CENTER TO HONOR MOTHERS

A STAR IN OUR WINDOW

Dedicated to Mothers of Evacuee Soldeirs

In our barrack window, there is a shining BLUE star
For our dearly loved one, who has gone away -- very far
We shall miss him and his usual ways

Like a cloud in front of the sun's golden rays.

Tho' there is an empty space where he used to roam
Changes will not be made -- for it is still his home.

The blue star in the window is a khaki in the field
The khaki is fighting in each and every reel --

Fighting for the boldness of the RED, for the pureness of the WHITE
For the trueness of the BLUE, for all that is right.

What race - what color - what creed -- no one asks
For diligently and courageously he does his tasks --

But yes - tho' of a different race, perhaps and of different color
Still fighting side by side with others, he calls "Brother"

Churches to Hold Special Services

Thousands of residents will join the nation by attending special services to be held tomorrow by all churches of the center in honor of the mothers.

Poston I Christian Church will hold special services Sunday, with two services slated at the sancto auditorium, one at 9:30 a.m. and the other at 8 p.m. A baptismal service at 2 p.m. will be held at the river where the emersion will take place.

Units II and III Christian Churches will likewise hold special services. At III a special Mothers' and Fathers' Day program will be held at Blk. 329 with Bertha Starkey as the main speaker.

A morning worship, with Rev. K. Takeda, will take place in Unit II at 10:15 a.m. with special mothers' program at 8 p.m. in Res. 222. This is sponsored by the Jr. Christian Youth Fellowship. Refreshments are expected to be served after the service.

All Buddhist temples of the center will conduct special services. In Camp III, a special entertainment is planned for the mothers at Temples 308 and 316 Sunday evening.

Special Mothers' Day service in English and Japanese will be held at the Maryknoll Chapel at Block 45, 9 a.m. Sunday. Father Clement reported.

SALINAS PROPERTY TO BE MOVED

All evacuees who have property stored in the milkhouse on the Nuttall Ranch in Salinas, are urged to contact the Evacuee Property Office immediately to execute forms, as W.A. Sadler of the public relations department of the Salinas Vegetable Exchange, has urgently requested the removal of all evacuee property from the milkhouse.

CHRONICLE TWO YEARS OLD

Two years ago today, the first issue of the Information Bulletin, a one-page bulletin, now the Poston Chronicle, was issued to the Blk. Mgrs. as a medium of center information for the incoming evacuees.

Since that first day many changes and improvements have occurred to the center -- ~~part~~ viz; changing from a two column paper setting type for headlines, establishment of a print shop for center resident jobs, and a better variety of news.

In the months to come, the Chronicle staffs of the three units will endeavor to serve the residents with a better, more newsy and more readable newspaper.

MORE INDUCTEE NAMES IN

Twenty-two men are now scheduled for induction and a total of 118 are listed for pre-induction examinations on May 21 at the hospital, according to W. Allen Cushman, leave officer.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

...Mr. Well's 6th period core class at the High School had a very boring and uninteresting speaker. The topic was something about the Poston press its work and its staff. He looked around at the class of some 17 winsome girls, and one boy, exclusive. He was the only male specie, besides the teacher. But it turned out that he was editor in-chief of this week's "El Bullador," the school paper. Also he was one of the chuckers of the 227 Cubs, which is our favorite team, the 21b Zebras swamped the other night.

SGT. BEN KUROKI

...likes his girls looking natural, he told Heart Mt. reporters. Most khaki-clads like their girls just that way--natural in looks and in manners. That's more refreshing than a shiny crowning glory where breezes play havoc, leaving the coils softly blown? Like films of tan mirroring summertime; a doughboy's delight. TWISTED PICTURE

...captions are the bane of an editor's existence on large newspapers. The below was printed in the "Newspaperman," a journal written solely by working newspapermen:

"A prominent society leader's picture appeared the same day as that of an old battleship. The captions were mixed, and under the lady's picture ran: 'Old Battleship Rejuvenated.'"

REQUIRE CHECKS TO BE ENDORSED AT POSTOFFICE

It was today disclosed by Mas Miyazaki postmaster that hereafter all money order, government or traveler's checks must be endorsed at the post office in the presence of a postal clerk.

It was discovered that a great number of errors have caused unnecessary delays in business transactions, due to faulty endorsement on the part of the endorser.

Stamps and post cards are currently being sold at the block offices, it was stated.

Posters currently on bulletin boards throughout the unit bear the title "Enroll Now in First Aid and Water Safety Instructor's Course"

The first class meets on Monday, May 22nd with Walter Anderson, Field Instructor from ARC Pacific Area Headquarters as trainer.

Both courses will require thirty clock hours of training and upon completion students will receive an official certificate.

MOTHER'S DAY Tomorrow

This coming Sunday is the day when all the world pays tribute to the grandest persons in the world - our MOTHERS. Knowing only to give and ask for nothing our mother's love is infinite. It doesn't change with time war or peace. It is always there.

Especially our lesser mothers need more consideration from us. They perhaps have experienced the worst seeing the metabolism of their dreams security around the corner and evacuation now relocation and starting all over again.

For our mothers who have faced and are going through so much let us resolve this day to do everything possible to make Her happy and perhaps the poem below may help.

VALLEY ANGELS DOWN RAMBLERS

The Valley Angels, fielding a veteran team, remained as one of the top contenders to cop the annual tourney as they defeated the Rambler nine in their initial game by a 11-6 margin.

M. "Scrunchie" Kaihara, Rambler's man at the hot spot, electrified the crowd with a spectacular circus catch in the Valley's home of the third inning. With one gone, "Soup" Onoda, Angel's
