

RESIDENTS SAVE 400 LEAVE CLEARANCE CASES HUGE CROP AT TULE LAKE HEARD BY HEARING BOARD

Poston residents are helping to save the big potato and vegetable crop at Tule Lake and are well satisfied with wages, housing and food, according to Edward Nossoff, assistant employment chief who returned Monday morning from the northern center.

A total of 64 workers were taken in two groups last week. The first group of 40, escorted by W. Allen Cushman, assistant leave officer, arrived early Monday morning but a few minutes after the Topaz contingent of 40 had reached the scene. Together they started mess operations, constructed platforms and set up tents. The mess crew, mostly Poston men, worked 20 hours the first day.

The second group of 24, escorted by Nossoff, arrived at the Tule Lake farm early Friday morning, shortly after the Army was summoned into the project, five miles away.

At the Tule Lake farm are 288 workers: 64 from Poston; 40 from Topaz; 102 from Heart Mountain; 46 from Minidoka; and 36 from seasonal and indefinite leave in the Salt Lake City relocation area.

TWO INTERNEES ARRIVE HERE

Hiroshi Kariya of 28-9-B and K. Murakami of 305 were the latest arrivals here from Santa Fe Detention Camp arriving last Sunday, according to the Arrival Station.

About 200 additional leave clearance files have been sent to Washington, which makes a total of about 400 already heard by the local board, Ted Haas, project attorney, disclosed Tuesday.

This week about 60 cases are scheduled to be heard in Unit I with Pauline Bates Brown, Dr. John Powell, Dr. Walter Balderston, Giles Zimmerman, Dr. Arthur Harris and Mr. Haas, chairman, sitting in on the hearings.

Camps II and III are also having hearings this week with Frances Cushman, Ralph Drennen, James Crawford and Dr. Dallas McLaren in II and Mr. Crawford and Miss Cushman in III.

EDITORIAL:

A JOKE MAY BECOME A REALITY

A child stands in the middle of the road. His hands are outstretched. Coming straight at him is a truck. He stands there until the truck is almost on him and then runs to the side. He laughs. His little friends laugh. They hoot at the driver and throw sticks and stones at him and laugh some more. They think it is all a great joke.

This sort of thing is happening every day. One of these days it will cease to be a great joke. The driver, rattled by the sight of the child in the road, daring him to run him down, could easily lose control of the car and unintentionally take him up on the dare. Then there will be no laughing. Perhaps afterwards, there will be a pool of white sand covering up a puddle of blood.

There was a spot like that on the south side of Block 44. One spot like that is enough. One is too much.

You may think we are trying to scare you. We are. We are trying and will, if we can, frighten you into telling your children to treat their lives precious.

A couple of broken headlights in comparison may be a minor thing, but it is not a trivial one. Especially today when most broken things are irreplaceable. While you are teaching your child to respect his life, slip in a few effective Herbol one-two's about the property of others.

There has also been a complaint about careless drivers. This complaint is justified in some cases. Investigation of recent accidents has shown that the Internal Security Office is capable of cracking down on these daredevils who rightly belong on the race-course at Ascot Speedway. Revocation of their driving license will curb their 50-per impulses.

The drivers have been told to be careful. Your children are your responsibility. Teach them to be careful if you want them to come home to you safely every night. H.Y.

RESIDENTS SAVE HUGE TULE LAKE CROPS

ed to the call from R. B. Cozzens, assistant field director, last week after the Tule Lake segregants refused to work on the farm which produced potatoes, cabbage, broccoli, lettuce and other vegetables for the nine loyal centers, as well as for Tule Lake.

According to Nossoff, the men are housed in army tents, equipped with steel cots, mattresses, and as many as four blankets per man, as well as a coal burning stove.

The workers are earning $1 an hour for all work except potato picking which pays 15 cents a sack, enabling the men to average about $1.45 an hour. This potato work is rotated so that all workers will be able to approximate the same wage. They are racing against time and the heavy winter frost to harvest the $500,000 crop.

The food is adequate and served by a kitchen crew made up of Poston and Topaz residents. Two and three gigantic helpings of food are not uncommon for the workers who return to the mess hall hungry.

REV. KUBOTA TRAVELS 6800 MILES ON TOUR

Rev. Kenzo Kubota, pastor of the Poston First Christian Church returned here Sat., Oct. 30, having traveled 6800 miles since leaving here Sept. 7. His itinerary included Rowher and Jerome centers, St. Louis, Chicago, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Detroit, Ann Arbor, Minneapolis, Rochester (Minn.), Camp Savage, Des Moines, Denver, and Amache center.

He was sent by the Poston church for religious work at the three other centers and his purpose in visiting the cities was to talk with those who have relocated, to determine the attitude of the outside toward the issei and to try and see what the post-war future of the Japanese in America will be. The results of his investigation were, on the whole, much better than he expected, Rev. Kubota said. He also studied soil conditions in the country wherever he went, for the many issei farmers in the relocation centers.

With an especial interest in co-operatives, he visited and studied some of the larger ones in Chicago and Minneapolis. With Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa he made a similar tour of the same sections about 7 years ago, and found that even today the movement is in a healthy condition.

It is Rev. Kubota's belief that "the co-operative movement is the real foundation for world peace, because it is based on a principle of non-segregation, regardless of race, creed or parties."

from the brisk air and hard work of the Tule Lake fields. The charge for the meals is $1 a day.

PIGSKIN NOTES. SPORTS MENU

With the gridiron season in full swing, have you ever asked yourself "what is football?" If you haven't yours truly did and following is the answer which I was able to dig up.

Football to some people is just a game—a thrilling game, a stirring spectacle, inspiring, even heroic—yet, just a game. In truth however, it is much more than just a game. Football is a vital force affecting the lives of hundreds of thousands of young men all over the country. Football encourages and develops all that is finest in character, establishes principles of sportsmanship, fortitude, fair play besides breeding courage. It puts a premium on stamina and spirit and above all it brings to existence a respect for loyalty and teamwork which is so vital to a man throughout his lifetime. . . . American football was born in 1876 when the first inter-collegiate football association was formed. . . . Princeton and Rutgers played, the first inter collegiate game with 25 men on each side. . . . the field and goal posts were the same as today. . . . rules did not permit a player to catch the ball and run with it. . . . it had to be kicked or batted around. . . . a goal counted as one point. . . . the first football program came out in 1876 when Harvard and Yale played. . . . before 1885 a player was given three warnings for slugging before being tossed out of the game. . . . Around 1877 rules prohibited tackling below the waist.
