TEN MORE EXCHANGEES RETURNED DUE TO PRIORITY

The names of ten additional Poston exchangees who were scheduled to sail for Japan on the exchange ship Gripsholm but did not sail due to their low priority on the sailing list was revealed by Mrs. Butler, head of the Family Welfare Dept.

The exchangees were returned from New York to Rohwer, Arkansas, where they are housed at the present.

It was stated that they will be transferred to Tule Lake and that their records will be accumulated and sent to Tule Lake on the first train in the same way in which the records of Poston segregation are sent.

This is the second group of exchangees from Poston to be returned due to low pri-

TREASURY DEPT. GRANTS GENERAL LICENCES

LIBRARY BOARD NAMED

The Unit III Council accepted the five persons who were recommended by Miss Fumi Shiota, head librarian, to compose the local Library Advisory Board. This Board will determine the future policy of the public library and will be instrumental in improving the library materially.

Kay Hanada, Lillian Ohye, Masami Honda, Rev. Tsunoda, and K.J. Takashima are those who were named as members of this body.

Poston residents who have relatives in the U. S. Army or other armed forces will be interested in learning that the Department of Treasury on Aug. 25 has granted a general license which in general authorizes the following transactions, according to Theodore H. Haas, Project Attorney:

1. The exportation of postal money orders drawn in favor of member of the armed forces,
2. the importation of postal money orders sent by such members,
3. the importation of personal checks drawn by such members in domestic bank in favor of payee within the United States.

Such transactions must be sent through the army post office or other official channels of the United States Armed Services.

SEND-OFF FOR TULE LAKE BOUNDS PLANNED

Tentatively slated for October 2, at 7:30 p.m., the Unit III Community Council will sponsor a farewell program for the local segregationees scheduled to leave for Tule Lake on October 4.

A committee, headed by Tom Tanaka, is now being formed to plan the program. The various officials and departments of the community are being asked to co-operate in making this affair a success.

This send off is being held to extend the best wishes of the friends and relatives of the departees.

ority, the first returning, here a few weeks ago.

Those returned to Rohwer are: Shojo Ishikawa, Blk. 4; Masao Kenya; Blk. 19; Kihachi Saiki; Blk. 16; Kiyomi Takata, Blk. 213; Tokujiro Takata, Blk. 209; and Tsurujiro, Katsu. Kimiko and Eiko Yamada, Blk. 19.

The tenth person, Mrs. Mrs. Murakami, aged mother of Dr. Murakami, will probably return to Poston, as a request by the project has been wired for such a transfer.

Rumors have been circulating throughout Camp that the exchange ship Gripsholm has returned to New York, but according to Miss Butler, no such word has been received here.

UNIT I EDGES UNIT III— IN PONG PONG

The Unit I defeated the Unit III men and women divisions 8 to 5 and 7 to 6 respectively in the first of the round robin schedule in the intercamp table tennis tournament at 309 Rec. Hall Sun. after noon Sept. 5.

This coming Sun. Sept. 12, both men and women teams who were losers to Camp I are scheduled to play Camp II at Camp II.

O.C. SMOTHERS BLK. 35 21-4

Running up one of the biggest score in the "A" this season, Orange Co. did everything but blast Blk. 35 off the field as they pounded two Blk. 35 pitchers for a total of 18 hits good for 21 runs.

In the meantime M. Nitta limited Blk. 35 to four bingles. O.C. wasted no time in teeing off on B. Nakano, rapping him for eight hits and ten runs in the initial inning. Nakano retired in the

It will be the Dukes and O.C. sure as the sun rises and sets, is what all the people seem to be saying as the coming softball tournament draws nearer. With more and more people jumping on the Dukes and O.C. band wagon everyday, they are established as solid favorites to cop the tourney.

The Dukes from top to bottom are practically a "Murderer's Row". Worrying the opposing deceivers green will be such heavy sluggers as M. Yano, J. Ikemiya, M. Takaki, the three Yamaguchi bros., George, Ken and Tommy to mention a few.

The O.C. aggregation although lacking the heavy artillery with which they won the first round, are nevertheless still a dangerous hitting team. With such heavy gents as G. Ura, R. Furuta, Nitta bros., Min. and Hitoshi, M. Yushino and M. Kadani who are all capable of breaking up a ball game any minute still in their swinging, makes O.C. a very potent entry.

Although your humble servant responsible for this item has been able to gather but little in fo on the Unit III entries, the Mutineers and Globetrotters should not be regarded lightly. The Mutineers in W. Fujimoto and A. Takeshita have two of the outstanding pitchers in Unit III. They should have little trouble in hurling their first round opponents, Valley who will be relying solely on the southpaw slants of C. Hanaoka.

The Globetrotters, co-league titlist tackle the Ramblers who round out the quartet representing Unit I.

Although little is known of the other two Unit III entries, Rookies and Old Timers, look for them to upset the old apple cart several times before the tourney ends. Third after another ten run blast Tanaka took over the chorus in the last two innings and hid O.C. to two hits and one run.

H. Nitta and Yoshino blasted circuit clouts for the winners.
