Block 14 Councilman Johnson Kebo (Fresno, Calif.) was elected council chairman by secret ballot at the council's second regular meeting held on November 30, 1942 at 2:20 p.m. in Rec. Hall 3.

Assistant Project Director William O. Melton presided prior to the election of Johnson Kebo as council chairman. Melton pinch-hit for Project Director Taylor who was unable to attend on account of illness.

OLD TIMERS MEET ALL STARS TOMORROW

In celebration of Old Timers Day as designated by the Community Activities Department, the All Stars will clash with the Old Timers of this Center in a baseball tilt tomorrow at 5:30 p. m. on the Block 21 diamond.

All softball games day so this affair will be well supported by Center fans.

Both outfits are slated to field a potent team although the All Stars are favored to take the fray.

Tak Abo and Buster Kawamura are listed to toe the rubber for the strong All Stars while Moon Kurima is slated to pitch for the Old Timers.

Many of the Old Timers are star ball players from various parts of the Pacific Coast but should have a tough time trying to top the younger, more agile, and faster All Stars.

Probable line-up for the All Stars will be Norman Yasui behind the plate, Hy Ikeda at first base, Nori Saki at second base, Kay Ishimoto at third base, and George Toyama at the short-stop position.

The outfield will be well patrolled with Shiro Tahara in left field, Yas Chone in center, and Fumio Kusunoki in right field.

Utility players are Archie Yoshida and Henry Nishioka.

The Old Timers boast a large squad of about 20 players from which to pick their starting line-up. Their line-up is unknown.

Some of their probable starters are: Bob Nakamura, Wally Tsuda, Dick Kunishima, Ichiro Miyagawa, Frank Yasui, Hank Yoshikawa, Al Sako and others.

GOOD CHANCE TO WIN

With veteran Moon Kurima doing the hurling for the Old Timers, they have a big chance of toppling the favored All Stars.

GIRL'S ALL STARS CHOSEN

BRUINS TO PLAY ISLANDERS

Still undefeated, the mighty Bruins softball squad will be out to win another tonight against the Islanders on Block 21.

The Islanders are in the fourth spot on the league standings ladder and are out to win tonight.

But the Bruins are a hard hitting team and are a hard combination to beat.

Ronald Takahata, manager of the Islanders will probably start Horito Iatsumiya at number one position with Edward Niimi catching.

Harry Miya will probably be started on the mound by manager Woody Ishikawa with himself catching Miya's slants.

EL BEES OUT FOR VICTORY

Sunday night the Bruins again will be out to win; this time against the El Bee softball squad in an A league tilt on Block 21.

Sasaki will probably hurl for the El Bees with Hato behind the plate catching.

Hy Ikeda or Harry Miya will take the mound for the Bruins with Ishikawa catching.

SPORT topics

By HIRO MAYED
THE TEAM TO BEAT--The team to beat is the strong Bruin outfit of the A softball league. They have gone the season so far undefeated. If any team can top them, they deserve a chicken dinner for their efforts.

OLD TIMERS--They'll be plenty of sore muscles and arms after the contest Saturday between the Old Timers and the All Star.

GOOD GOING--Congratulations are due to the eight girls who made the Center All Star basketball squad.

COULD BE--There may be another hardball game Sunday which is yet unslated, so you baseball fans keep your eyes peeled come Sunday afternoon.

GIRL'S SOFTBALL LEAGUE--Florinettes, Victorettes, and last years hard-hitting champions, the Fresno Eagles are the only teams signed up so far.

JUMPING NISEI--Henry Aihara a prepster at New Trier High School in Winnetka, Illinois who relocated from Arizona is now starring as high jumper and broad jumper. High jumping better than 6 feet and broad jumping more than 22 feet, he is proving a vital member of the track team. He had to be persuaded to try out for the team.

米兵士二世を擁護す

シカゴ発
ミルウーキー ジャーナル紙の從軍記者ハル女史よりの最近の通信によれば廿二名の米兵士が吾々は憎悪と猜疑心に満ちた所に住むべく開つてゐるのではない、と異口同音に語つた由である。

ハル女史は第一次世界大戦で唯一の婦人從軍記者であつて、今回も亦中部太平洋戦線に於ける唯一の婦人從軍記者である。

シヤールナル紙五月四日の紙上に同女史は左り如く報じてゐる。

此等の米兵士は人種偏見が有り夫が諸方面で表はれる
