WELCOME

We are pleased to welcome our members, visitors and guests this morning. May the power of the Risen Christ strengthen your life in the days to come. Let us place our trust in Him.

Our speaker, the Rev. Toru Matsumoto, is a minister of the Reformed Church of America. As secretary of the Home Missions Council of North America, he is visiting the centers to serve the exiles. He is much interested in students and is secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation. We appreciate his coming here.

Baptism

There will be two baptismal services today. The non-immersion services will be conducted this morning following the Easter message. The immersion services will be held at PSH #2 from 4:00 p.m. We rejoice with our young people who have accepted Christ and who, in obedience to His command, will be baptized.

Baptism represents outwardly that change has taken place in the heart.

Everyone is cordially invited to witness these beautiful services.

Pageant Tonight

Be sure to come early tonight to see the inspirational pageant, "A New Spirit". Written by Dr. W. M. Garrett, and directed by Miss Elaine Cooper of the High School staff, the transforming power of the Old Rugged Cross will be depicted in five scenes. Special choir featuring Negro spirituals and our Easter choir will render fine music. Richard Higashi will be the violinist. The Girl Reserves will be the usherettes.

The curtain time is 7:30 p.m.

You are invited to bring your friends.

Thanks

For Easter greetings and offerings:
Sue Okamura, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Yuki Nakamichi; and Martha Yoshitake of Kirkwood, Missouri.

For thank offering:

Have you noticed how "homey" the church office has become? We are grateful to the CYF members led by Grace Shiraishi, president, and Edith Ann Griswold, and her hard-working committee for the splendid job done. Good books, magazines, and other center church papers are available. Come to read.

E A S T E R

If the Easter hope is true, one has a great philosophy that makes a drama out of life and are forever and forever open doors ahead. But if it is not true, then a closed door is the ultimate symbol of the universe, a closed door for every individual life, a closed door for every generation's life, a closed door for all human life. I do not believe that. I think it is incredible.

DARK EASTER

by Grace Noll Crowell

Even this Easter day is dark with gloom;
The shadows creeping in from land and sea
Obscure the risen Christ beside the tomb;
They blur the hope of all eternity.
Night fell the hour that he was crucified.
It falls again today as Christ is nailed
Once more upon a cross, and he has died
A thousand deaths because mankind has failed
To heed his earnest teaching. O dear Lord,
The whole world quakes, the thunders crash and roar.
Speak out again and men may hear thy voice,
They may come closer than they have before--
Surely, O Christ, thy agony and pain
Will not, cannot, dare not have been in vain!

CHRIST THE LORD IS RISEN TODAY

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
Sons of men and angels say: Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, ye heavens, and earth, reply, Alleluia!

Lives again our glorious King: Alleluia!
Where, O death, is now thy sting? Alleluia!
Dying once, He all doth save: Alleluia!
Where thy victory, O grave? Alleluia!

Soar we now, where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head; Alleluia!
Made like Him, like Him we rise; Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!

CHRIST AROSE

Low in the grave He lay--Jesus my Saviour!
Waiting the coming day--Jesus my Lord!

Refrain:

Up from the grave He arose (He arose),
With a mighty triumph o'er His foes; (He arose!)
He arose a victor from the dark domain,
And He lives forever with His saints to reign.
He arose! (He arose!) He arose! (He arose!)
Hallelujah! Christ arose!

Vainly they watch His bed--Jesus my Saviour!
Vainly they seal the dead--Jesus my Lord!

Death cannot keep his prey--Jesus my Saviour!
He tore the bars away--Jesus my Lord!
