SEWING SCHOOL

--o--

Twenty five portable electric sewing machines arrived July 4th at the Elk. 21 sewing school. "The machines are to be used by those who have registered for classes," declared Mitzi Sugita, head of the sewing school.

With seven assistants, school is open every Monday morning through Saturday. Afternoon classes are held on Mon., Wed., and Fri. Night classes are held on Wednesday and Friday.

"Night classes for boys will begin immediately if enough boys enroll," announced Mitzi Sugita. Any boy interested should see her for further information.

The students have been sewing all their garments by hand, bringing their own sewing equipment and material.
