proper to converse at the mess table, and I might as well dispose of it right here.

Personally, I like an informal air of conviviality around the mess table. There is nothing so depressing or awkward as eating one's meals in thick, glum silence.

Judging from the gloomy manner in which some people partake of their meals, you would think that eating was a grim chore, instead of the epicurean joy it is supposed to be.

Scientists state that food eaten in a pleasant, jovial atmosphere is much more digestible than the same food eaten in funereal surroundings.

Now then, having settled that little enigma beyond a doubt with my customary neatness and dispatch, let us go on with our disertation.

You sit down at the mess table, patiently bide your time while the waitress pours tea for you, then give a quick glance around the table to see who your dinner companions are.

Next you look down at your place to see what you have to eat. If it's one of those all-too-rare occasions when you have something good to eat, you probably will have already started in without bothering about the above preliminaries.

But let's say that you have fried baloney, as you (continued on page 4)

LEAVE CHAIRS AT HOME - MAILES

Since the seating capacity of the auditorium, in accordance with fire regulations, is 1280 persons, and since there are approximately that many chairs already there, Fire Chief John Mailes has asked that residents do not bring their own chairs to the Co-op free movie tonight, and tomorrow night, as announced in the last issue of the OUTPOST.

If this request is not complied with, it will be necessary to call off the showing of the movie, said Mailes.

As soon as the end of the war in Europe is verified the entire community will observe one minute of silence. This minute will be indicated by a short blast of the fire sirens followed by a bugle call. The end of the minute will be indicated in the same way. Every person at work, at home, or at play is expected to pause in complete silence during this minute.

A program for all persons not in school will be presented in the auditorium a few hours after notice of the end of the war.

Should the notice be given between 7 a.m. and 12 noon, the program will be at 4:30 p.m. of the same day. Should the notice be given between 12 noon and 7 a.m., the program will be at 10:30 a.m. of the next day.

Should the notice be given between Saturday noon and Sunday noon, the program will be at 4:00 p.m.

ONCE OVERS

(Continued from page 2) so often have these days. You're a bit hungry, so you gingerly taste one to see how it tastes, the past experience has taught you that fried baloney never tastes like anything but fried baloney.

After one bite of the stuff, you think that perhaps you're not so hungry as you had thought. You look around the table to see what else it has to offer.

You spot the rice at the other end of the table (it's always at the other end), and you ask for it. It's passed to you after a neat bit of lateral passing. You scoop some onto your plate, then look around for new worlds to conquer.

You see some spinach in front of you, and you shovel some of that on your plate.

Now you're ready to attack the food in an all-out offensive: You take one or two half-hearted bites, then lay down your fork because, by now, you are convinced that you are not hungry.

You turn to the guy next to you and attempt to draw him out in conversation. You ask him what he thinks of the European War, the Pacific war, the Civil war, the Spanish-American war, the weather, anything.

The only answer you get is: "Glub mumbo sullosky moona." He has his mouth too full of rice and baloney. You turn to the man on the other side and make the same brave attempt. He ignores your question and blithely continues eating.

So you clear your throat and make one final, desperate attempt at cracking this solid wall of silence. Addressing the girl in front of you, you ask jauntily: "Well, what's new with you?"

She looks at you with a half-surprised expression and asks: "Are you talking to me?"

You don't even bother to answer. You're finally convinced that your brilliant conversational wit is not appreciated at the mess table. You pick up your plate, still heaped high with baloney and rice and spinach, take it to the sink, and like the Arabs silently steal away.

Moral: at the mess table, so a sphynx.
