OUT OF THE MAIL BAG

Here are some more letters from former students now in California.

Mas Nitta writes: "Hi Fellas! Reached here alive on April 25th--12:40 A.M. Not in school yet but I think it is harder. Boy! You guys are missing all the blondes and brunettes! They're slick as a chick! Take It Easy on the Lancers, Miss Best's Homeroom, and all you wolves!"

Sam Mibu pens: "Here I am in California far away from Arkansas. Everybody at my school is very friendly to me. I have the same subjects that I had in the center, and they didn't talk me out of the shop related class. They gave me two periods of auto shop right in the classy shop they have. They have about six air cool airplane motors and about 16 different types of engines. I hope some more Nisei would come out this way and go to school out here."

Yoshiko Hanzawa writes: "Berkeley is really a lovely place and I've experienced no discrimination whatsoever, thus far. In fact, all the people I've met have been wonderful."

FACULTY WIMPER AWAY

Miss Mary Reinhardt, Spanish teacher, has been absent for some time due to her father's illness. She writes that she is uncertain as to when she can return.

Editorial

The long awaited V-E Day finally arrived on Tuesday, May 8, 1945! This is a memorable date, and one we will never forget. More so, is it a memorable day for the war-ravaged, suffering millions in Europe. To them it is the end of the tyrannical Nazi yoke which placed them in Belsen, Buchenwald, and other hellish places. It is a new beginning for them..... the dawn of a new tomorrow; the beginning of reconstruction.

But for the weary, begrimed, mud-slogging "G.I.'s" it is but a momentary respite after which they will be transferred to the Pacific where they will encounter dirty fighting and fanatical resistance. To them it is the beginning of another and greater task. No wonder they look with resentment and bitterness toward those who celebrate prematurely.

"It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced." Let's back them up!

BLUE BABES CENTER CHAMPIONS

TRIUMPH 28-20

Playing before a jam-packed crowd last Friday night the Blue Babes, who trailed throughout the game, made a sensational rally and surpassed the hapless 8 Balls by a score of 28-20. It seemed by the half-time score that the Lil' 8 Balls were on the way to another championship. You will remember that it was those two same teams who fought for center championship one year ago.

EIGHT BALLS IN POSSESSION

The first half the Lil' 8 Balls showed all the signs of brilliance that they possessed throughout the season. No one will dispute that they had outplayed the Blue Babes throughout the first part of the game. With Sadame Fujimura making her unerring shots and Shigo Hagio, Michiko Oga, and Nobuko Kamiyama keeping the high scoring machine of the Blue Babes down, they wound up with 12-6 half-time lead.

MEASLES CATCHES SP PRESIDENT

Wednesday, the familiar "Nose" was missing from the group of his associates---the ray-dogs.

Cause: Measles!!!

SECOND HALF

What happened during the second half nobody knows except that the Blue Babes were a completely rejuvenated squad. During the fourth quarter they made four baskets in five minutes which we must admit seems nothing less than sensational. After Skipper Tsuji and Ida Arimura found the range they simply couldn't be stopped. And talk about guarding, those Babes allowed the 8 Ballers, who have scored consistently this season, just one basket.

REBOUNDS

Mary Ann Ouye displayed every bit of her uncanny ability by keeping the high scorers of the Lil' 8 Balls at bay.... Pacers were all hoarse.... from yelling... Tears and laughter were plentiful throughout the Aul... Sadame Fujimura proved herself one of the outstanding athletes on the hardwood.
