NO. 11

MEET HER MAJESTY, QUEEN NELLIE

UNIT 2 LABOR BOARD CONVENES

It was reported yesterday that the first meeting of the Fair Employment Practice Commission of Poston II will be held this morning (Saturday) in the personnel mess hall.

Any complaints concerning working conditions should be presented either in writing or in person by the complainant at this gathering, it was announced.

The six members of the Board, representing their respective departments, are: Dr. Harry Kita, Professionals; Harry Shirachi, Agriculture; Mr. Nakagawa, Mess halls; Sid Shiratsuki, Service and Managerial; Masao "Cow" Wada, Industrial; and Kay Nakamura, Sales and Clerical. The 7th member of the Commission, as provided in the WRA Administrative Instructions No. 27, will be chosen by the six members of the Board, it was stated.

YBA PRESIDENT SUFFERS LEG INJURY

Arthur Takemoto, director of the Poston I YBA and Sunday school and advisor for the Junior YBA, last Tuesday suffered a fractured right leg when he slipped and fell upon emerging from his block shower. Friends will be happy to learn that his condition is improving.

BEAUTIFUL POSTON III GIRL SELECTED TO REIGN AS QUEEN OF THE COUNTY FAIR

Lovely Nellie Nagano, surprise candidate of Poston III, was crowned to reign as Queen Postonia of the County Fair at Friday night's Coronation ball amidst the regal pomp and splendor befitting her royal highness. Surrounding the beautiful queen on her throne were three charming princesses, Betty Fujii of Poston I, CORONATION BALL HELD AT FIRE DEPT.

Community thanks and appreciation are due Fire Marshall, Joseph Fien, and the Poston I Fire Dept. for their consent in "relinquishing" their station for the Coronation Ball which was held last night.

"It is our policy not to lend out floor space, because of its importance to the community safety, at all times," stated Mr. Fien. "However, we were very glad to aid, in lend-in assistance at this time."

CONTRACTS FOR HARVEST WORK STILL OPEN, SAYS EMPLOYMENT OFFICE

Many contracts for harvest work in Grand Junction area in Colorado are coming in as contingent of 48 volunteer workers left from Poston I for Wyoming, Colo., and Neb., Thursday night to fulfill contracts for Holly Sugar and Greatwestern Sugar companies. Few families were also included in this group. The above two companies are still offering contracts as it is now in the midst of fall operation.

Asano Nakamura of Poston II and Shizu Yamashita of Poston III, and the twelve young ladies in waiting, who had won recognition in the interesting queen contest.

After the coronation ceremonies at Poston I the queen and her court were whisked away to Poston II where they made an impressive appearance in the dance hall before a large crowd which was present to greet them.

Later in the evening Queen Postonia arrived at the ball in unit III where the people cheered happily to discover that the winner was one of their own residents.

The selection of Miss Nagano was made Thursday night after careful consideration, by a jury of nine judges. The judges were:

Messrs. W. Wade Head, John Evans, Harvey Iwata, J.D. Crawford, Morris Burge, H.A. Mathiesen, John F. Maeno, T.G. Ichimaru and Miss Nell Findley.

The queen and her attendants will be seen at various places on the fairgrounds during Saturday and Sunday.

220 BEAT OUT ZEBRAS 3 TO 2 TAKE LEAGUE LEAD

With Taniguchi burning his fast one past the 125 Zebras, the 220 team took a close 3-2 ball game from the Zebras.

The 220 win, coupled with the 222 Clipper loss, shot them into the "A" league lead.

Taniguchi held the Zebras to 3 hits while striking out 10 batters. Yamamoto, losing chucker, was touched for 6 hits by the pennant-bound 220ers.

213 vs. 209--NO CONTEST

With darkness halting the Terror--Whirlwind game, the game was called no contest. The 209 team was leading by one run in the free-scoring game at the time.

226 ZEROS DOWN CLIPPERS

The 226 Zeros blasted the highly-touted 222 Clippers' championship hope with a lopsided 14-7 score for their second straight win on the Fireman's Field.

Continuing their winning streak started last Tuesday against 215, the up and coming Zeros overwhelmed V. Yamane and C. Iwanaga for 10 hits and 14 runs while G. Ishibashi held the Clippers to 6 hits. The 226's big inning was the fourth when, aided by triples by G. Ishibashi, G. Sonoda, and S. Sakamoto, they shot 9 runs across the plate to overtake a 2-4 lead and decide the ball game.

H. Kozaki, S. Kozaki, W. Ino, and G. Sonoda were the big guns of the Zeros' attack with a 2 for 3 while C. Iwanaga led the losers with the same average.

306 SCORE 7 RUNS IN 1ST FRAME TO WIN, 7-5

Blk 306 edged out a 7-5 win over 307 Thursday night still remaining the only undefeated team in the single "A" league.

In a first inning rally, 306 amassed 5 hits including a double by Shiraishi to tally 7 runs for a lead they never relinquished.

307 scored a run in the second on 2 singles and another in the third when Niino, who collected 3 for 3 at the plate, knocked a clean triple into right field and came home on an error.

Going into the final stanza, 306 held a 5 run margin when 307 began their last inning spurt scoring 3 runs but failing to overtake 306. Shiraishi retired the last batsmen on strikes with 2 men on.

J. Mitsuoka of 306 was another batsman who collected 3 for 3 including a double.

NINE PINS BLOW LEAD 305 GAINS DEADLOCK

Nine pins led 5-0 up to the last inning but a sudden spurge by 305 Hopefuls which netted 5 runs, tied up the game.

In the third frame with the score 3-0 F. Yamane, Nine Pin second baseman, hit a long homer with one on to bring up the score to 5-0. Then the Hopefuls came back to tie up the game on 3 hits and 3 errors to score 5 runs.

318 SLUGS OUT 8-7 WIN OVER WINLESS 316

Spotting 316, 4 runs in the early innings, 318 started hitting after 2 away in the second to go ahead 5-4 when they scored 5 runs on 6 hits includ-

LUMBER FOR 100 DESKS ARRIVES

Lumber sufficient to turn out 100 desks for the Poston III schools arrived here, it was announced yesterday by the administrator.

Carpenters were already at work attempting to turn out enough furniture to alleviate the shortages.

FINAL CALL FOR SUGAR BEET WORKERS

A meeting was held Thursday night for all those interested in sugar beet work. The contract is due here from Grand Junction, Colorado for the Holly Sugar Co., and the probable last group of contingents will leave here the first of next week. Chances for permanent leaves and cotton work in Arizona were discussed.

POSTON III TO GET 60 GARBAGE CANS

Arrangements have been completed with Poston I to have 60 garbage containers brought to Poston III soon, Administrator Burge disclosed.

The more equitable distribution of material is expected to help conditions here.

ing a homer by W. Nishikawa. 318 went ahead again 7-5, but 316 tied it up in the fourth inning with a two run rally. Then with two away M. Fukuhara drove in the winning run with a two base hit for 318.

The batting honors went to S. Hatakoda of 316 who got 3 hits for 4 times at bat.

326 FIRST TO HOLD BLOCK WEINER BAKE

Approximately 100 lbs of weiners, believe it or not, were consumed at the Blk Weiner Bake held Wednesday evening at 5-6-7 park. Under the capable handling of Chef K. Kimura and staff and Chief Steward B. Hibana and staff the entire Blk residents had an enjoyable time baking weiners in the fires prepared beforehand in the ten pits. Pickles, lettuce, salad and tea supplemented the weiners.

UKE, HULA CLASSES TO COLLABORATE

Uke classes will be held in conjunction with the newly organized hula class. The first joint meeting will be on Tuesday, 7 p.m., in Rec 327.

A Hawaiian band is now "in the process of being considered," said Dick Watanabe, in charge of classes in Poston III. Instructor Doc Yamada of Poston I will be here at least once every week.

NELSON EXPLAINS DIFFICULTIES OF BUYING SUPPLIES

WRA executive assistant to Director Wade Head, Mr. Nelson, who is in charge of buying explained some of the difficulties encountered in securing supplies for the project on Friday at a meeting of the Poston III blk. managers.

Towards this end, a complete reorganization plan was considered starting with the warehouse.

Parker will be the dividing point of supplies for the three units and distribution will be directly in proportion to population and needs. Nelson added that many orders which are reported on the way may be diverted and chances for misunderstandings were many.
