

CHINESE VISITORS HERE

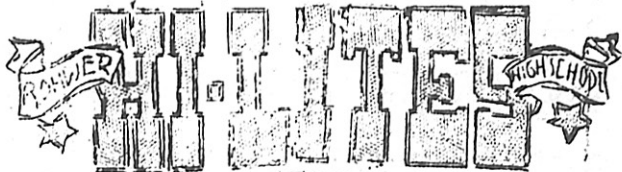

R. K. Cheng, Chi Kuo, P. C. Sun, and E. C. Yeng, four of the thirty-five Chinese delegates at present in the United States visited the Center Schools the past few days. In addition to visiting classes they were also interested in the amount of trade training which was available here because of its close connection to the rehabilitation of New China. The delegates left here to complete their tour through the U.S. which they expect to occupy another three months.

SENIOR GIRLS TRIALS

Selecting Roy Nagatani as the most cooperative boy on Girls' Day, the girls held their trials on Thursday, March 15 after school. Rosey Tsukamoto presided at the bar of justice, with Rosey Nishikawa as Prosecutor and Hideko Umino as Clerk. Heading the jury was Kazuko Nomura, and her assistants in reaching verdicts were Yuri Yaguchi, Ruth Hirose, Dorothy Aoki, Ber nice Yamaguchi, Shizuko Yamaguchi, Makiko Shikuma, Terrie Otsubo, and Yesuko Honda.

SCHOOL PAPER BECOMES WEEKLY

With this issue of the Hi-Lites the completely revised staff will attempt to put out a 4-page paper every week despite a critical staff shortage. Ken Noma and Yonoko Kimura will be co-editors; Yesuko Honda, feature editor; Hide Umino and Yuri Yaguchi, assistant feature editors; Jim Oto, circulation manager; Bill Kinoshita and Hiro Tashiro, art editors; George Tekahashi and Yutaka Shireishi, sports editors; Amy Sasuki and Helen Teshiro, girls' sports editors; and Aki Nakenishi, typist.

Canteen Opening Delayed

The Teen-Age Canteen which was scheduled to open on March 10th has had to extend the date again. The new date is March 23rd and doors will open at 7:30. Having met with disappointment upon disappointment which delayed the previous openings, the canteen committee has met again to see it carried through to the end.

Members are urged to take advantage of their membership cards and abide by all rules.

Assembly Notes

The 12A1's, 12A3's and 12A2's gave their assembly on March 13, 19, and 20 respectively.

The 12A1's gave a pantomime depicting the stages --- first, students' disgust at the unsightly lawn, next, the Homeroom industriously cleaning it, and last, students' pleasure at the green grass and pretty flowers. The 12A3's took a poll of the most popular

EDITORIAL

The Macmillan Dictionary defines "co-operate" as: "to act jointly with another or others; to work together." This of course refers to Boys' and Girls' Days. The students as a whole cooperated with good grace and sport, but there were some who definitely refused to do so.

For those students who did not cooperate I will endeavor to remind you that this whole structure of American Democracy depends upon wholehearted, cheerful, and willing cooperation of the people. When all of the people do not, a few men will take over the reins of the government. The Nisei Servicemen overseas are fighting for the principle of a government functioning with the cooperation of all. Shall we let them down? Of course not! Let us see everyone cooperating cheerfully in all school, class, and homeroom projects and activities. RO, ALGT SENIOR BATTLE? LAST CHANCE! TCEAY!

Out of the Box

Here is some news from the former teachers and students of Rohwer High:

Mr. Richard Arco sends his regards from Honolulu.

Mr. Kaz Fukaya sends, "Chicago is seemingly a dull place compared to how I remembered it to be due to the fuel shortage. There's no neon signs glittering. Once again I'm hopping street cars, elevated cars or climbing into Chicago's fox-hole which is our subway system!"

Roy Yamagawa writes, "Just finished pruning vines. Akio Fukai is stopping with us. The people here are the same as before except for some narrow-minded people that pass on the streets."

 Study Hall on March 16. Presiding was Judge Tohio Muramaka, with George Takahashi as Prosecuting Attorney and Yoshikazu Sakakura as Clerk.

The school library served as jail where the defendants were held until called on charges of various felonies committed on Boys' Day. Jurymen included Ben Shimazu as foreman, Jim Oto, Geo. Fujii, Roy Fekazawa, Mas Kawanishi, Bill Kinoshita, Mas Kinoshita, Roy Fagatani and Ken Noma.

After four cases were heard the girls rose and walked out. However, later at the LEA-3's assembly they apologized for their hastiness by singing "We couldn't sleep a wink last night...." to the Senior Boys, Mr. Deasley, and the Senior sponsors. The boys applauded.

FACULTY

FOIBLES

Rumor hath it that Mr. Ramsdell came out of the shop so fast the other night that he took a header over an innocent barrel which was in the way. Are the mice getting too vicious, Mr. R.?

And while we're on the Ramsdells, Mrs. R. has notified this reporter that she recently found a dime on the walk near the Home Ec Cottage. She will be happy to surrender it to the owner if he can name the year it was minted and is willing to pay for the cost of this ad--25 cents! Generous person, eh wot?

The morning of Mrs. Vogel's assembly so many of her homeroom students were late to their first period class that she almost got writer's cramp making out excuses! Tch, tch.

Miss Palmer is certain that if committee meetings are enough to win the homeroom project contest, her Group will be bound to win.

Mr. Beasley's young daughter, Mary Louise, is reported to be using her very first word--and a two-syllable one at that. She says "Da-Da" with the greatest of ease and her father pretends he isn't proud of her accomplishment but we don't believe it.

Never were so many lovely faculty smiles in evidence as in B-F on Wednesday when pictures for the Senior Pamphlet were being made. Omnia est vanitas!

ORCHIDS and ONIONS

Orchids to the two Roys (Nagatani and Nakazawa) for taking such a beating on Girls Day.

Onions to the "road hogs" who stand around the aisles of the study hall and walls talking--(gossiping?)

A big bouquet of orchids to courageous George Hasegawa and Hideo Watanabe for falling in love.

Onions to some of the Senior A boys who never give the girls a break--(note! Akira K., Bill K., Shig K. etc.)

Orchids to the kind teachers who drop homework for Monday nights----first night at the Aud. Movies!

Orchids to Mary Yoshida for adding that extra "zing" to the campus.

Onions to the ever-present crushers at the Tri-Y Social.

Orchids for Senior Gals who really cooperated on Boys Day.

Onions to the Senior Girls who walked out of Court.

The 12A-3's as their home room project emerged to find out the top songs on the campus. The following were the top five songs:

1. I Dream of You.....
2. Accentuate the Positive.
3. Sleigh Ride in July.....
4. Irish Lullaby.....
5. Saturday Night.....

NO. ONE

I dream of you---more than you dream I do,

How can I prove to you--- this love is real.

You're mean to me---more than you mean to be,

You just can't seem to see The way I feel.

When I am close to you--the world is far away,

The words that fill my heart My lips can't seem to say.

I want you so---more than you'll ever know,

More than you dream I do, I dream of you.

DID YOU KNOW

THAT

Tosh Ike had a big "J" written across his forehead on girl's day? No, not "R" but "J" as in Jane.....

Shigemi Kawamoto is the target any night for not one but three girls.....

Hatsuto Nagai wants to walk home Yasuko everynight

Jesse Tanaka is often seen with..(that would be telling wouldn't it, Jess?)

Mas Yoshizaki found his one and only.....

Yoshiko Hirahara and Mas Kawanishi are that way....

Saburo Chino takes Dan-ces Hireta to the movies??

James Yonesawa is on a diet... (he wants a Sinatra build).....

Roy Nagatani is often seen going to block 31 on the sky

Sam Goten has a long way home..(anyone have a spare bicycle?).....

GAME of the WEEK

PACERS VS BRUINS

For the first time in the history of Rohmer basketball season two teams played to a deadlock and took two overtimes to settle the game. Emerging victorious were the youthful Bruin quintet who won by the score of 22-20 over the less but amazing Pacers.

During the first half the casaba fans were treated to the uncanny accuracy of Jimmy Tsukamoto who consistently scored time after time from astounding distances. While the Pacers, who had all but lost hope kept the score down to 14-6.

Starting the second half a new rejuvenated team built around Nobe Mikasa, who held the boys together, went berserk! The fast-stepping forward wall of the Pacers brought the score to 20 - 18 in the closing seconds. Finally at the final whistle the score was all tied up at 20 - 20.

The first overtime showed no shooting but cool ball handling. After the deadless overtime the second over-period started and was far different from the first one. It displayed a barrage of wild shots until Mas "Turham Bey" Yoshimura made a beautiful hook shot to put the Bruins ahead 22-20 and thereafter were never scored upon.

Playing their usual versatile game for the losers was Hatsuto Nagai and "Fearless" Fujii. For the Bruin was all Tsukamoto and Co. who led them to victory.

Last week-end displayed many new odds-and-ends, for example the game between the Pacers and Bruins which was settled in a double overtime. To run over a few of the more interesting items the Musketeers will rattle off a few.

While we were watching the fitness of the Lil' 8 Balls we saw to our amazement tall and lofty Michelle Oga, who plays defensive guard move into the forward slot. She proved to the fans that if Don can do it, so can she.

Guess who the Hero of the week is? Yeh, he is none other than Mr. Terry Chono, who brought wrapping (and I don't mean paper ones either) for our fair damsel, Lady Tsukamoto who had been sabotaged during the game between the Lollypops and Blue-Babes.

The leading scorer of the Center League is none other than your S.D. prexy Yutaka Shiraishi, who has scored the most personal fouls this year. (Excuse us if you thought we meant points)?

I don't know whether this comes under Sports or not, but our youthful Lobos seemed to have gotten hepped all of a sudden. Say, boys how was the Tri-X Sterk Club dance.

In case there is any similarity between the feature and the sport column it is purely intentional

Latest ——— Communiqué

The senior class' "battle of sexes" really turned out to be a battle. The climax of the battle occurred Friday—the fall of Hirose—signifying of the males and the mass evacuation of the feminine sex. The battle ended in 3 minutes. The remains of the battle was surveyed by the high commands viz: Mr. Beasley, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Price and some others. Never has such fierce and vigorous fighting happened before. No one can say who was more powerful, for both sexes fought courageously until the end. Incidentally, peace negotiations were made Monday morning at assembly.

This breaking down of the barrier between the sexes is really progressing. The latest is the formal dinner which is to be held by the LZB's. Now why can't the other home-rooms cook up something like this?

In a senior tally for the most outstanding students, perhaps not surprising to many of us, but Tomio Mura-naka came out 2-1 to anyone else.

By the way, if anyone wishes to learn the conga Waka S. has kindly consented to give lessons free of charge.
