For the benefit of the marriageable evacuees of Poston, plans are being made to establish a Matrimonial Service Bureau, which will be handled through the local Red Cross Chapter, it was disclosed.

The Service Bureau will be purely a local public service and will not be a part of the activity program of the National Red Cross.

Services to be offered will consist of going between or match-making, services to the lovers who are facing difficulties to marry and service to parents who request to stop their children's love affairs.

Marriage applications and filing will be taken by the Red Cross when the Bureau is organized and investigations on the applicants' reputation, integrity, etc. will be made. Legal, medical and other advices pertinent to marriage will be given to the applicants.

The personnel of the Bureau will be composed of a member from the Red Cross, a lawyer, a physician and 2 religion workers with the headquarters to be established at the remaining part of the Red Cross building.

SIX RESERVIST RECALLED FOR ARMY DUTIES

Orders received in the Center this week called six Enlisted Reserves in Poston to active duty effective Aug. 16. The reservists are to report to Fort Douglas, Utah, for processing and assignment to the 42nd Combat Team at Camp Shelby, Miss.

ONE-THIRD REQUEST CHANGE ON QUESTION 28

With the interviewing of the people who had answered "No" to Question 28 or had failed to answer the question, nearly completed by the members of the Board for Segregation Review, it was learned that approximately one third had requested the right of changing their answers.

NO CHANGE IN SELECTIVE SERVICE RULINGS

There has been no change in the rules of the Selective Service System with regard to people of Japanese ancestry, it was stated yesterday at the administrative offices. The statement was made when it was reported that stories to the effect that young men in Poston would be called for service were in circulation.

At present the Selective Service rules do not require that local boards call men of Japanese ancestry into service.

Some of these people had previously indicated that they had not fully understood the question at the time of the registration.

This phase of the work on segregation is about finished and the second phase involving those people who were recommended by the Project Director for segregation, is starting today. This is the interviews with individuals together with members of their families by the Welfare Division.

Persons interviewed by the Board for Segregation Review who were not recommended for segregation will be placed in the third group, who will come up for hearing under administrative instruction No. 22 for leave clearance. Others who will be given leave clearance hearings include those who gave qualified answers to question 28, who made application for repatriation or expatriation and withdrew these applications prior to July first, and those intelligence agencies.

TULE LAKE SCENES ON DISPLAY

The photographs of the Tule Lake center will be on display at the Welfare office in Unit One beginning today and until next Monday. After Monday the display will be moved to the other units of Poston, in order that all of the residents will have an opportunity to see it.

Reporting to active duty are: Pvt. Duke T. Kubota, Pvt. Jou Okitsu, Pvt. Yukito N. Murakami, Pvt. Kazuo Nakano, Pvt. Gilbert Ogata, and Pfc. Paul Y. Shintaku.

Pvts. Okitsu and Murakami left this morning, and the others will be departing Monday.

SYMPHONY AND SWING FEATURED

The Symphony in Swing, a unique musical presented by the 318 Moonlight Serenaders for their second round of the YBA nights, turned out a great success, drawing a capacity crowd.

Yoshiko Aoki acted as chairman for the devotional service while Kiyoshi Kawamoto emceed the musical entertainment.

DEPARTURES

Wednesday Morning: Masao Yoshimine, Cincinnati, Ohio; James Urata, Milwaukee, Wis.; George Morishita, Yasu Morishita, Jerome, Arkansas; Pfc. Larry Katayama, Camp Grant, Ill.; Tom Mikasa, John Hayakuwa, Salt Lake City, Utah; Kanichi Kakoda, Kotaro Yanagiya, Suko Shinagiya, Yutero Shibata, Wellsville, Kansas.

Heart Mountain residents will soon be able to drink ice cream sodas, milk shakes and soft drinks. How about trying to promote one here.

Young people of the camp has constantly been cautioned to their moral action--articles warning the parents to keep their daughters and sons in close watch--young peoples moral conduct is slipping, etc. But isn't it the certain older folks of this camp that really has to improve their conduct? Practically all the incidents such as beating, fights, etc., --and discolored affairs among married people, etc., are done by Issei. Perhaps they have missed their share of fun in youth, and it's happening in any normal American Community, but it's no place nor time to be doing such disgusting acts. If these kind of immoral doings continue among certain older folks, perhaps they will soon be in the spot where they cannot give any advice to younger people. How about practicing self-control and set better examples for the younger sets to follow.

The Pgt. gave around the camp is griping about the feed. To learn to appreciate the food cooked in the kitchens one only has to take an overnite hike down to the river and do his own. A certain young connoisseur, who prided himself on cooking that staple Japanese food, rice, had a sad setback. Setting the gallon can tightly capped with cleaned rice on the fire, this amateur chef went around his other duties while swatting flies and stepping on mesquite needles. After a short lapse of time, the cook was jolted suddenly by a sharp explosion. Poor cook-san, dazedly stood splattered by more rice than the happy couple trekking that last mile...(milo)

STORY BEHIND THE STORY

Several Issei days ago, three Issei residents were fishing in the slough adjacent to block 221 when suddenly they were startled out of their wits by the whizzing of machine gun bullets right over their heads. Unable to find any reason for this pyrotechnical display of machine gunning, the highly agitated fishermen reported the incident to the local P. C. This would seem to be the end of the story but now a first line rumour flying around camp has it that at that time three Italian prisoners had escaped from the prison camp, situated near the Indian school about 8 miles from Unit I. Three fishermen three

322 TALLIES 5 IN THE 1ST FRAME TO EKE OUT GLOBETROTTERS 5-4

Approximately 2500 anxious fans witnessed the 322-23 aggregation shove through a hard fought victory over the strong 308 Globetrotters on the Sportsman Park Monday evening, August 9th. With this victory, the 322 boys are the undisputed champions of the Poston III Block League and are entitled to two legs before they are eliminated in the 4 top team play-offs for the trophy.

The Globetrotters drank blood in the 1st stanza by walking S. Takeshita and P. Ozaki who advanced on a short infield bingle. With 3 on A. Takeshita placed a double in front of the left fielder for the 1st 2 tallies. H. Ozaki tallied on a short 2 bagger by J. Shinohara. A. Takeshita drove in on an infield error while J. Shinohara came in for the 5th counter to end the splurge.

It was in the second stanza when husky K. Fujimoto, 308 left fielder, shot out a mighty triple while T. Fukumura doing the same tallied by a stretching double by A. Fujimoto to give the Globetrotters their first two tallies.

322 added one more to the scorebook when four men walked in the 4th stanza.

T. Morikawa slapped a speed drive triple with one man touching the sacks in the 5th to score their 3rd run. Score by innings R H E

PLAYOFF SLATED

Globetrotter's ace hurler Gordy Miyamoto, supported by one of the best double play combinations consisting of Fukumura Bros. and M. Miyamoto, will endeavor to overpower Joe Nishimura and his slugging team this Friday evening on the Sportsman Park for one of the first elimination of the four top team playoffs.

RAMBLERS EDGE DELANO 3-2

Witnessed by approximately 1500 rabid ball fans, the Ramblers in one of the finest tilts seen this season out-scored the hard hitting Delano Dukes 3-2. The victory enabled the Ramblers to finish the league in tie for second place with the Dukes.

The high-flying Ramblers jumped into an early one to lead in the initial inning. Both teams were scoreless from then until the 8th, during which time the score remained 1-0. Then the Dukes fashioned 3 consecutive babbles by the Ramblers for a dual of runners to skip into a 2-1 lead. Two of the errors were charged to the Rambler's, hurler C. Murakami but in the half of 9th, he regained a permanent lead, singling with 2 mates aboard both runners scoring and a tightened defense in the final frame handed them the decision.
