GROUP SING- -ING HELD

The first and second assembly groups had singing for the first time on Feb. 22 and March 1. The songs were led by Mr. Martin and the piano was played by Mrs. Henderson. The first assembly group is to have singing on Thursdays and the second assembly group is to have singing on the next Thursday and so on. This will be the schedule for the group singing.

The purpose of this singing practice is to encourage students to participate in assembly groups.

He told how they worked to look after needy families, juvenile delinquency, and maladjusted people in general.

He pointed out that in preparing to become a social welfare worker, one must take six years of college. He must take in as much social science studies as possible. He also pointed what the job possibilities and salary are for the social welfare workers.

In order to become successful in this kind of work, one must love people and care for them enough to help solve their social and economic problems.

Chit Chat

I wonder why Frank Igo is always coming to Blk. 17. Could it be because of R. Maknda? Hoy Frank, let us ask on it too.

Why does Botty S. smile when Kongo T. is around? Let us in on the secret.

Shimao Umino surovatches Kazuko S. when she goes by. That's a sign of something.

Natsumi T. seems to be playing with Harold. W. Could it be the sign of LOVE?

Why is it that Mary Ann I. always looks back in English room? Is it because of Edward H.?

C'mon Edward H., make up your mind, who's your gal? Is it M.T. or T.H.? Don't hog all the girls.

This letter was found on the campus:
 Dear -----?

I have been very bashful to write to you but I can't stand it any longer. I have to write and say that I love you very much. I just can't help but tell you that. Please don't show anyone this letter.

Thank you,
 ????????????

Ed. Note: What is this generation coming to, anyway?

S. Y. of 84 seems kind of happy now since she found M.J. of 91.

What's this we hear in and around about Miss Nii and Yutaka Nakanishi? Now take it easy, Miss Nii.

Was Miss Sumi happy the other day because her boyfriend came to see her? My, we must keep an eye on her.

On February 22, it was decided at the ninth grade cabinet's first meeting to ask the ninth grade homerooms the following questions:

(1) Whether or not a social should be sponsored?

(2) If so, what kind of social?

(3) If refreshments should be served.

The types of socials they were told to vote on were: just games; dance.

They were asked to vote if they wanted refreshments too. The majority of the ninth graders voted on having a social with refreshments, but the votes on the types socials were so close between just games and games plus dance that the homerooms will be asked to vote again between these two types on Monday March 12, 1945.
